This warranty shall remain valid for twelve (12) months after delivery and acceptance at the final destination, or eighteen (18) months after the date of shipment from the port of loading, whichever period concludes earlier. The purchaser shall notify the provider in writing of any warranty claim. Upon receipt of such notice, the provider shall, with all reasonable speed, repair or replace the defective goods at no cost to the purchaser.

10. Payment

The provider shall furnish the purchaser with a valid tax invoice accompanied by a copy of the delivery note upon fulfilment of all obligations under the contract. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) days after submission of a valid invoice. Payments will be made in South African Rand unless otherwise stipulated.

11. Prices

Prices shall not vary from the prices quoted in the bid, except as authorised by the purchaser in writing or in accordance with a bid validity extension.

12. Contract Amendments and Assignment

No variation or modification of the terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by both parties. The provider shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations under the contract without the purchaser's prior written consent. The provider shall notify the purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under this contract.

13. Delays and Penalties

Delivery shall be made in accordance with the time schedule prescribed in the contract. If a delay occurs, the provider shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the nature, likely duration, and cause of the delay. Failure to deliver within the specified period shall render the provider liable to penalties calculated on the prime interest rate per day of delay, without prejudice to the purchaser's other remedies.

14. Termination

The purchaser may terminate the contract in whole or in part by written notice of default if the provider fails to deliver goods or perform services within the specified period; fails to perform any other contractual obligation; or has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices. The purchaser may also terminate the contract at any time if the provider becomes bankrupt or insolvent, without compensation to the provider.

15. Force Majeure

The provider shall not be liable for forfeiture of performance security, damages, or termination for default if the failure to perform results from an event of force majeure. The provider shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the force majeure situation and its cause, and shall continue to perform all obligations to the extent reasonably practicable.

16. Settlement of Disputes

The parties shall make every effort to resolve any dispute by mutual consultation. If a dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) days, either party may initiate mediation. If mediation fails, the dispute may be settled in a South African court of law. During any dispute resolution process, both parties shall continue to perform their respective contractual obligations.

17. Governing Language and Law

The contract shall be written in English. All correspondence shall also be in English. The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with South African law.

18. Taxes and Duties

A foreign provider is entirely responsible for all taxes, stamp duties, and license fees imposed outside South Africa. A local provider is entirely responsible for all taxes and duties incurred until delivery. No contract shall be concluded with any bidder whose tax matters are not in order.
