28. PUBLIC RELATIONS AND PUBLICITY

- 28.1. The Consultant acknowledges that certain information pertaining to the Project is required to be disclosed in accordance with the statutory reporting obligations of PRASA as it may be required to publish from time to time in response to enquiries from:
- 28.1.1. Parliament and its members and officers in accordance with the provisions of the Public Finance Management Act; and
 - 28.1.2. the Auditor-General under the Public Audit Act; and
 - 28.1.3. persons acting in the public interest in accordance with the provisions of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000.
- 28.2. Subject to clause 28.1 neither Party shall communicate with representatives of the press, television, radio or other communications media on any matter concerning this Agreement without the prior approval of the other Party, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

29. INDEPENDENT STATUS

29.1. No Partnership.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as creating a partnership between the Parties and neither Party shall have any authority to incur any liability on behalf of the other or to pledge the credit of the other Party.

29.2. It is recorded that it is the intention of the parties to exclude all legal consequences of a partnership.

29.3. The Consultant shall comply with all employment legislation.

29.4. The Consultant warrants that it has full knowledge of all relevant statutory, collective and other stipulations applicable to the relationship with its sub-Consultants and its relationship with PRASA. This includes, but is not limited to, the Labour Relations Act, 1995, the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, 1997, the Employment Equity Act, 1998 and any other applicable employment legislation currently in force or which may come into force during the currency of this Agreement. The Consultant warrants that it is not and will not in future be in contravention of any of the provisions of any such legislation and in the event of such contravention, the Consultant shall immediately take all steps to remedy such contravention. If PRASA advises the Consultant of any contravention of such legislation in writing, the Consultant shall, within 10 (ten) days after receipt of such notice, take all steps necessary to remedy such contravention and shall keep PRASA informed regarding the steps taken and the implementation and the result thereof.

29.5. The Consultant warrants that it is conversant with section 198(4) of the Labour Relations Act and warrants further that any the services supplied by the Consultant shall be as an independent Consultant as defined in the Labour Relations Act and the Occupational Health and Safety Act, 1993 and will render the Services as such. The Consultant hereby indemnifies and holds PRASA harmless against any claim or action whatsoever in terms of section 198(4) of the Labour Relations Act, instituted against PRASA by a Consultant of the Consultant. In the event that the Consultant
