4.1	Attention is drawn to the fact that verbal communication given by the Employer's representative prior to the close of tenders will not be regarded as binding on the employer. Only information issued formally by the employer in writing to the tenders, under the signature of the Accounting Officer will be regarded as amending the tender documents.
5	Eligibility Only those tenderers who are suitably qualified, who meet the prescribed qualification criteria and who are registered with the Construction Industry Development Board (CIDB), or are capable of being so registered prior to the evaluation of submissions, will be considered. Tenderers must be registered with the CIDB in a 9CE class of construction work and must provide their company CRS numbers. Joint ventures are eligible to submit tenders provided that: 1. Every member of the joint venture is registered with the CIDB; 2. The lead partner has a contractor grading designation in the 9CE class of construction work; or not lower than one level below the required grading designation in the class of works construction works under considerations and possess the required recognition status. 3. The combined contractor grading designation calculated in accordance with the Construction Industry Development Regulations is equal to or higher than a contractor grading designation determined in accordance with the sum tendered for a 9CE class of construction work or a value determined in accordance with Regulation 25 (1B) or 25(7A) of the Construction Industry. Submit a tender offer only if the tenderer satisfies the criteria stated in the tender data and the tenderer, or any of his/her principals, is not under any restriction to do business with employer. Notify the employer of any proposed material change in the capabilities or formation of the tendering entity (or both) or any other criteria which formed part of the qualifying requirements used by the employer as the basis in a prior process to invite the tenderer to submit a tender offer and obtain the employer's written approval to do so prior to the closing time for tenders.
6.	Public Liability Insurance The Employer shall not award the Contract to any Tenderer that does not hold valid Public Liability Insurance with a minimum policy limit of R 20 000 000.00. The Employer reserves the right, where reasonably required due to the nature, value or risk profile of the Works, to require the Contractor to increase the insurance cover to an appropriate level. Any such requirement shall be communicated to the Contractor in writing.
7	The Employer's right to accept or reject any tender offer 7.1. The Employer does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any other tender. 7.2. The Employer will only consider tenders from tenderers who can prove to the satisfaction of the Employer that they: (a) have the necessary financial resources to undertake and complete the work; (b) are experienced in the performance of work of a similar scope, complexity, extent and duration. In making an assessment in this regard, the Employer shall be entitled to have regard to inter alia the scope, complexity, extent and duration of previous work undertaken or tendered for by the tenderer;

	16.1. No unauthorised alteration or addition shall be made to the letter of tender, to the bill of quantities or to any other part of the tender documents. If any such alteration or addition is made or if the bill of quantities, other schedules or certificates are not properly completed, the tender may be rejected. 16.2. Tenders submitted in accordance with these tender documents shall be without any qualifications. The tenderer shall request employer at as early a date as possible during the tender stage to clarify any point which is difficult to interpret. Should it be found that a point in question is significant, the employer shall inform all the tenderers as early as possible. 16.3. Do not make any alterations or additions to the tender documents, except to comply with instructions issued by the employer, or necessary to correct errors made by the tenderer. All signatories to the tender offer shall initial all such alterations.
17	Alternative tender offer. No alternative tender offers will be considered or accepted
18	Tender Offer Validity The Tender offer validity period is 120 days from the closing date.
19.	Tender clarification after submission 19.1. The Employer may ask any tenderer for a clarification of his tender, or to amend or correct the imbalance tendered rates. Nevertheless, no tenderer shall be permitted to alter his tender sum after the tenders have been opened. However, clarifications or amendments to imbalanced tendered rates which do not change the tender sum may be accepted. 19.2. Tenders shall remain valid for a period of one hundred and twenty (120) days from the time set for the opening of tenders and no tender may be withdrawn during this period unless the employer informs the tenderer in writing before the end of this period that his tender is not accepted. 19.3. Should a tenderer amend or withdraw his tender after the time set for the receipt and opening of tenders and during the period of its validity, but prior to his being notified of the acceptance of his original tender, or should a tenderer, after having been notified that his tender has been accepted- (a) give notice of his inability to execute the contract in terms of his tender; or (b) fail to sign a contract or furnish the performance security within the period fixed in the conditions reflected in the letter of tender or any extended period fixed by the employer; or (c) fail to execute the contract according to the contract documents; he shall pay either the difference between his tender and a less favourable tender accepted, or if the employer decides to invite fresh tenders, all additional expenses which the employer has to incur in this regard, as well as any difference between his tender and the accepted new tender; provided that the employer may fully or partly exempt a tenderer from the provisions of this sub-rule if he is of the opinion that the circumstances justify the exemption. 19.4. When, in the circumstances mentioned in sub-rule 19.3 it is not deemed desirable to invite fresh tenders, the employer may accept another tender from those already received.
