2. BACKGROUND AND PROBLEM STATEMENT

- 2.1. Section 25(5) of the Constitution of Republic of South Africa, 1996 (the Constitution) places a positive obligation on the state to take reasonable legislative and other measures, within its available resources to foster conditions which enable citizens to gain access to land on an equitable basis.
- 2.2. Section 25 (6) of the Constitution provides that a person or community whose tenure of land is legally insecure as a result of past racially discriminatory laws or practices is entitled, to the extent provided by an Act of Parliament, either to tenure which is legally secure or to comparable redress.
- 2.3. Section 25 (7) of the Constitution provides that a person or community repossessed of property after 19 June 1913 as a result of past racially discriminatory laws or practice is entitled to the extent provided by an Act of Parliament either to restitution of the property or to equitably redress.
- 2.4. Section 26 (3) of the constitution states that no one may be evicted from their home, or have their home demolished without an order of court made after considering all the relevant circumstances. No legislation may permit arbitrary evictions.
- 2.5. To give effect to the above Constitutional provisions, Parliament enacted legislations, including the following: the Land Reform (Labour Tenants) Act 3 of 1996 as amended, the Extension of Security of Tenure Act 62 of 1997 (ESTA) as amended, Restitution of Land Rights Act 22 of 1994 as amended and Communal Property Association Act 28 of 1996 as amended. These legislations seeks to ensure the fulfillment of constitutional promises to legally secure tenure.
- 2.6. Section 21 of the Extension of Security of Tenure Act (ESTA) requires Director General of the Department of Land Reform and Rural Development (DLRRD) to provide mediation services to any party who request or upon his or her accord to mediate any dispute arising in terms of this Act.

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF SERVICE PROVIDERS TO PROVIDE MEDIATION SERVICES AND GENERAL ADVICE UNDER THE PANEL OF THE LAND RIGHTS MANAGEMENT FACILITY FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF LAND REFORM AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT FOR THE MPUMALANGA PROVINCE FOR A PERIOD OF 36 MONTHS AS AND WHEN REQUIRED.

- 2.7. Section 36 of the Land Reform (Labour Tenants) Act (LTA) authorizes the Director General to appoint mediators. The identity of the mediator is determined by the Director General; but the Act provides that the parties may at any time during the course of mediation or negotiation, by agreement, appoint another person to mediate the dispute.
- 2.8. Section 10 of the Communal Property Association Act (CPA) authorizes the Registrar to appoint a conciliator (mediator) to assist in resolving a dispute between a CPA and its members or between members or committee members.
- 2.9. Section 13 of the Restitution of Land Rights Act (RLRA) authorizes the Chief Land Claims Commissioners (CLCC) to direct the parties concerned to attempt to settle their dispute through a process of mediation and negotiation.
- 2.10. Notwithstanding the above legislative and other form of government interventions, the land tenure of the majority of South Africans remains legally insecure and land claims lodged in terms of Restitution of Land Right act and Land Reform (Labour Tenant) Act remains unsettled and unfinalized.
- 2.11. Moreover, since the inception of over 1600 CPAs were registered. Numerous challenges were identified in relation to the Implementation of the CPA Act. These challenges were captured in the study conducted by the CSIR in 2005. This report and first CPA Annual Report to Parliament that was compiled in 2010 painted a bleak picture regarding the Communal Property Associations compliance level. Despite limited intervention by the Department there has been little improvement in compliance levels over the years.
- 2.12. In order to resolve the above, the DLRRD established the Land Rights Management Facility (LRMF) which has funds to cater for the provision of mediation services to the above.
