Part 2 - Instructions

2.1 SASRIA SOC

SASRIA SOC Ltd (SASRIA SOC) is the only short-term insurer that provides special risk cover to all individuals and businesses that own assets in South Africa, as well as government entities. This is a unique cover against risks such as civil commotion, public disorder, strikes, riots and terrorism, making South Africa one of the few countries in the world that provide this insurance, particularly at affordable premiums.

As a state-owned entity, SASRIA SOC has a legislative mandate that governs day-to-day business operations and a broader strategic mandate to make a positive contribution to transformation within the Insurance industry in South Africa. SASRIA SOC's core business is the provision of short-term insurance for riots, strikes, terrorism, civil commotion and public disorder to businesses, government entities and individuals.

The Government of the Republic of South Africa, and specifically the National Treasury through the Minister of Finance, is the sole shareholder of SASRIA SOC. As such, the company has to comply with a number of legal and regulatory requirements.

Bidders are encouraged to review SASRIA SOC's latest Integrated Report, available on its website, to get a better understanding of its business operations and functions.

2.2 Contractual commitment

No commitment of any kind, contractual or otherwise shall exist unless and until a formal written agreement has been executed by or on behalf of SASRIA SOC. Any notification of preferred bidder status by SASRIA SOC shall not give rise to any enforceable rights by the Bidder. SASRIA SOC may cancel this RFP any time prior to the formal written agreement being executed by or on behalf of SASRIA SOC.

SASRIA SOC reserves the right at its sole discretion, and at any time, to amend, deviate from, postpone, discontinue or terminate the transaction/procurement process without incurring any liability whatsoever to any other party.

SASRIA SOC reserves the right not to award this tender to the highest ranked or highest scoring bidder, as it needs to align its procurement practices to governance practices that are in line with its own growth path. These may include but are not limited to: driving socio-economic development objectives that are enshrined in various government policies. SASRIA SOC is under no obligation to award the tender in full and may decide to award it in part to one or various tenderers.

2.3 Confidentiality

All bidders to this RFP will be required to sign the confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement outlined on Annexure A in this document.

2.4 Submission Format (Returnable Schedules)

Bidders are required to submit a comprehensively detailed bid responses in accordance with the submission format specified below:

And whereas the Recipient wishes to receive confidential information on the condition that the Recipient will not disclose the same to any third party or make use thereof in any manner except as set out below.

The Discloser and the Recipient hereby agree to the following:

1. Definitions

Unless the contrary is clearly indicated, the following words and/or phrases, when used in this Agreement, shall have the following meaning:

1.1 “Agreement” shall mean this written document together with all written appendices, annexures, exhibits or amendments attached to it from time to time;

1.2 “Commencement Date” shall mean the date of last signature of this agreement;

1.3 “Confidential Information” shall mean all information which:

1.3.1 pertains to the Disclosing Purpose, disclosed, revealed or exchanged by the Discloser to the Recipient, and which pertains to, but is not limited to all intellectual property rights, all trade secrets, all agreements (whether in writing or not) which exist at the time of revealing the content thereof to the Recipient, the content of all possible future agreements which the Discloser intends to enter into with any other party, all knowledge obtained by way of research and development, irrespective of whether the aforementioned information that is revealed is applicable to technical, business or financial aspects of the Discloser; and/or

1.3.2 any information of whatever nature, which has been or may be submitted by the Discloser to the Recipient, whether in writing or in electronic form or pursuant to discussions between the Parties, or which can be obtained by examination, testing, visual inspection or analysis, including, without limitation, business or financial data, know-how, formulae, processes, specifications, sample reports, models, customer lists, computer software, inventions or ideas; and/or

- 1.3.3 Any dispute between the Parties resulting from this Agreement; and/or
- 1.3.4 Any fault or defect in any aspect of the business of the Discloser, irrespective of whether the Discloser knows about such a fault or defect;
- 1.4 “Notice” shall mean a written document;
- 1.5 “Parties” shall mean both the Discloser (SASRIA SOC SOC Ltd) and the Recipient.
- 1.6 “Board” shall mean Board of Directors of the Discloser.
- 1.7 “Tender for Income-Generating Contracts” means a written offer in the form determined by an organ of state in response to an invitation for the origination of income-generating contracts through any method envisaged in legislation that will result in a legal agreement between the organ of state and a third party that produces revenue for the organ of state, and includes, but is not limited to, leasing and disposal of assets and concession contracts, excluding direct sales and disposal of assets through public auctions;
- 1.8 “Specific Goals” means specific goals as contemplated in section 2(1)(d) of the Act which may include contracting with persons, or categories of persons, historically disadvantaged by unfair discrimination on the basis of race, gender and disability including the implementation of programmes of the Reconstruction and Development Programme as published in Government Gazette No. 16085 dated 23 November 1994;

2. Obligations of the Recipient

The Recipient shall:

- 2.1 use the confidential information disclosed to it solely for the purposes of
.....and for no other purpose whatsoever (“Disclosing Purpose”);
- 2.2 treat and safeguard the Confidential Information as private and confidential;
- 2.3 ensure proper and secure storage of all Confidential Information;
- 2.4 not at any time without the prior written consent of the Discloser or another employee of the disclosure from which he received the information,

- 2.4.1 disclose or reveal to any person or party either the fact that discussions or negotiations are taking, or have taken place between the Board, employee and another employee or the content of any such discussions or other facts relating to the Disclosing Purpose, except where required by law or any governmental, or regulatory body;
- 2.5 not create the impression with or lead any third party to interpret or construe any
- e)condition contained in this Agreement, that this Agreement is an Agency Agreement and/or Partnership Agreement and/or a Joint Venture and/or any other similar arrangement;
- 2.6 not allege that this Agreement grants it, either directly, or by implication, or by estoppel or otherwise a license under any patent or patent application, or that it is entitled to utilize the Confidential Information in any way contrary to the stipulations contained in this Agreement;
- 2.7 on termination of this Agreement act with the Confidential Information in accordance with a Notice delivered to it by the Discloser and if no such Notice was delivered, the Recipient shall destroy the Confidential Information in a similar manner to which it would destroy information that it would consider to be its own Confidential Information.

3. Obligations of the Discloser

Subject to clause 2, the Discloser shall:

- 3.1 disclose to the Recipient, in writing any relevant information in their possession or under their care; and
- 3.2 furnish the Recipient at least 7 (seven) calendar days prior to this Agreement being terminated, for whatever reason, with a Notice instructing the Recipient about what it should do with the Confidential Information once the Agreement has been terminated.

4. Exclusions

The provisions of Clause 3 above will not apply to any Confidential Information which:

- 4.1 is at the time of disclosure to the Recipient, within the public domain and could be obtained by any person with no more than reasonable diligence;
- 4.2 come into the public domain and could be obtained after such disclosure, otherwise than by reason of a breach of any of the undertakings contained in this Agreement;

4.3 is subsequently provided to the Recipient by a person who has not obtained such information from the Discloser, provided that, in any such case, such information was not obtained illegally or disclosed by any person in breach of any undertaking or duty as to confidentiality whether expressed or implied;

4.4 is disclosed with the written approval of the Discloser;

4.5 is or becomes available to a third party from the Discloser on an unrestricted basis;

4.6 is obliged to be reproduced under an order of court or government agency of competent jurisdiction.

5. Commencement

This Agreement shall commence on the Commencement Date.

6. Cancellation

6.1 The Agreement shall not terminate automatically. Either party must be able to terminate on written notice to the other party once the Disclosing Purpose is completed. The obligations of confidentiality under this Agreement shall continue to apply after assignment or termination of this Agreement.

6.2 The Parties further agree that either Party shall have the right at any time to give notice in writing to terminate this Agreement forthwith in the event of a material breach of any of the terms and conditions of the Agreement. If the breach in question is one which can effectively be remedied, the Parties shall endeavour to jointly try to remedy such breach, failing which, the Agreement shall be terminated.

7. Interpretation

7.1 The clause headings in this Agreement have been inserted for convenience only and will not be taken into consideration in the interpretation of this Agreement;

7.2 Any reference in this Agreement to the singular includes the plural and vice versa;

7.3 Any reference in this Agreement to natural persons includes legal persons and references to any gender include references to the other genders and vice versa.

8. Dispute Resolution

- 8.1 A dispute concerning or arising out of this Agreement exists once a party notifies the others in writing of the nature of the dispute and requires it to be resolved under this clause. The parties must refer any dispute to be resolved by -
- negotiation; failing which
 - mediation; failing which
 - arbitration
- 8.2 Within ten (10) Business Days of notification, the parties must seek an amicable resolution to the dispute by referring it to designated and authorized representatives of each of the parties to negotiate and resolve it by the parties signing an agreement resolving it within fifteen (15) Business Days
- 8.3 If negotiation fails, the parties must refer the dispute for resolution by mediation under the rules of the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa (or its successor or body nominated in writing by it in its stead) ("AFSA").
- 8.4 If mediation fails, the parties must refer the dispute within fifteen (15) Business Days for resolution by arbitration (including any appeal against the arbitrator's decision) by one arbitrator (appointed by agreement between the parties) as an expedited arbitration in Sandton under the then current rules for expedited arbitration of AFSA.
- 8.5 If the parties cannot agree on any arbitrator within a period of ten Business Days after the referral, the arbitrator will be appointed by the Secretariat of AFSA.
- 8.6 The periods for negotiation or mediation may be shortened or lengthened by written agreement between the parties.
- 8.7 This clause will not preclude any party from access to an appropriate court of law for interim relief in respect of urgent matters by way of an interdict, or mandamus pending finalisation of this dispute resolution process, for which purpose the parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of a division of the High Court of the Republic of South Africa.
- 8.8 This clause is a separate, divisible agreement from the rest of this Agreement and must remain in effect even if the Agreement terminates, is nullified, or cancelled for any reason or cause.

10. Entire Agreement and Variations

10.1 This Agreement constitutes the whole agreement between the Parties and supersedes all prior verbal or written agreements or understandings or representations by or between the Parties regarding the subject matter of this Agreement, and the Parties will not be entitled to rely, in any dispute regarding this Agreement, on any terms, conditions or representations not expressly contained in this Agreement.

10.2 No variation of or addition to this Agreement will be of any force or effect unless reduced to writing and signed by or on behalf of the Parties.

10.3 Neither party to this Agreement has given any warranty or made any representation to the other party, other than any warranty or representation which may be expressly set out in this Agreement.

11. Data Security

11.1. The Recipient shall, at all times, ensure compliance with any local and international laws, regulations, policies or codes that may be enacted from time to time and put in place and maintain sufficient measures, policies and systems to manage and secure against all forms of risk to any information that may be shared or accessed through a computer or any other form of electronic communication pursuant to the Agreement. For purposes of this clause 0,

“Information” shall mean, but not be limited to:

11.1.1. all cyber related information, including data; a computer program; output of a computer program; a computer system; article; data message; a computer data storage medium; output of a computer program and output of data;
f)

11.1.2. Personal Information as defined in section 1 of the Protection of Personal Information Act No. 4 OF 2013 (“POPIA”) read with Section 1 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000; and 11.1.3. Any other information that may be shared or accessed pursuant to the Agreement.

11.2. The Recipient shall notify the Discloser in writing of any cybercrimes or any suspected cybercrimes in its knowledge and to report such crimes or suspected crimes to the relevant authorities in accordance with applicable laws, within 10 days of becoming aware of such crime or suspected crime.

12. Protection Of Personal Information

12.1. For purposes of this clause 112 -

12.1.1. the following terms shall bear meanings contemplated in Section 1 of the POPIA: consent; data subject; electronic communication; information officer; operator; person; personal information; processing; record; Regulator; responsible party; special information; as well as any terms derived from these terms.

12.1.2. “binding corporate rules” means personal information processing policies, within a group of undertakings, which are adhered to by a responsible party or operator within that group of undertakings when transferring personal information to a responsible party or operator within that same group of undertakings in a foreign country; and “group of undertakings” means a controlling undertaking and its controlled undertakings.

12.2. The Parties acknowledge and agree that, in relation to personal information that may be processed pursuant to the Agreement, the Discloser is the responsible party and the Recipient is the operator.

12.3. The Recipient must process such personal information only with the knowledge or authorisation of the Discloser and treat personal information which comes to its knowledge as confidential and must not disclose it, unless so required by law.

12.4. The Recipient must secure the integrity and confidentiality of personal information in its possession or under its control by taking appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to prevent loss of, damage to or unauthorised destruction of personal information and unlawful access to or processing of personal information.

12.5. In order to give effect to the obligations set out in this clause 112, the Recipient must take reasonable measures to-

12.5.1. identify all reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks to personal information in its possession or under its control;

12.5.2. establish and maintain appropriate safeguards against the risks identified;

12.5.3. regularly verify that the safeguards are effectively implemented; and 12.5.4. ensure that the safeguards are continually updated in response to new risks or deficiencies in previously implemented safeguards.

- 12.6. The Recipient shall have due regard to generally accepted information security practices and procedures which may apply to it generally or be required in terms of specific industry or professional rules and regulations.
- 12.7. The Recipient shall notify the Discloser immediately where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the personal information of a data subject has been accessed or acquired by any unauthorised person.
- 12.8. The Recipient shall appoint an information officer and an appropriate number of deputy information officers as may be required by the POPIA, and must provide the Discloser with the details of such officers, whose responsibilities shall include-
- 12.8.1. the encouragement of compliance, by the Recipient, with the conditions for the lawful processing of personal information;
- 12.8.2. dealing with requests made to the Recipient pursuant to the POPIA;
- 12.8.3. working with the Regulator in relation to investigations conducted under the POPIA;
- 12.8.4. otherwise ensuring compliance by the Recipient with the provisions of the POPIA; and
- 12.8.5. as may be prescribed by the POPIA.
- 12.9. The Recipient shall not transfer personal information about a data subject to a third party who is in a foreign country without Prior written consent of the Discloser. The Discloser will not grant such consent unless-
- 12.9.1. the third party who is the recipient of the information is subject to a law, binding corporate rules or binding agreement which provide an adequate level of protection that-
- 12.9.1.1. effectively upholds principles for reasonable processing of the information that are substantially similar to the conditions for the lawful processing of personal information relating to a data subject who is a natural person and, where applicable, a juristic person; and
- 12.9.1.2. includes provisions, that are substantially similar to this section, relating to the further transfer of personal information from the recipient to third parties who are in a foreign country;
- 12.9.2. the data subject consents to the transfer;
- 12.9.3. the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between the data subject and the responsible party, or for the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken in response to the data subject's request;
- 12.9.4. the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in the interest of the data subject between the responsible party and a third party; or 12.9.5. the transfer is for the benefit of the data subject, and-

12.9.5.1. it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the consent of the data subject to that transfer; and

12.9.5.2. if it were reasonably practicable to obtain such consent, the data subject would be likely to give it.

12.10. The Recipient shall process personal information of data subjects in accordance with the conditions for the lawful processing of personal information as contemplated in the POPIA, and shall at all times put sufficient measures in place to ensure compliance with the POPIA, including compliance with any compliance notices and information notices served on the Recipient under the POPIA.

13. Assignment, Cession and Delegation

Neither of the Parties shall be entitled to assign, cede, delegate or transfer any rights, obligations, share or interest acquired in terms of this Agreement, in whole or in part, to any other party or person without the prior written consent of the other, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.

14. Relaxation

No indulgence, leniency or extension of a right, which either of the Parties may have in terms of this Agreement, and which either party ("the grantor") may grant or show to the other party, shall in any way prejudice the grantor, or preclude the grantor from exercising any of the rights that it has derived from this Agreement, or be construed as a waiver by the grantor of that right.

15. Waiver

No waiver on the part of either party to this Agreement of any rights arising from a breach of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of rights in respect of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision.

16. Severability

In the event that any of the terms of this Agreement are found to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable, such terms will be severable from the remaining terms, which will continue to be valid and enforceable.

17. Governing Law

The validity and interpretation of this Agreement will be governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa.
