CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

- 1 This Standard Bidding Document (SBD) must form part of all bids<sup>1</sup> invited.

- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).<sup>2</sup> Collusive bidding is a pe se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.

- 3 Treasury Regulation 16A9 prescribes that accounting officers and accounting authorities must take all reasonable steps to prevent abuse of the supply chain management system and authorizes accounting officers and accounting authorities to:
  - a. disregard the bid of any bidder if that bidder, or any of its directors have abused the institution's supply chain management system and or committed fraud or any other improper conduct in relation to such system.
  - b. cancel a contract awarded to a supplier of goods and services if the supplier committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of that contract.

- 4 This SBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.

- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (SBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

<sup>2</sup> Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

APPOINTMENT OF THE SERVICE PROVIDER TO PROCURE AND INSTALL THE ICT EQUIPMENT AT THE OLIVER REGINALD TAMBO GARDEN OF REMEMBRANCE.

1. INTRODUCTION

The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture (DSAC), seeks to appoint a service provider to procure and install Information, Communication and Technology (ICT) equipment at the newly-built library (with an interpretative space inside), in honour of, and depicting the legacy of the late Oliver Reginald (O.R.) Tambo, in his home village of Kantolo, near Mbizana Town, Eastern Cape Province, South Africa.

2. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this document is to outline the scope of the project and its deliverables. It defines roles and responsibilities of the service provider and what is expected from him/ her in the course of carrying out, and the delivery of the outcomes of the project. The overall venture will be implemented by the DSAC as its legacy project and will in that process draw from the expertise of DSAC and provincial stakeholders. ICT professionals, other key project stakeholders, the Project Steering Committee (PSC) and the service provider will be part of this process.

3. BACKGROUND

Oliver Reginald Kaizana Tambo (O.R.) was born in the village of Kantolo, Bizana, in the Mpondoland (eQawukeni), region of the Eastern Cape, on 27 October 1917. Tambo started school which was about a kilometer from his home where he passed Sub A when he was six years old. He went on to attend another school at Embhobeni, and then attended school at Ludeke Methodist School. In April 1928, he enrolled at the Anglican Holy Cross missionary school at Flagstaff.

In 1934 he set out for St Peter's Secondary School in Rosettenville, Johannesburg. He was one of the first two African students to pass a Junior Certificate (JC) examination in November 1936. He then went on to study the sciences at the then-named College of Fort Hare where he first met Nelson Mandela where both were members of the Students Christian Association. Tambo graduated with a B.Sc. degree in mathematics and physics from Fort Hare and then enrolled for a diploma in higher education. On 24 July 1951, Tambo qualified as an attorney.

At the 1954 African National Congress (ANC) Congress, Tambo was elected Secretary General. In 1957 Tambo was elected Deputy President of the ANC. On 27 March 1960, Tambo crossed to Botswana and to various African countries where he campaigned against the apartheid South Africa. His family was exiled in London from 15 September 1960.

With the unbanning of the ANC in 1990 and the process of transition already underway, the entire Tambo family flew back to South Africa in December 1990.

In 1991, Tambo was installed as Chancellor of the University of Fort Hare. During the early hours of the morning of 24 April 1993, Oliver Reginald Tambo passed away after a heart attack.

The O.R. Tambo Garden of Remembrance Library Project, seeks to celebrate, honour and memorialise the ideals that Tambo stood for; a life well lived and sacrifices made in ensuring a better life for all humanity.

The project responds to the country's outcry that knowledge of indigenous people and history gets lost because communities lack proper facilities to teach and learn indigenous knowledge in rural and semi-urban areas where most South Africans live.

The primary objective of this project is to promote and preserve the legacy of O.R. Tambo, social cohesion, and nation building. Broadly speaking, it is also about recovering, and even comprehending memory of a complex and often troubled South African history, not only for posterity but also for present knowledge production. The Legacy Projects Unit under the Heritage Preservation and Promotion branch of the DSAC is currently constructing the O.R Tambo library (with an interpretative space inside) in the Garden of Remembrance, Nkantolo Village, near Mbizana Town, in the Eastern Cape Province). The library is nearing is completion. The ICT equipment will seeks to provide the much needed services in safeguarding, providing information and communicating the legacy of OR Tambo to the world in today's ICT-oriented audience and customers.
