Arteta hails Arsenal's 'relentless passion' after passing tough Leeds test

Arsenal manager Mikel Arteta praised his young team for rising to the occasion in Sunday's 1-0 Premier League victory at Leeds United despite being second-best for most of the match.

Bukayo Saka's first-half goal gave Arsenal victory and marked their best-ever start to a top-flight season as the London side stayed top of the table, but there were several moments when Leeds threatened to deny them all three points.

Leeds missed a penalty and had another one overturned after a VAR check as Arsenal barely managed to hold onto their slender lead, handing Jesse Marsch's side their first home defeat of the season.

"Hectic! It is always really intense here," Arteta told Sky Sports. "We were exceptional in the first half and should have been two or three up. Credit to Leeds in the second half, we made so many errors and did not generate momentum.

"But I just love the relentless passion the team played with and how we found a way to win. This is something special, this is not a coincidence (where) it shows the willingness that I see in the eyes of the players to win, to compete.

"A lot of players played in Norway (against Bodo/Glimt in the Europa League) two-and-a-half days ago, travelled back on Friday and were still willing to win."

Sunday's match was suspended for 38 minutes due to a power cut at Elland Road which caused issues with the referees' communications systems and Arteta was glad the game was delayed as VAR stepped in to overturn a late penalty for Leeds.

Arsenal defender Gabriel had been sent off for kicking out at forward Patrick Bamford in added time after the linesman spotted the incident, but referee Chris Kavanagh overturned the penalty and red card after looking at a replay.

"I have not seen it but everyone is saying the decision was clear," Arteta said. "Thank God they made the system work. That delay was worth it because without VAR I don't know what would have happened."

Goalkeeper Aaron Ramsdale hailed their "outstanding" defence.

"As a whole, we were outstanding defensively. A 1-0 win away from home at Leeds is a tough ask and we've done that," Ramsdale said.

"Of course we want to win 3-0 each week, passing the ball, but we found a way to win today and that's the most important thing."

"Bukayo got a goal, but couldn't get him into the game. We were just losing duals and stuff, but like I say from back to front the whole game we were outstanding defensively." — Reuters

Chelsea doing 'ugly stuff' well, says Potter

Chelsea's willingness to do the "ugly stuff" is the basis of their unbeaten run under Graham Potter, the manager said on Sunday after a 2-0 victory at Aston Villa.

Mason Mount's double earned Chelsea a fifth successive win in all competitions and they have now kept four clean sheets in a row, though they were not at their best at Villa.

"I think it's a collective desire to do the ugly stuff in the game. A collective idea to help each other and to be together," Potter, whose side are fourth in the Premier League, told reporters. "If we have to suffer, we will suffer.

"We have humility and we know sometimes the opponent can get the better of us, that is normal in football. But you can see the players running and can see players getting bodies in the way to block shots."

Mount's early goal, courtesy of a mistake by Villa defender Tyrone Mings, provoked an impressive response by the hosts and Chelsea were indebted to their Spanish keeper Kepa Arrizabalaga.

He made a series of superb saves, one in particular from Danny Ings in the world-class category.

"He is contributing to us with clean sheets and how we're trying to play and the environment around the place," Potter said of the keeper, who is back in favour after a difficult couple of seasons at Stamford Bridge.

"Kepa has found a fantastic level today. Made some brilliant saves that have kept us in the game ... so really pleased for him."

With England manager Gareth Southgate in the stands at Villa Park, Mount did his World Cup prospects no harm with his first Premier League goals of the season.

"He's got the quality, got the ability to score and assist. Sometimes players go through little dips if the team isn't functioning that well," Potter said.

"But the effort has always been there from my perspective and once he can get in the spaces we want to get into he has got the quality to execute and you saw that today."

Right back Reece James will "give everything" to be fit for the World Cup but Potter gave little room for much hope on Sunday. — Reuters
