

Scope of works

Sentech is looking for an accredited training providers to conduct Combined Assurance training for 30 employees. The training must equip participants with the knowledge and practical skills to implement and manage a combined assurance framework that enhances governance, risk management, and compliance oversight.