3. Background

3.1 Transnet Property

3.1.1 Transnet Property, an Operating Division of Transnet, currently manages a portfolio of commercial and residential properties. The remainder of the property portfolio is still managed by the respective Operating Divisions. A new strategy, premised on a change in the operating model, was approved by the Transnet Board of Directors on 31 March 2021. This strategy is expected to bring about a significant shift towards the consolidation of the entire Transnet property portfolio.

3.1.2 Transnet Property has decided to embark on private sector partnerships (PSPs) as part of its corporate strategy to optimise portfolio returns and strengthen the Transnet's balance sheet.

3.2 Transnet's key initiatives to improve the property portfolio performance

3.2.1 Transnet has in its Corporate Plan 2021/22 set out its initiatives to commercialise the property portfolio to enhance financial sustainability, increase occupancy rates and recoveries, reduce arrears as well as strengthen the balance sheet.

3.3 No. 1 Adderley Street Building Overview

3.3.1 No. 1 Adderley Street is a landmark building at the bottom of Adderley Street overlooking the Heerengracht Street. As an identifiable landmark within the central business district (CBD) of Cape Town, 1 Adderley Street is recognized as a key building asset for Transnet providing value to the company's balance sheet, corporate image, and the City of Cape Town.

3.3.2 The building is currently partially occupied (43%) with a handful of tenants, notably Transnet, PRASA Cape Town, Metrorail, and Rovos Rail Tours. The external parking area and Old Marine Drive are also being let and managed by third party. and cannot be optimised to reach its potential rental income due to the degradation and deterioration in the existing services and infrastructure.

3.3.3 The 1 Adderley Street building was completed in 1961 which is before the National Building Regulations and Building Standards Act NO. 103 of 1977 was adopted hence it was not designed to comply with some of the requirements thereof. The Occupational Health and Safety Act (OHS Act) no 85 of 1993 which talks to the health and safety of people regarding plant and machinery (e.g. vertical transportation) was also adopted many years after construction.

3.4 Location of the 1 Adderley Street building

3.4.1 The local area in which the 1 Adderley Street building is located reflect the following characteristics:

- a) CBD of the City of Cape Town including the surrounding suburbs, such as Woodstock, Salt River, Zonnebloem, Gardens, Schotschekloof, Green Point and Three Anchor Bay.

- b) An extensive built-up urban node consisting of multiple land use typologies (example: residential, office, retail, tourism and industrial), the Harbour and extensive transportation network.

3.5 Market and Demand Overview

- 3.5.1 The Cape Town Inner City provides a wide variety of business, residential and tourism space. Future trends identified by the Central City Improvement District (CCID) shows that retail spaces in the inner city may start to change to adopt the principle of 'retailtainment'. The concept considers that larger anchor stores may undertake a transformation to become spaces of entertainment and shopping and not just shopping alone.
- 3.5.2 The role of tourism and short-stay accommodation in the inner city is also being influenced by generational travel expectations. In the recent past the inner city has gained further tourism momentum through the addition of more than 700 hotel rooms, the expansion of the Cape Town International Convention Centre, the Invest South Africa One Stop Shop, and the upgrading of contemporary art museums. These influences have enhanced the leisure and business travel preference of the inner city.
- 3.5.3 According to the CCID the residential market of the inner city is shifting away from high-end and exclusive apartments and residences to affordable residential units that are positioned to capture professionals across wider economic bands. The preference in this instance would be to reside within an inner-city context, closer to employment opportunities without incurring too many expenses on rent or bond repayments.
- 3.5.4 The Cape Town Inner City is experiencing a trend of micro-unit developments which in essence are residential units that are 20% to 30% smaller than conventional studio units (30 m² to 35 m²) but are also 20% to 30% below average market rental rates (R8 500 to R9 750 p/m).

4. Request For Information

- 4.1 Transnet requests any and all entities or organisations that may wish to submit a Bid Response in the future for a joint development partnership to submit an RFI Response to Transnet pursuant to this Document. The submission of an RFI Response is, however, not a compulsory requirement for responding to the RFP.
- 4.2 The building consists of a double-volume ground floor with a split mezzanine level, fourteen (14) floors of lettable offices, as well as two (2) service floors at the top of the building, and a single basement level below ground. The estimated Gross Building Area is 35,083m², with a total Gross Lettable Area (GLA) of 32,417m².
- 4.3 Transnet intends through this Document to:
 - 4.3.1 gain a better understanding of the market availability in terms of the potential partners to co-develop 1 Adderley Street precinct;
 - 4.3.2 gauge market appetite for a joint investment partnership for the redevelopment of 1 Adderley Street precinct; and
 - 4.3.3 refine the commercial assumptions for the Project and design an appropriate procurement framework for the Project.

- 4.4 This Document is intended to support research conducted by Transnet regarding the opportunities available in the market for the redevelopment of 1 Adderley Street precinct to its highest and best use.
- 4.5 Transnet wishes to assess the availability of potential property developers, investors, funders, and financiers that may be available for the redevelopment of 1 Adderley Street precinct through a joint venture partnership.
- 4.6 Transnet encourages respondents to provide market demand information and projections that are relevant to the feasibility of the redevelopment. Transnet's main objective is to obtain critical information from the market which can be used as a baseline to substantiate the decision for a joint investment partnership.
- 4.7 In addition to improving value and maximising 1 Adderley Street precinct potential, the bidders are encouraged to propose solutions that are sustainable, efficient and innovative.
- 4.8 Transnet therefore encourages respondents to present their operational capability in property redevelopment and to advise any improvements that they could recommend specifically 1 Adderley Street precinct.

- 7.2 If it is found to be that the Bidder / Supplier made an incorrect statement on this subject, the Bidder / Supplier can be rejected from the registration process or removed from the Bidder / Supplier database, if already registered, for such reason (refer to the Breach of Law Form contained in the applicable RFX document.)

When a dispute arises between Transnet and its Bidder / Supplier, the parties should use their best endeavours to resolve the dispute in an amicable manner, whenever possible. Litigation in bad faith negates the principles of trust and good faith on which commercial relationships are based.
