2. BACKGROUND

The SABC transcends its role as a mere Public Broadcaster, it stands as a daily companion to millions of South Africans, facilitating engagement in their native languages through a spectrum of content – be it news, public service programming, national events, or pivotal moments shaping their lives. The SABC Radio stations boasts an impressive listenership, with approximately 24.6 million adults tuning daily across its network of 19 radio stations, complemented by 24.2 million adults engaging with the three free-to-air television channels, along with the dedicated 24-hour News channel.
