MAGESI’S SIBIYA RUES DROPPED HOME POINTS

● Coach laments lack of composure in the final third after costly stalemates

By SIHLE NDEBELE

Magesi coach Kabelo Sibiya is unhappy that his side have dropped points only at home this season, although he can take comfort from their 100% away record. Motsepe Foundation Championship (MFC) table-toppers Magesi dropped points for only the second time this season after a goalless draw against newbies North West University (NWU) at Seshego Stadium at the weekend. It was Dikwena tša Meetse’s second successive draw after they were held to a 1-1 stalemate by Hungry Lions at the same venue before last month’s Fifa break. “Honestly, it’s a concern that we are dropping points at home but at the same time you must remember that we have won all three of our away fixtures so far,” Sibiya said. “We can’t be discouraged because we are winning away matches. “We remain unbeaten in six games so far and we are also keeping clean sheets,

“We seem to lack that composure in the final third. We need to calm down when we are in the final third so there are positives even though we are not happy about dropping points at home.” Sibiya said they should easily have put North West to the sword, bemoaning their lack of composure in the final third. “It’s two points dropped. I believe we could have done better. We had a couple of chances around the final third, where I think it’s the finishing that’s letting us down,” the Magesi coach said. “We seem to lack that composure in the final third. We need to calm down when we are in the final third.”
