TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. BACKGROUND.

The National Film and Video Foundation (NFVF) is a public entity established in terms of the National Film and Video Foundation Act, 1997 (Act No. 73 of 1997), and operates under the oversight of the Department of Sport, Arts and Culture. The NFVF is mandated to promote and develop the South African film and video industry by providing funding for film development, production, marketing, distribution, skills development, research, and industry transformation initiatives. As part of its commitment to strengthening organisational security, governance, and operational resilience, the NFVF seeks to appoint a suitably qualified and experienced service provider to design, supply, install, configure, commission, support, and maintain a modern biometric access control system for its offices located at 87 Central Street, Houghton Estate, Johannesburg.

The proposed solution will provide secure, centrally managed access to designated areas within the NFVF offices, including the ICT server room, through biometric and card-based authentication. The system is expected to improve physical security, enhance accountability through comprehensive audit trails, strengthen the protection of organisational assets and information, and support compliance with applicable governance, information security, and data protection requirements.

The successful bidder will be responsible for delivering a fully operational solution, including all required hardware, software, licensing, installation, configuration, testing, documentation, training, warranty, and maintenance services for a period of three (3) years.

2. BACKGROUND AND SERVICE REQUIRED

The NFVF occupies the first floor of its offices at 87 Central Street, Houghton Estate, Johannesburg. Access to the office environment is currently controlled by an ageing biometric access control system that has reached the end of its useful life. The existing solution has become unreliable, is no longer adequately supported, and does not fully meet the organisation's current operational, security, and governance requirements. The current environment comprises multiple controlled access points, including the main office entrances, the basement access point, and the ICT server room. Due to the limitations of the existing system, the NFVF requires a modern, centrally managed access control solution capable of securing these areas while providing improved reliability, scalability, and ease of administration.

The new system will enhance physical security by ensuring that only authorised personnel are granted access to restricted areas through biometric and card-based authentication. The solution must also provide comprehensive audit trails, centralised administration, reporting capabilities, backup power, and secure storage of access records to support operational oversight and audit requirements.

The successful service provider will be responsible for supplying, installing, configuring, testing, commissioning, documenting, supporting, and maintaining a complete biometric access control solution that meets the NFVF's current operational needs while allowing for future expansion.

3. BUSINESS NEED

The NFVF requires a modern biometric access control system to strengthen physical security, improve access management, and safeguard organisational assets, personnel, and information. The existing access control solution no longer adequately supports the organisation's operational and security requirements and requires replacement with a secure, reliable, and centrally managed solution. The implementation of a new biometric access control system will enable the NFVF to:

- Restrict access to authorised personnel only through biometric and RFID card authentication.
- Secure critical areas, including office entrances, the basement access point, and the ICT server room.
- Provide centralised management of users, access permissions, and system configuration.
- Maintain comprehensive audit trails of all access events for monitoring, reporting, investigations, and audit purposes.
- Improve accountability by recording all entry attempts, successful access events, and denied access events.
- Enhance business continuity through backup power and resilient system design.
- Strengthen compliance with the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA), applicable information security standards, and internal governance requirements.
- Support future organisational growth by providing a scalable solution capable of accommodating additional users, access points, and security enhancements.

The proposed solution will form a key component of the NFVF's physical security strategy and will contribute towards improving organisational governance, reducing the risk of unauthorised access, and protecting critical ICT infrastructure and information assets.

4. OBJECTIVES

The primary objectives of this procurement are to:

4.1. Strengthen Physical Security

Implement a modern biometric access control system that restricts access to authorised personnel and protects the NFVF's offices, employees, visitors, ICT infrastructure, and other critical assets.

4.2. Centralise Access Management

Provide a centrally managed platform for administering users, access rights, schedules, and security policies across all controlled access points.

4.3. Improve Accountability and Auditability

Maintain comprehensive audit logs and reporting capabilities to support operational monitoring, investigations, internal controls, and audit requirements.

4.4. Enhance Operational Efficiency

Simplify the enrolment, management, and removal of users while reducing reliance on manual access control processes.

4.5. Improve Reliability and Business Continuity

Provide a resilient access control solution incorporating backup power and appropriate fail-safe mechanisms to ensure continuous operation during power interruptions and system failures.

4.6. Protect Critical ICT Infrastructure

Provide enhanced physical protection for the ICT server room and other restricted areas through controlled biometric and card-based access.

4.7. Ensure Compliance

Support compliance with the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA), applicable information security standards, and the NFVF's internal governance, risk management, and security policies.

4.8. Provide a Scalable Solution

Implement a solution that can be expanded in future to accommodate additional users, access points, authentication methods, and integration with other security technologies as the organisation's requirements evolve.
