3.	In regards to Annex A- Linesman Register , are the training certificates from any third-party training schools acceptable if they are not Eskom accredited ? Most of the time, a lot of training schools can do the climbing training but not necessarily accredited by Eskom	The accreditation of the institutions by Eskom is not mandatory, provided there are certain minimum requirements in terms of modules completed are met. If the certificate(s) does not clearly indicate the modules, then submit the detailed content for the course(s) attended. The Course Curriculum shall at the minimum, include the following modules: • Tension-stringing • Regulating • Termination and Splicing • Use of Installation tools and equipment: cable pullers, bucket trucks, splicing trailers, directional boring, etc. KINDLY REFER TO ADDENDUM 2 FOR FULL DETAILS.	14 July 2026
