2. BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The IDC is a public entity formed by an Act of Parliament and is wholly owned by the Government of the Republic of South Africa ('RSA'). Some of the obligations of the IDC are to facilitate, promote, guide and assist in the financing of new industries and industrial undertakings.

For the purposes of attaining these objectives, the IDC has the power to lend or advance money to any company or person. The IDC also has the power to acquire an interest in a company or to provide or assist in the subscription of capital in such company.

The business of the IDC is not structured to maximize profit solely, but is also structured to achieve development goals, such as the establishment of new industries, saving the manufacturing capacity of established industries and the creation of employment opportunities. Financing is provided against the background of the IDC having two motives of sustainability and economic development.

The IDC operates primarily under a developmental mandate, providing funding to entrepreneurs and enterprises that are inherently high risk, including businesses with limited collateral and constrained access to conventional finance. The IDC also has a business-rescue-oriented credit culture, prioritising the rehabilitation and sustainability of funded enterprises over premature enforcement or liquidation.

The IDC currently applies a doubtful debt allowance of between 25% to 40% for income tax purposes. Given the nature of its lending portfolio, credit risk profile, historical recovery trends, and collateral realisation practices, this allowance is not aligned to the expected credit losses and net realisable value of impaired loans.

The IDC seeks to appoint a suitably qualified service provider to scope, assess, and motivate an increase in the doubtful debt allowance up to 85% in line with the Income Tax Act, supported by a robust, defensible submission to the South African Revenue Service (SARS).

The primary objective of this RFP is to obtain professional services to:

- Conduct a comprehensive assessment of the IDC's doubtful debt position (both in terms of section 11(j)(aa)(A) and section 11(j)(aa)(B) of the Income Tax Act); and
- Prepare a substantiated and technically sound motivation to SARS for approval of an increased doubtful debt allowance from 40% to 85%.

3. SCOPE OF WORK/TERMS OF REFERENCE

The appointed bidder should be able to assess the IDC's doubtful debt allowance position for income tax purposes and prepare a substantiated, technically sound application to SARS for an increase in the doubtful debt allowance which will include the following:

3.1. Understanding the Business and Lending Model

- Analyse the IDC's developmental mandate, lending strategy, and target market.
- Assess the risk characteristics of funded entrepreneurs, including limited collateral, early-stage businesses, and distressed sectors.
- Evaluate the IDC's credit philosophy, including its emphasis on business support, turnaround strategies, and loan restructuring rather than enforcement.

3.2. Assessment of Doubtful Debts and Credit Risk

- Review of the loan book and categorisation or differentiation of performing, underperforming, and impaired loans.
- Analyse historical default rates, recoveries, restructurings, and cure rates.
- Evaluate the alignment between accounting impairment methodologies and tax treatment of doubtful debts.

3.3. Bad Debt Write-Off and Collateral Realisation Analysis

- Review bad debt write-off reports and supporting documentation for bad debts deferred for income tax purposes but written off for IFRS purposes.
- Fully motivate in the directive application that the IDC's policy of writing off loans is only to net realisable value, following a detailed assessment of available collateral.
- Evaluate historical collateral recovery outcomes versus book values.

3.4. SARS Motivation and Technical Submission

- Develop a clear, well-supported technical motivation for increasing the doubtful debt allowance to 85%.
- Demonstrate how the proposed allowance better reflects:
 - ✓ The economic substance of the loan portfolio;
 - ✓ The IDC's developmental mandate and risk appetite; and
 - ✓ Historical recovery and write-off experience.
- Ensure the submission is fully aligned with South African income tax legislation, SARS interpretation, and prevailing practice
- Supporting schedules, calculations, and narratives suitable for submission to SARS.

Deliverables

The service provider will be expected to deliver the following:

1. A diagnostic report detailing:
 - ✓ Portfolio risk characteristics.
 - ✓ Doubtful debt trends.
 - ✓ Write-off and recovery analysis.
2. A formal written motivation to SARS requesting approval of an 85% doubtful debt allowance for both in terms of section 11(j)(aa)(A) and section 11(j)(aa)(B) of the Income Tax Act.
3. Supporting schedules, calculations, and narratives suitable for submission to SARS.
4. Management briefing and responses to follow-up queries, if required by SARS.

Key Considerations

The motivation must explicitly address:

- The high-risk nature of developmental lending.
- The IDC's non-liquidation-focused credit culture and its impact on timing and certainty of recoveries.
- Empirical evidence from bad debt write-offs and collateral realisation outcomes.
- The prudence and reasonableness of an 85% allowance in light of net realisable value principles.

The bidder must provide a detailed breakdown of the Disbursements as follows:

Cost Element	Cost (VAT Excl.)
Sub-Total Disbursements

Note on pricing:

Disbursements (incidental expenses other than professional fees e.g., travel and accommodation, printing costs, etc.) must be clearly defined, outlining all assumptions. It is of utmost importance to submit clear and comprehensive cost proposals to allow the IDC to fairly compare bid price / cost proposals. If there is no additional fee envisaged for Disbursements, then the bidder must clearly indicate “No Charge / Free of Charge”. Failure to clearly indicate this, would result in IDC penalising your bid response by taking the cost of the highest bidder and adding 50% thereto and apply this rate for purposes of price comparisons. Bidders are therefore requested to respond clearly and comprehensively on this aspect of their bid response.
