Government dishonest about impact of grey list status

When a government is grey listed by the International Financial Action Task Force (FATF), it should serve as a wake-up call. But it made no impression on the ANC.

Instead, government is misleading itself and the people of the country about the detrimental impact of the country's grey list status.

This is according to Wouter Wessels, FF Plus MP and Chief Spokesperson on Finance in a media release dated 02 May 2023, following a parliamentary debate on the grey listing of South Africa by the Financial Action Task Force, the economic impact thereof and steps required to exit the grey list.

The FATF keeps watch over international money laundering and financing of terrorism. Government was repeatedly warned that it will end up on the grey list and that action should be taken to avoid it. These warnings were ignored.

Improvement was mainly needed as follows : To make relevant legislative amendments. This was postponed until it was too late, even though questions had frequently been asked about the delays in addressing the matter in the relevant parliamentary Portfolio Committee.

On top of that, thoughtless legislative amendments had been proposed without fully considering the implications thereof. This delayed the process to such an extent, that even members of the ANC were unhappy about the way in which the National Treasury and other departments handled the matter.

Grey list status essentially means that the government no longer instils any confidence, no matter how much government tries to deny it.

The fact that more persons were recently implicated in terrorist activities and money laundering in South Africa, proves that the right mechanisms needed to combat it are not in place.

While the National Treasury and others are working hard to get the country off the grey list, President Cyril Ramaphosa created even more confusion with his initial erroneous announcement that South Africa would withdraw from the International Criminal Court (ICC).

The implications would have been far-reaching. Essentially, South Africa could have become some kind of sanctuary for criminals and terrorists as extraditing them would not have been possible.

To make matters even worse, the president himself is personally linked to undeclared foreign currency found hidden in a sofa at his game farm. So, it should come as no surprise that South Africa has landed on the grey list.

The only way to get off the grey list, restore investor confidence and get the economy back on track is to get rid of the ANC government.

GOP/IDP-vergadering vir dorpsgebied geïgnoreer

Mimi Swart

Die GOP/IDP-vergadering wat vir die wyke in die dorp (5 en 7) geskeduleer was en op 02 Mei 2023 om 17:00 sou plaasvind, het toe vir die aanwesiges 'n onaangename verrassing ingehou.

Sonder aankondiging of verduideliking het die raadslede en senior-amptenare eenvoudig nie opgedaag nie. Van die GOP/IDP-amptenaar, wat dié afdeling hanteer en moet koördineer, was daar ook geen tyding nie.

Wat baie raar is, is dat daar vir die ander deel van wyk 7 ook op 02 Mei 2023 om 12:00 'n vergadering geskeduleer was en wat toe, volgens wat berig word, op 03 Mei 2023 sou plaasvind. (Bogenoemde gegewens sal egter ondersoek word, aangesien geen antwoord op navraag van die Tsantsabane munisipaliteit verkry is nie.)

Inwoners van die dorpswyke

5 en 7, wat as't ware die finansies en/of betalings van die groter Tsantsabane "dra", is gedemotiveerd oor sulke selektiewe optredes. Getroue betalers se belange word net verontagsaam. "So sal lojale betalers ook kies of hul betalings sal voortgaan, as gevolg van sulke optredes," het 'n inwoner gesê.

Wat ook nadelig is, is dat die jaarlikse begroting beplan word met die insette wat uit die wyke of gebiede kom. Sonder regverdige inagneming van die insette, suig die dorp aan die agterspeen, of eintlik aan geen speen nie.

(Daar word verneem dat daar op Facebook 'n kennisgewing van 'n vergadering geskeduleer was vir 02 Mei 2023, wat nie die normale, erkende, en/of vereide wyse van kennisgewing is nie en waarvan weinig inwoners kennis sou neem.)

Dié aangeleentheid is teleurstellend en sal openlik opgelos en hanteer moet word.

KURUMAN

Murderer sentenced to 12 years direct imprisonment

The Kuruman District Court recently handed down a 12 year prison sentence to a 49-year old Keamogetse Johannes Dithae for fatally stabbing a 37-year old male victim on Saturday 24 December 2022 in Sedibeng village, Tsineng.

The court heard that the male victim was attacked by the accused after learning that he was romantically involved in a relationship with his ex-girlfriend.

On the said day, the accused approached the victim and the ex-girlfriend who were walking down a street in Sedibeng village and violently attacked the victim. He stabbed him to death, whilst the ex-girlfriend ran away, fearing for her life.

The meticulous investigations led to the accused pleading guilty in court and was henceforth found guilty as charged.

The District Commissioner

Investigating officer Detective Sergeant Mojaki Obed Mogaswe.

for the John Taolo Gaetsewe district, Major General Johnny Besnaar, applauded the investigating officer Detective Sergeant Mojaki Obed Mogaswe for ensuring that the court removes perpetrators of violent crimes from society.
