1. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS DURING AND AFTER A COMPULSORY BRIEFING SESSION BUT BEFORE 27TH OF FEBRUARY 2026

1.1	Question	:	We do not hold our own valid FSC license and currently operate under our partner's license. In this regard, may we submit the tender directly, or would it be required for our partner to submit on our behalf?
	Answer	:	In the case of a joint venture or partnership, at least one party must hold and submit a valid FSP license, supported by a duly signed joint venture agreement clearly stipulating the allocation of responsibilities and work split between the parties.
1.2	Question	:	Is it possible to confirm who the current incumbent service providers are in respect of the investment consultants and asset managers?
	Answer	:	Due to confidentiality considerations, we are unable to disclose the details of the current incumbent service providers.
1.3	Question	:	We would appreciate clarification on the tender submission requirements. May submissions be sent via email only, or is it mandatory to deliver both hard and electronic copies to the Tender Box in Centurion?
	Answer	:	No late submissions or email submissions will be accepted. Bidders are required to hand-deliver both a hard copy and an electronic copy (on USB) to the Tender Box at the Land Bank Head Office, Lakefield Office Park, Block A, First Floor, 272 West Avenue, Die Hoewes, Centurion.
1.4	Question	:	As we attended the briefing session, we would like to confirm whether there is an opportunity to verify our attendance at this stage. Could the Microsoft Teams attendance register be used to reflect and confirm our participation?

	Answer	:	Microsoft Teams records will be used to confirm attendance, provided that the company name is clearly reflected on the attendance register.
