

Annexure D: Turnout Register

Returnable Document

Bidders are required to indicate the turnouts they intend on bidding for and specify the lead time to manufacture the said turnout (entire turnout system) as well as the unit price of each. Bidders are required to provide the maximum lead time, that is the longest time it would take to manufacture a turnout system. Please note that this document is to be completed by all bidders, whether the approved or not.

[illegible]