20.3 The DBSA may permit a Bidder to correct an unintentional error in its Bid where that error becomes known or apparent after the Closing Time, but in no event will any correction be permitted if the DBSA reasonably considers that the correction would materially alter the substance of the Bid or effect the fairness of the Tendering Process.

21. OBLIGATION TO NOTIFY ERRORS

If, after a Bidder's Response has been submitted, the Bidder becomes aware of an error in the Bidders Response (including an error in pricing but excluding clerical errors which would have no bearing on the evaluation of the Bid), the Bidder must promptly notify the DBSA of such error.

22. RESPONSIBILITY FOR BIDDING COSTS

- 24.2 Each Bidder, by submission of their Bid, is deemed to have licensed the DBSA to reproduce the whole, or any portion, of their Bid for the sole purposes of enabling the DBSA to evaluate the Bid.

25. BID ACCEPTANCE

All Bids received must remain open for acceptance for a minimum period of 90 (Ninety) days from the Closing Time. This period may be extended by written mutual agreement between the DBSA and the Bidder.

1. INTRODUCTION

In 2010, the then Department of Energy (DOE), now the Department of Electricity and Energy, in collaboration with National Treasury (NT) and the Development Bank of Southern Africa (DBSA), established the Independent Power Producer Office (IPP Office). Its primary mandate is to manage the procurement of new electricity generation capacity in South Africa under the Independent Power Producer Procurement Programme (IPPPP), as outlined in Ministerial Determinations issued under the Electricity Regulation Act (ERA) and the Integrated Resource Plan (IRP).

Since its inception, the IPP Office has played a pivotal role in addressing South Africa's energy crisis. As the IPPPP has evolved, so too has the IPP Office's reputation in the market. Given the evolving energy landscape, it is essential to reassess how the IPP Office can further strengthen its position as a world-class, specialised, and high-performing entity in energy procurement.

To maintain and strengthen its corporate image and reputation, the IPP Office continuously fosters and builds relationships with both new and existing stakeholders. Event management, and catering services are essential components of its marketing and communication strategy, enhancing awareness and visibility of the IPP Office brand.

It is important to note that the IPPO operates as a stand-alone office from its own premises in Building 9, Bylsbridge Office Park, Cnr. Jean & Olievenhoutbosch Avenue, Centurion Bylsbridge Office Park, Centurion.

The DBSA supports the operational requirements of the IPPO, therefore, when submitting a tender, it is important to bear in mind that the services required will be contracted by the DBSA, however the Service Level Agreement will be managed by and all services provided directly to the IPP Office.

2. PURPOSE

In support of its mandate, the IPP Office regularly hosts Ministerial and Departmental events, IPP Programme-related events, international delegations, and other stakeholder and staff engagements. These events host key stakeholders in the energy sector and, as such, must be delivered with the highest level of professionalism.

The IPP Office seeks a dedicated service provider to deliver event management and catering services. These services will be procured from the appointed provider on an event-specific, as-needed basis. The contract will be awarded for a period of three (3) years.

3. SCOPE OF WORK

The IPP Office seeks to appoint a reputable events management and catering company capable of providing event management and catering services.

The successful service provider will be responsible for planning, managing, and executing the following in accordance with the IPP Office's guidelines, specifications, and standards.

3.1. Stakeholder Engagements and Events, including but not limited to:

- High-level Ministerial and Departmental Events,
- Gala and Cocktail Events,
- Corporate Events,
- Media Engagements,
- Media Campaigns,
- Press Conferences,
- Editorial Coverage and Publicity,
- IPPP Programme Events,
