Kwandabeni Community Claim: Research pertaining to the records of the original dispossessed individuals

Project Manager: Mthetheleli Patrick Thembani

Telephone number: (021) 409 0350

Mobile number: 083 579 2009

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF SERVICE PROVIDER/S TO CONDUCT RESEARCH IN ORDER TO DETERMINE THE ORIGINAL DISPOSSESSED INDIVIDUALS FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE VERIFICATION OF BENEFICIARIES IN THE KWANDABENI COMMUNITY PROJECT FOR THE COMMISSION ON RESTITUTION OF LAND RIGHTS (CRLR) FOR A PERIOD OF 2 MONTHS.

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Section 9 (1) of the Restitution of Land Rights Act, Act No. 22 of 1994 as amended (“the Restitution Act”) empowers the Commission on Restitution of Land Rights (‘the Commission’) to appoint a service provider/s to perform ad hoc functions for the Commission. Payment for the services sought are defrayed from monies appropriated for this purpose, as provided for in Section 9 (2) of the Act.
- 1.2 Research pertaining to the records of the original dispossessed individuals that were resident in Kwandabeni and were forcibly removed between 1927 and 1936 is essential for the verification of the Kwandabeni community claim in line with Clause 10.2 of the Settlement Agreement.

2. BACKGROUND

- 2.1. The claim was lodged on 28 June 1998 by Mr. Amos Silinga for Erf 24176 on behalf of the Ndabeni Community.
- 2.2. Kwandabeni was established in 1901 as an area of isolation for African victims of the Bubonic Plague that broke out among dock-workers in the early 1900s. It was intended to be an encampment where Africans could be inspected, inoculated and housed. It is notable that many of these African dock-workers were among the original inhabitants of District Six.
- 2.3. Using powers under section 15 of the Public Health Amendment Act of 1897 the government established a "Native Location" at Uitvlgt Forest near Maitland. Subsequently, Ndabeni was constituted and administered as a Native Reserve Location under section 5 of the Native Reserves Location Act, 40 of 1902. As a result, it was declared illegal of Africans within the Cape Town area to live anywhere other than within Ndabeni. Exceptions were those servants housed in their master's premises, the owners of property and native registered voters.
- 2.4. From that time the vast majority of Africans living in Cape Town as well as African people coming from other parts of the country were legally bound to reside in Ndabeni location and were subject to the Native Reserve Location Regulations. Thus, the establishment of Ndabeni marked the beginnings of urban segregation in Cape Town.
- 2.5. In 1919, as a response to an outbreak of influenza that killed 254 Ndabeni residents, the City Council and the Government entered into negotiations regarding the transfer of the control and administration of Ndabeni from the Government to the City. The City was reluctant to assume this responsibility at its existing site and appealed to the Government for a new area on which to build the model location.
- 2.6. Following protracted negotiations, in 1922 the Government agreed to give the Council an area of 400 Morgen for the establishment of a new location which later became Langa Location.
- 2.7. To facilitate the transfer of authority over Ndabeni as well as future locations from the Government to the Council, the Natives (Urban Areas) Act, 21 of 1923 was applied to Ndabeni on 15 March 1926. The Application of this Act gave the local authorities the power to control and regulate the lives of African people living within urban areas. According to the City Council, the Act gave them the authority to close Ndabeni and force its residents to move to Langa. This move was met with vehement opposition from the Ndabeni residents. It soon became clear that Act 21 of 1923 did not give the envisaged necessary powers to force the relocation.
- 2.8. In response, the Council in March 1930, suggested to the Government that Act 21 of 1923 be amended in order to confer upon Council the increased powers which could secure the occupation of Langa by ex-Ndabeni residents. These powers were afforded to the Council by the creation of the 1930 Amendment to the Natives (Urban Areas) Act which was specially designed to ensure the forced removal of the Ndabeni residents to Langa.

2.9 The Council granted no monetary compensation to residents, traders or institutions who were removed. Individuals who were moved received Council Housing, however, this accommodation was thought to be expensive and inadequate, given the nature and size of the extended families. Furthermore, the rental in Langa was considerably higher than that paid in Ndabeni.

2.10 Lastly, the Ndabeni residents were forcibly removed between 1927 and 1936.

3. PURPOSE

To Appoint Service Provider/s to conduct research in order to determine records pertaining to the original dispossessed individuals that were forcibly removed from Kwandabeni between 1927 and 1936 for the purposes of completing the verification process of the Kwandabeni Community Project for the Commission on Restitution of Land Rights (CRLR) for a period of 2 months.
