

ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT SUPPORT

SENTECH SOC LTD , provides broadcasting signal distribution services to South Africa's public and community broadcasters as well as connectivity solutions. We deliver value-added services to ensure improved television and radio content multi-media services for our customers.

SENTECH's Socio-Economic Enterprise Development (SEED) aims to grow and develop a pool of potential talent and suppliers in the sector. As part of developing the next generation of pioneering business leaders, the company seeks to promote technical excellence and quality of service delivery.

SENTECH is seeking Enterprise that meet ALL requirements specified below to partner with on its Supplier Development initiative:

1. Exempted Micro Enterprise with turnover of less than R10million OR Qualifying Small Enterprise with turnover of R50 Million (submit affidavit or certificate)
2. Must be 100% black owned and at least 30% black women owned or 100% owned by black designated groups (black youth, black disabled groups, Military Veterans and rural women) groups of which at least 30% must be black women owned.
3. Operates within the ICT sector
4. South African owned entity and registered with Central Supplier Database (CSD). (Proof of CSD report)
5. Have not received Sentech financial support in the past.
6. Focus on innovation and/or digital solutions -The respective respondents should have the capacity to:
 - 6.1 Generate an innovative idea or innovate on existing product or solution aligned to the Fourth Industrial Revolution and disruptive to the status quo – Outline a design process that will assist in your ideation (e.g. Design thinking: Emphasize, Define Ideate, Prototype, Test, Implement)
 - 6.2 Budget requirements to realise the innovative idea or solution – detailed cost breakdown for the proposal
 - 6.3 Submit a project plan that includes all activities or tasks with timelines
 - 6.4 Outline potential scalability (exponential growth) – clarify who is the target market and how the idea will be delivered/ implemented under the circumstances
 - 6.5 May be required to present/ clarify the idea and engage on a Q&A session. (through online engagement)
7. Sentech reserves the right to appoint as per their strategic objectives
8. By agreeing to the terms of this consent form, I hereby voluntarily authorize Sentech to verify the information provided for purposes of Enterprise Development
9. SENTECH undertakes to treat all information with confidentiality and only for Supplier Development purposes

Closing date: 04 February 2022

Time: 12H00

Applications should be emailed to: senseed@sentech.co.za

Enquiries: sentin@sentech.co.za or wagengq@sentech.co.za