The list of services and commodities listed in the above-mentioned categories is merely the foremost list and is not exhaustive. For any other services and commodities that are not included in the above categories, a risk assessment must be conducted by the project manager/project leader/contract manager/end-user, together with the responsible SHE functionary, in order to apply the correct risk category. This is applicable to local and international companies.

Eskom requires that an organisation that provides services to us is COID registered/compliant and therefore must submit a letter of good standing with the Compensation Fund or with a licensed compensation insurer, i.e. Rand Mutual Assurance Company and Federal Employer's Mutual Association. The letter of good standing must reflect the name of the company. Only an employer that has obtained a certificate of exemption from the Department of Labour will be exempt from this requirement. We will also accept a policy of insurance obtained from a mutual association for the full extent of his potential liability in terms of the COID Act.

The COID Act provides that where a mandatory procures the services of a contractor/labour broker such contractor/labour broker must register with the Commission and pay assessments. Failure to register or pay the assessments means that the mandatory/client is deemed to be the employer of the contractor/labour broker's employees.

However, for the COID letter, the following will prevail for tender purposes only in case a letter of good standing is not submitted

Contractor/supplier can submit the following:

- An insurance letter equivalent to a COID letter as surety. It should cover accidental death and disability cover to the minimum value of R500 000 (Applicable to companies that do not have employees)
- Proof of assessment by the Compensation Commissioner and proof of payment by supplier
- For international suppliers, the equivalent from the country of origin of the supplier based. For a supplier whose country does not issue such certificate equivalent to COID, the relevant legislation must be submitted. However, if the supplier has offices in South Africa and has employed South African citizens, a COID certificate must be submitted.
