Please find below questions and answers for the Briefing held 25 March 2024

1. Is the Land Bank looking for a detailed technical proposal and is methodology required?
    a. Metadata will be required for any dataset used in providing the solution
    b. For any datasets that is compiled as the results of calculations using other datasets, the Land Bank will require formulas peer reviewed and authenticated.
    c. Training manual is also required
2. Is the Land Bank looking for existing system or develop a new system?
    a. The Land Bank is looking for an already existing system
3. There is already some datasets that are readily available such as LandCover and LandUse, can these datasets be used?
    a. The Land Bank prefers the already published government datasets and the LandCover and LandUse is one of those datasets that have been published
    b. Where the dataset is not available, the service provide must source the dataset
    c. As part of governance, the service provider will share the geospatial data (shapefiles) with Land Bank in order to keep for 5 years
4. Data sourcing to be conducted by the Land Bank or service provider in the case that the data is not available on the government website
    a. The service provider to source each data they require in order to provide a solution.
    b. Where the dataset is not available, the service provide must source the dataset
5. Does the Land Bank have any servers or GIS software's
    a. The Land Bank is look for a solution that is cloud-based, must be end-to-end solution
    b. The service provider will need to give the Land Bank a link (URL) in order to access their system