Commented [LP1]: I think here we should be specific to avoid ambiguity. Please consider writing " Upon signing of the contract by ACSA" so that we are in control of the whole process.

Commented [LP2]: This phrasing is not desirable as it has the potential of exposing us to risks and it may come with administrative challenges. For instance, a relevant committee will issue an approval which has a mandated period for this particular contract. If the construction works are not completed before the mandated period ends then that would mean that the contract is still alive and is existing beyond what was authorised by the said approval committee. In my opinion this would be irregular. Please consider specifying the period on which the completion date will be, you can always seek an extension if there is more that still needs to be done on the project.

Commented [ZM3R2]: Please note that this contract is for only the appointment of consultants. Construction will be conducted by an appointed Contractor at stage 4 (which is procurement stage of a contractor) which is part of this contract, the consultant will conduct all technical and administrative processes which include the issuing of a programme with construction timelines for which they will be providing a programme with the project time lines that will be used in the construction contract. The current statement in plain language says "the completion date for the professional services is after the release of 100% retention, which is a year after practical completion of construction"

Commented [LP4]: 'Contract Start Date'

Commented [ZM5R4]: Resolved as advised

82 Limitation of liability

82.1 The Consultant's total direct liability to the Employer for all matters arising under or in connection with this contract, other than excluded matters, is unlimited and applies in contract, delict and otherwise to the extent allowed under the law of the contract.

Commented [LP6]: The liability should be unlimited. If the damages caused exceed the total of the prices, the effect is that we cannot claim the excess.

Commented [ZM7R6]: Modified as advised

The excluded matters are obligations and amounts payable by the Consultant as stated in this contract for Delay damages,
 Consultant's share if Option C applies,
 An infringement by the Consultant of the rights of Others,
 Loss or damage to third party property,
 Death of or bodily injury to a person other than an employee of the Consultant, and Insurance obligations of the Consultant.

82.2 Subject to other provisions of this contract, the Consultant's liability to the Employer is limited to that proportion of Employer's losses for which the Consultant is responsible under this contract.

9 Termination

No data required for this section of the terms and conditions of this contract.

Commented [LP8]: Termination is a core clause. The terms and conditions for NEC contract regulate breach and termination extensively. By removing this core clause we are limiting our options and the grounds for termination as per the NEC terms and Conditions. You can retain clause X11 elsewhere in the contract but it is not advisable having under clause 9.

The Contractor shall limit dust pollution to the minimum as required by the Airport Manager. During windy conditions, the Engineer may temporarily suspend all work where dust pollution creates unacceptable conditions until such time that conditions return to normal.

In the case of working areas alongside the taxiways it shall be a definite requirement that at all times, weekends included, exposed areas are kept damp and free from dust and loose material which may be sucked into the engines of passing aircraft. The taxiways adjacent to the works shall be swept as required but at least daily.
