3. TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A SERVICE PROVIDER FOR THE SUPPLY AND DELIVERY OF END USER DEVICES TO LAND BANK FOR A PERIOD OF THREE (3) YEARS

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Request for Bid (RFB) is to invite suitably qualified bidders to submit proposals for the supply and delivery of end-user computing devices, comprising laptop computers, wireless mice and laptop carrying bags, to the Land Bank.

Land Bank intends to appoint a service provider for a period of three (3) years to supply end-user devices in accordance with the specifications set out in Section 4.3 and Annexure A.

The initial requirement under the contract will be the supply and delivery of one hundred (100) laptops, one hundred (100) wireless mice and one hundred (100) laptop carrying bags during the first year of the contract. Thereafter, the successful bidder will be required to supply end-user devices on an as-needed basis across the Bank for the remainder of the contract period. The estimated demand for Years 2 and 3 is approximately three hundred (300) additional laptops, although actual quantities will be determined by Land Bank's operational requirements and approved purchase orders from time to time.

The appointment of a supplier through this RFB will enable Land Bank to procure standardised, secure and business-grade end-user devices in a cost-effective and efficient manner throughout the contract period.

2. BACKGROUND

The Bank currently operates a fleet of laptop computers that support employees in the execution of their daily duties and delivery of banking services. A significant portion of these devices are approaching the end of their useful life, with some no longer covered under manufacturer warranty and support agreements.

The Land Bank intends to appoint a qualified supplier(s) for the supply and delivery of business-grade laptop computers for a period of three (3) years from the effective date of contract award. This procurement will be executed through an open tender process.

The successful bidder will provide end-user devices on an as-needed basis for a period of three (3) years from the effective date of contract award, subject to approved budgets, specifications, quantities and purchase orders issued by the Bank from time to time. The initial requirement is for one hundred (100) laptops, one hundred (100) wireless mice and one hundred (100) laptop carrying bags, with an estimated additional demand of approximately three hundred (300) laptops over the remaining contract period.

Bank's technology landscape continues to evolve, with increasing reliance on cloud-based productivity and collaboration platforms such as Microsoft 365 (M365), cloud-hosted business applications, virtual meeting solutions, and other resource-intensive digital services. These applications require modern, secure, and high-performing computing devices capable of delivering consistent performance, reliability, and user productivity.

3. SCOPE OF WORK

The selected supplier will be responsible for the supply and delivery of end-user devices in accordance with Land Bank specifications for a period of three (3) years. The initial requirement under the contract will comprise one hundred (100) laptops, one hundred (100) wireless mice and one hundred (100) laptop carrying bags. Additional quantities may be procured during the contract term based on operational requirements and approved purchase orders issued by the Bank.

The Bank will not prescribe specific brands; however, proposed equipment must be of equivalent quality, performance, durability, security, and support levels commonly associated with leading enterprise laptop manufacturers such as HP, Dell, Lenovo, or equivalent.

Quantities indicated in this RFB are estimates for evaluation purposes and do not constitute a guaranteed commitment by Land Bank beyond purchase orders issued from time to time during the contract period.

PEPS

Politically exposed person or PEP is the term used for an individual who is or has in the past been entrusted with prominent public functions in a particular country. The principles issued by the Wolfsberg Group of leading international financial institutions give an indication of best banking practice guidance on these issues. These principles are applicable to both domestic and international PEPs.

The following examples serve as aids in defining PEPs:

- Heads of State, Heads of Government and cabinet ministers;
- influential functionaries in nationalised industries and government administration;
- senior judges;
- senior political party functionaries;
- senior and/or influential officials, functionaries and military leaders and people with similar functions in international or supranational organisations;
- members of ruling or royal families;
- senior and/or influential representatives of religious organisations (if these functions are connected to political, judicial, military or administrative responsibilities).

According to the Wolfsberg principles, families and closely associated persons of PEPs should also be given special attention by a bank. The term "families" includes close family members such as spouses, children, parents and siblings and may also include other blood relatives and relatives by marriage. The category of "closely associated persons" includes close business colleagues and personal advisers/consultants to the PEP as well as persons, who obviously benefit significantly from being close to such a person.

A bank should conduct proper due diligence on both a PEP and the persons acting on his or her behalf. Similarly, KYC principles should be applied without exception to PEPs, families of PEPs and closely associated persons to the PEP.
