1. INTRODUCTION

Brand South Africa, previously known as the International Marketing Council of South Africa (IMC), was established in 2002 and tasked with leading the global and domestic marketing of our nation's Brand. The primary object of the Trust is to develop and implement a pro-active and coordinated marketing and communication and reputation management strategies for South Africa.

Brand South Africa's international mandate is to build South Africa's Nation Brand reputation in order to improve the country's global competitiveness, reflecting a great focus on driving international investment and trade.

Domestically, Brand South Africa's mandate is to build pride & patriotism amongst South Africans and contribute to social cohesion and nation brand ambassadorship, giving our country a consolidated and clear brand image. This involves the creation of a unified message and promise that becomes identifiable with South Africa, thereby building credibility, conviction and committed patronage.

Brand South Africa is also the central hub of national reputation and competitiveness intelligence. This intelligence is vital for articulating, aligning and mobilising key messages about the nation for the use and benefit of all stakeholders and strategic partners.

2. WHO WE ARE

Brand South Africa is a Schedule 3A Public Entity, which was established in terms of the Brand South Africa Trust Deed, which is governed by the Trust Property Control Act No.57 of 1988 and the Public Finance Management Act, No.1 of 1999. The organisation reports to the Department of Communication, from which it receives its budget.

3. PURPOSE

The purpose of Brand South Africa is to develop and implement pro-active and coordinated marketing, communication and reputation management strategies for South Africa.

4. MISSION

Developing and articulating a South African Nation Brand identity that will advance South Africa's long-term positive reputation and global competitiveness. Seeking the involvement and cooperation of various stakeholders in building awareness and the image of the Nation Brand domestically and internationally. Seeking to build individual alignment to the Nation Brand in South Africa, and pride and patriotism amongst South Africans.

5. SCOPE OF WORK

In line with good corporate governance practices and the prescripts of the PFMA and the MoA signed with the Minister in the Presidency, Brand South Africa is required to develop an Annual Report at the end of a financial year.

Brand South Africa requires the services of a service provider to develop (compile, collate and write content) the 2025/26 and 2026/27 Annual Reports. The process will include:

- Interviews with management, where necessary;
- Layout and design of the Annual Report booklets;
- Write, edit and proofread the content;
- Final editing and proof reading of the Annual Report;
- Photographic Services for the 2025/26 and 2026/27 Annual Reports (Photoshoot for Board Members and EXCO Members);
- Printing of 150 copies (for the 2025/26 and 2026/27 Annual Reports) on gloss and high-quality paper, including specified dividers with set measurements.
- 2 USBs of the Annual Report;
- High resolution Annual Report and Flipbook for the Brand South Africa website; and
- PowerPoint version of the Annual Report (summary presentation should be handed in an electronic format).

6. PROJECT DELIVERABLES:

The service provider must provide Brand South Africa with a comprehensive, methodology and timelines which critically shows how we will meet the deadline dates (key milestones). The proposal must be accompanied by evidence of previous similar work produced and three “mockups”/samples that are user-friendly, exciting to read and innovative on an annual basis. The Service Provider shall use the updated National Treasury Annual Report Guide to guide the contents and layout of a compliant Annual Report. The Service Provider should have a proven record of writing, editing and proofreading of Annual Reports, as this is paramount. No compromises will be accepted.

- 4.1. In terms of Regulation 4(2); 5(2); 6(2) and 7(2) of the Preferential Procurement Regulations, preference points must be awarded for specific goals stated in the tender. For the purposes of this tender the tenderer will be allocated points based on the goals stated in table 1 below as may be supported by proof/ documentation stated in the conditions of this tender:
- 4.2. In cases where organs of state intend to use Regulation 3(2) of the Regulations, which states that, if it is unclear whether the 80/20 or 90/10 preference point system applies, an organ of state must, in the tender documents, stipulate in the case of—
- (a) an invitation for tender for income-generating contracts, that either the 80/20 or 90/10 preference point system will apply and that the highest acceptable tender will be used to determine the applicable preference point system; or
  - (b) any other invitation for tender, that either the 80/20 or 90/10 preference point system will apply and that the lowest acceptable tender will be used to determine the applicable preference point system,
- then the organ of state must indicate the points allocated for specific goals for both the 90/10 and 80/20 preference point system.

Table 1: Specific goals for the tender and points claimed are indicated per the table below.

(Note to organs of state: Where either the 90/10 or 80/20 preference point system is applicable, corresponding points must also be indicated as such.)

Note to tenderers: The tenderer must indicate how they claim points for each preference point system.)
