No.	QUESTIONS ASKED BY THE TENDERERS	ESKOM’S RESPONSE
1.	Tenderer requested clarification as follows : “We currently have a contract with Eskom for the exact same items for the whole of Western Cape. Could you guys not latch onto that contract? Please clarify with us on that so that we can know the way forward.”	This contract is for Peaking Generation and will not only be for the Western Cape. It will cover all sites within Peaking Generation which are also located in other provinces as well. We cannot latch onto other Business Unit contracts unless it is a National Contract for which provision has been made for a particular business unit to be included.
2.	“With regards to Tender No: WCPK1175KH Supply and Delivery of PPE, are we allowed to tender only on footwear and gloves, as that is what we currently supply?” “Also, with regards to the reference letters, are we allowed to submit Purchase Orders of previous work rendered?”	Refer to page 5 under 1.6 “The tender shall be for the whole or parts of the contract. The outcome could result in 2 or more contracts between multiple suppliers in line with PPPFA regulations. Eskom reserves the right to award to a tenderer who may not be the highest scoring/highest ranked tenderer, in line with Section (2) (1) (f) of the PPPFA” You need to comply with the type of references format requested in the tender – refer to Annexure P.1.
