

PART A: GENERAL TENDER CONDITIONS: SAT TENDER NUMBER UK 237/24 (Media and Advertising Agency for the United Kingdom and Ireland)

1 BACKGROUND ON SOUTH AFRICAN TOURISM

South African Tourism was established by section 2 of the Tourism Act No. 72 of 1993 and continues to exist in terms of section 9 of the new Tourism Act No. 3 of 2014. South African Tourism is a Schedule 3A public entity in Schedule 3 of the Public Finance Management Act 1 of 1999.

The mandate of South African Tourism in terms of the Tourism Act is to provide for the development and promotion of sustainable tourism for the benefit of the Republic, its residents, and its visitors. It is a common cause that tourism is a key strategic industry in terms of National Tourism Sector Strategy documents as it supports government objectives of alleviating the triple challenges of unemployment, poverty, and inequality.

Section 217 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, prescribes that goods and services must be contracted through a system that is fair, equitable, transparent, competitive, and cost-effective and also confers a constitutional right on every potential supplier to offer goods and services to the public sector when needed.

The submission of proposals will be in terms of this document. All requested information must be supplied and all annexures completed, whether such information or annexure refers to the eventual tender. This information will form part of the eventual tender and must, therefore, be completed, as there will not be an opportunity to do so later. Thus, the information supplied must be both correct and accurate.

South African Tourism has a detailed evaluation methodology premised on Treasury Regulation 16A.3 promulgated under Section 76 of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act, No. 1 of 1999), the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act 2000 (Act, No.5 of 2000) read with Preferential Procurement Regulations 2017, and the Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment Act, 2003 (Act, No. 53 of 2003)

3.5.10 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

A bidder participates in this bid process entirely at its own risk and cost. South African Tourism shall not be liable to compensate a bidder on any grounds whatsoever for any costs incurred or any damages suffered due to the Bidder's participation in this Bid process.

3.5.11 TAX COMPLIANCE (ONLY APPLICABLE TO SOUTH AFRICAN COMPANIES)

No tender shall be awarded to a bidder who is not tax-compliant. South African Tourism reserves the right to withdraw an award made or cancel a contract concluded with a successful bidder if it is established that such bidder was, in fact, not tax compliant at the time of the award or has submitted a fraudulent Tax Clearance Certificate to South African Tourism, or whose verification against the Central Supplier Database (CSD) proves non-compliant. South African Tourism further reserves the right to cancel a contract with a successful bidder if such bidder does not remain tax compliant for the entire contract term.

The Central Supplier Database (CSD) and the tax compliance status PIN are the approved methods of verifying a bidder's tax compliance. The South African Revenues Services (SARS) no longer issued Tax Clearance Certificates but has introduced an online provision via eFiling, for bidders to print their own Tax Clearance Certificates, which they can submit with their bids or price quotations.

South African Tourism will, therefore accept printed copies of Tax Clearance Certificates submitted by bidders but will verify their authenticity on eFiling.

No tender shall be awarded to a bidder whose name (or any of its members, directors, partners, or trustees) appears on the Register of Tender Defaulters kept by the National Treasury, or who has been placed on the National Treasury's List of Restricted Suppliers. South African Tourism reserves the right to withdraw an award or cancel a contract concluded with a Bidder should it be established, at any time, that a bidder has been blocked with National Treasury by another government institution.

Foreign bidders with no residence, branch, permanent establishment, source of income, or liability for any form of taxation in South Africa do not have to comply with the above tax requirements.

3.5.12 GOVERNING LAW

The terms and conditions of this Request for Proposal and any agreement entered into between South African Tourism and Bidder as a result of a successful proposal by the Bidder to this Request for Proposal (RFP) shall always be interpreted and subject to the laws of the country where the services will be rendered.

3.5.13 RESPONSIBILITY FOR SUB-CONTRACTORS AND BIDDER'S PERSONNEL

A bidder is responsible for ensuring that its personnel (including agents, officers, directors, employees, advisors, and other representatives), sub-contractors (if any), and personnel of its sub-contractors comply with all terms and conditions of this bid. If South African Tourism allows a bidder to make use of sub-contractors, such sub-contractors will at all times remain the responsibility of the bidder, and South African Tourism will not under any circumstances be liable for any losses or damages incurred by or caused by such sub-contractors.

3.5.14 CONFIDENTIALITY

Except as may be required by operation of law, by a court, or by a regulatory authority having appropriate jurisdiction, no information contained in or relating to this bid or a bidder's tender(s) will be disclosed by any bidder or other person not officially involved with South African Tourism's examination and evaluation of a Tender.

No part of the bid may be distributed, reproduced, stored or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, photocopying, recording or otherwise, in whole or in part, except for the purpose of preparing a Tender. This bid and any other documents supplied by South African Tourism remain proprietary to South African Tourism and must be promptly returned to South African Tourism upon request, together with all copies, electronic versions, excerpts or summaries thereof or work derived there from.

Throughout this bid process and thereafter, bidder(s) must secure South African Tourism's written approval prior to the release of any information that pertains to (i) the potential work or activities to which this bid

3.5.16 AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS

Should funds no longer be available to pay for the execution of the responsibilities of this bid? South African Tourism may terminate the Agreement at its own discretion or temporarily suspend all or part of the services by notice to the successful bidder, who shall immediately make arrangements to stop the performance of the services and minimize further expenditure: Provided that the successful bidder shall thereupon be entitled to payment in full for the services delivered, up to the date of cancellation or suspension.

3.5.17 ANTI-CORRUPTION COMPLIANCE

South African Tourism is committed to conducting its business ethically and achieving and maintaining the highest standards of corporate governance, particularly regarding anti-corruption compliance. We require all of our business partners, suppliers, vendors, contractors and service providers, who play an essential and valued role in our continuing business success, to behave ethically and to avoid engaging in corrupt business activities.

To assist South African Tourism in respect of its commitment to ethical business practices, all successful bidders are required to complete an anti-bribery compliance questionnaire and thereafter to undergo an anti-bribery due diligence check; the outcome thereof may determine, at South African Tourism's discretion, whether South African Tourism will enter into any contractual agreement or other arrangements with the supplier, or not.

South African Tourism reserves the right to disqualify bidders based on the results and outcomes of its risk-based anti-bribery due diligence procedures and will not furnish reasons for such decisions.

3.5.18 FRONTING

South African Tourism supports the spirit of Broad-based Black Economic Empowerment and recognises that real empowerment can only be achieved through individuals and businesses conducting themselves in accordance with the Constitution and an honest, fair, equitable, transparent and legally compliant manner. Against this background, the Government condemn any form of fronting.

South African Tourism, in ensuring that Bidders conduct themselves in an honest manner, will, as part of the bid evaluation processes, conduct or initiate the necessary enquiries/investigations to determine the accuracy of the representation made in bid documents. Should any of the fronting indicators as contained in the Guidelines on Complex Structures and Transactions and Fronting, issued by the Department of Trade and Industry, be established during such enquiry/investigation, the onus will be on the Bidder/contractor to prove that fronting does not exist. Failure to do so within a period of 14 days from the date of the notification may invalidate the bid/contract and may also result in the restriction of the Bidder /contractor to conduct business with the public sector for a period not exceeding ten years in addition to any other remedies South African Tourism may have against the Bidder/contractor concerned.

3.5.19 SUPPLIER DUE DILIGENCE

South African Tourism reserves the right to conduct supplier due diligence prior to the final award or at any time during the contract period. This may include site visits and requests for additional information.

3.5.20 DURATION OF THE CONTRACT

South African Tourism intends to enter into a three (3) year contract and service level agreement with the successful bidder(s). Unless the parties agree otherwise, the contract will also be subject to a periodic performance evaluation on agreed terms and conditions.

South African Tourism reserves the right to curtail the contract period of any tender awarded or to curtail any aspect of any bidder. In the event of any such curtailment, the bidder will have no claim against South African Tourism

For the avoidance of doubt, the capped costs shall be regarded as final and shall not be exceeded during negotiation. For the avoidance of doubt, the detailed pricing schedule should also be summarised under Annexure B of the bid.
