

London –Manchester City’s latest recruit, Antoine Semenyo, won praise from fellow teammates and support staff after the 26-year-old scored on his debut in Saturday’s 10-1 FA Cup victory over Exeter City, matching the team’s biggest win in the competition.

rivals. “Antoine is settling well,” assistant manager Pep Lijnders, who took charge with Pep Guardiola serving a one-game touchline ban, told reporters.

“He is a humble guy and we have followed him for a long time, but he brings something to the frontline – what we really want and what we need.

“He can attack quickly, he wants to chase and he is a guy who doesn’t stop. I think you saw today that he can adapt quickly to our style.”

Semenyo slipped a weighted pass to defender Rico Lewis for City’s fifth in the 49th minute and, five minutes later, got himself on the scoresheet with a shot from inside the penalty area. “Everybody wanted him [Semenyo]; there’s a reason for that and he’s shown that today,” Lewis told the club’s official website. “It feels like a seamless transition into the team.”
