CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

- 1 This Municipal Bidding Document (MBD) must form part of all bids¹ invited.

- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).² Collusive bidding is a pe se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.

- 3 Municipal Supply Regulation 38 (1) prescribes that a supply chain management policy must provide measures for the combating of abuse of the supply chain management system, and must enable the accounting officer, among others, to:
 - a. take all reasonable steps to prevent such abuse;
 - b. reject the bid of any bidder if that bidder or any of its directors has abused the supply chain management system of the municipality or municipal entity or has committed any improper conduct in relation to such system; and
 - c. cancel a contract awarded to a person if the person committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of the contract.

- 4 This MBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.

- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (MBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

² Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.

There shall be 3 grades of material in which excavation shall take place. These 3 grades of material are defined as follows.

Hard Rock Excavation:

Hard rock excavations shall include all solid rock in places, which cannot be removed until loosened by blasting. No material, except boulders of 0.03 m³ or larger or detached pieces of solid rock which is not loosened by blasting before removal will be classified as hard rock excavation unless blasting is prohibited and barring wedging or similar methods have been approved.

The approval of the Engineer shall in each case be obtained prior to the use of explosives. Blasting, where necessary, shall be carried out in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations.

Intermediate Materials:

Intermediate material excavation shall include material such as cemented gravels (but excluding clay), which can only be broken with difficulty and hand-picked and which, for this reason, in the opinion of the Engineer, requires power operated tools such as paving breakers for its efficient removal.

Soft Material Excavations:

Soft material excavation shall include all material other than hard rock and intermediate material excavations and includes, but is not restricted to, earth, clay, and soft decomposed rock or gravel. The fact that power tools are used to loosen such material before handling by machines or hand labour shall not be deemed to render it liable to classification as hard rock or intermediate material excavation.

2.3.4 Pole Numbering

All poles are to be numbered for ease of maintenance logging. The numbering system shall be agreed with the Engineer beforehand.

The pole numbers shall be in characters of minimum 100mm height, black on yellow and shall be affixed on an aluminum plate. A single sample of a numbered pole shall be submitted to the Engineer for approval prior to numbering all the remaining poles.

All cable joints and terminations are to be carried out by a competent electrician. Before any cable is jointed, the insulation resistance of each core to the remaining cores and armour shall be measured. If it is less than 50 Megaohms, the cable shall be set aside and the matter reported to the Engineer.

3.1.1 MANUFACTURER

All cables supplied under this contract shall be supplied from one manufacturer.

5. MAIN CONTROL BOX

Each street lighting circuit will be switched and controlled by means of a Control Cubicle which shall be mounted on the terminal pole at the start of each lighting circuit. The Cubicle will be equipped and wired according to the single line diagram and enclosed in an IP65 box, shown on drawing D32572-302-01. Switching control will be by means of a photometric daylight switch as shown on the drawing.

The connection from the control box to the overhead line shall be by means of 25mm² black insulated copper tails and suitable clamps.

Cables from the pole mounted substation to the pole mounted control cubicle will be buried directly in the ground at a minimum depth of 600 mm. Where these cables are fixed to poles they will be

E2.8 MEASUREMENT AND PAYMENT

Prescribed Labour-intensive work

Those parts of the Works included in the contract, which are to be constructed using labour-intensive methods have been marked in the Schedule / Bill of Quantities. The pay items or sub-items of the works, or parts of the works which are to be constructed using labour-intensive methods only are marked by the letter LI as included in the Payment Refers Column for that item as in the example below. The use of plant to provide such works, other than plant specifically provided for in the Scope of Work, is a variation to the contract. The items marked with LI are not necessarily an exhaustive list of all the activities which may be done by hand, and this clause does not over-ride any of the requirements in the generic labour-intensive specification in this Works Specifications.

Payment for items which are designated to be constructed labour-intensively (either in the Schedule / Bill of Quantities or in the Scope of Work) will not be made unless they are constructed using labour-intensive methods. Any unauthorized use of plant to carry out work, which is to be done labour-intensively will not be condoned and any works so constructed will not be certified for payment.
