SUPPLIERS DATABASE REGISTRATION

National Treasury launched the National Central Supplier Database (NCSD) with effect from 1 September 2015.

This will enable prospective suppliers to register their companies on the following website www.csd.gov.za

Transitional Period (1 September 2015 to 30 June 2016)

1. During the transitional period suppliers are requested to register on the website where all their essential information such as Tax Clearance Certificates, VAT, Company Registration Numbers and CIPC business status will be verified.
2. When conducting business with the JDA, you will be requested to provide us with the following:
 - Supplier Number and;
 - Supplier Registration Security Code so we can print your real time information;
 - Banking details with bank Stamp and;
 - Certified BBBEE Certificate.

Once a supplier has registered on NCSD, it will no longer be a requirement to provide the JDA with an Original Tax Clearance Certificate or any other registration documents.

After Transitional Period 1 July 2016

Effective 1 July 2016, the JDA will only award business to suppliers who are registered on NCSD and suppliers will no longer be required to provide information as stipulated above.

RE: The channels of reporting fraudulent and Corrupt Activities

The City of Johannesburg has a zero-tolerance approach to Fraud, Theft, Corruption, Maladministration, and Collusion by suppliers with employees.

To reinforce this commitment, more channels have been added to report any Fraudulent and Corrupt activities.

Instances of corporate fraud and misconduct remain a constant threat to service delivery. The City of Johannesburg took a resolution to adopt strategic interventions aimed at combatting fraud and corruption.

The City took a decision to centralize the reporting of fraudulent and corrupt activities through the establishment of an independent fraud hotline.

All people doing business with the Johannesburg Development Agency are encouraged to report any corrupt or illegal practice.

Employees are encouraged to report fraud, waste or other concerns suggestive of dishonest or illegal activities.

Anyone can report fraudulent and corrupt activities through one of the following channels:

- Toll free number: 0800-0025-87 (all official languages)
- Email Address: whistle@joburg.org.za
- Walk in: 48 Ameshhof Street, SAPPI Building, East Wing, 5th Floor
- Social Media Pages: Facebook (Group Forensic and investigation services GFIS) and Twitter (@cojgfs)
- Management Request and referrals: Various Departments and Entities

Let's join hands to take up the Fight against Fraud and Corruption in our society.

WE ENCOURAGE ALL PEOPLE DOING BUSINESS WITH US TO REPORT ANY CORRUPT OR ILLEGAL PRACTICE

2.2.2 Provision of Probity Audit Services for Panels

The professional team for this service must provide :

Proof of Registration (entity and/or one of the Director) with the relevant Internal Audit related professional bodies. They should be registered with one of the following professional bodies:

- Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA)
- South African Institute of Chartered Accountant (SAICA)

In line with the principles of transparency, fairness, accountability, and good governance within public sector procurement, JDA seeks to appoint suitably qualified and independent Probity Auditors to provide assurance over the integrity and compliance of strategic procurement processes.

This approach is aligned to the guidance contained in MFMA Circular 62, which recognises the role of Internal Audit and independent assurance mechanisms in strengthening oversight over Supply Chain Management (SCM) processes and mitigating procurement-related risks. Probity reviews are undertaken to provide independent assurance that procurement processes are conducted in a fair, transparent, equitable, competitive, and cost-effective manner in accordance with applicable legislation, SCM policies, and governance requirements.

The probity process is intended to strengthen governance, reduce the risk of irregularities, improve stakeholder confidence, and ensure that procurement decisions are made with integrity and accountability.

Prospective Probity Auditors are expected to conduct probity audit and quality assure the compliance to the procurement processes which includes bid specification, bid evaluation and attendance of bid adjudication. The appointed Probity Auditors are expected to audit the bidding process using Audit Managers that are adequately skilled as well as experienced in auditing of public sector Supply Chain Management.

The probity audit process must provide quality assurance of the process implemented from specification to the final evaluation report ensuring the following compliance areas are adequately addressed in each step of the process:

- Regulatory Compliance
- Administrative Compliance
- Internal controls
- Governance arrangements

The appointed Probity Auditors shall disclose, as part of their methodology and during execution of the assignment, any intention to utilise the services or input of other specialists or subject matter experts, including but not limited to legal practitioners, engineers, quantity surveyors, ICT specialists, or other technical consultants.

Such disclosure must clearly indicate:

- The nature and purpose of the specialist involvement;
- The specific scope of work to be performed by the specialist;
- The qualifications and experience of the specialist; and
- How the Probity Auditor will maintain accountability and oversight over the work performed by such specialists.

The appointment or use of any specialist shall not transfer accountability away from the appointed Probity Auditor, who shall remain fully responsible for the quality, integrity, and conclusions of the probity review.

6.3 Price and Empowerment

~~Having completed compliance checks, the procedure for the evaluation of compliant tenders is Method 2 (Price and Preferences).~~

~~The Preference Point System assigns a score to each tenderer based on the tender price and on the specific goals as stated in the tender document. These scores are combined to determine an overall score for the tender. The tenderer with the highest score will be considered for acceptance.~~

~~Points scored will be rounded off to the nearest 2 decimal places.~~

FORMULA FOR SCORING TENDER PRICE

The following formula will be used to calculate the points for price.

$$P_s = X \left[1 - \frac{(P_t - P_{min})}{P_{min}} \right]$$

Where

P_s = Points scored for comparative price of tender under consideration

6.4 Risk Tolerance

~~The JDA has adopted a Risk Tolerance Framework (RTF) which enjoins the JDA to consider its risk exposure to contractors / service providers in terms of the number of contracts awarded to a single contractor / service provider in a particular year.~~

~~In terms of the Risk Tolerance Framework, the JDA determines the risk exposure as excessive in instances where the value of the contracts for individual professional service providers (eg. project managers / engineers / quantity surveyors / consultants) is either :~~

~~for multi-disciplinary professional consultants/ service provider in instances where the number of projects exceed four projects over one financial year.~~

~~A risk analysis shall be undertaken on the bidder with the highest number of points obtained, to determine whether the tenderer does not exceed the JDA's risk framework criteria as stated above. In other words, whether it falls within the ambit of the Risk Tolerance Framework as acceptable.~~

~~JDA reserves the right to award a contract to a bidder who has exceeded the threshold as stated above.~~

7. CLOSING DATE, TIME AND VENUE FOR SUBMISSIONS

ANNEXURE G: POPI ACT

CONSENT AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS IN TERMS OF THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT 2013 (POPI)

This section sets out how personal information will be collected, used and protected by Johannesburg Development Agency hereinafter referred to as “JDA”, as required by the Protection of Personal Information Act. The use of the words “the individual” for the purposes of this document shall be a reference to any individual (bidder) communicating with JDA and/or concluding any agreement, registration or application, with the inclusion of each of those individuals referred to or included in terms of such agreement, registration or application.

1. What is personal information?

The personal information that JDA requires relate to names and surnames, birth dates, identity numbers, passport numbers, demographic information, education information, occupation information, health information, addresses, memberships, personal and work email and contact details.

2. What is the purpose of the collection, use and disclosure (the processing) of personal information?

JDA is legally obligated to collect, use and disclose personal information for the purposes of:

- reporting initiatives to the City of Johannesburg Municipality;
- reporting to National Treasury all contracts awarded;
- obtaining information related to Tax Compliance information from SARS;
- verifying information on the National Treasury database of defaulters;
- evaluating and processing applications for registration on the database;
- compiling statistics and other reports;
- providing personalised communications;
- complying with the law; and/or
- for a purpose that is ancillary to the above and as may be directed by our POPI manual/Policy. Personal information will not be processed for a purpose other than what is identified (the purpose) above without obtaining consent beforehand.

3. How will JDA process personal information?

JDA will only collect personal information for the purpose as stated above and for such specific purpose. Information will be collected in the following manner:

- directly from the individual;
- from service providers who provided with services or goods to JDA;
- from JDA's own records relating to previous supply of services or goods; and/or
- from a relevant public or equivalent entity.

4. To whom will personal information be disclosed?

The personal information may be disclosed to other relevant public or other entities on whose behalf we act as intermediaries, other third parties referred to above in relation to the purpose or who are sources of personal information, service providers such as professional bodies who operate across the borders of this country (transborder flow of information) where personal information must be sent in order to provide the information and/or services and/or benefits requested or applied for. In the event of another party/ies acquiring all of or a portion of JDA's mandate or functions, personal information will be disclosed to that party but they will equally be obliged as we are, to protect personal information in terms of this policy and the law.

5. Consent and Permission to process personal information:

I hereby agree with the policy and provide authorisation to JDA to process the personal information provided for the purpose stated:

- I understand that withholding of or failure to disclose personal information will result in JDA being unable to perform its functions and/or any services or benefits I may require from JDA.
- Where I shared personal information of individuals other than myself with JDA, I hereby provide consent on their behalf to the collection, use and disclosure of their personal information in terms of this personal information policy and I warrant that I am authorised to give this consent on their behalf.
- To this end, I indemnify and hold JDA not responsible in respect of any claims by any other person on whose behalf I have consented, against JDA should they claim that I was not so authorised.
- I understand that in terms of POPIA and other laws of the country, there are instances where my express consent is not necessary in order to permit the processing of personal information, which may be related to police investigations, litigation or when personal information is publicly available.
- I will not hold JDA responsible for any improper or unauthorised use of personal information that is beyond its reasonable control.

6. Rights regarding the processing of personal information:

- The individual may withdraw consent to the processing of personal information at any time, and should they wish to do so, must provide JDA with reasonable notice to this effect. Please note that withdrawal of consent is still subject to the terms and conditions of any contract that is in place. Should the withdrawal of consent result in the interference of legal obligations, then such withdrawal will only be effective if JDA agrees to same in writing. JDA specifically draws to the attention that the withdrawal of consent may result in it being unable to provide the requested information and/or services and/or financial or other benefits.
- In order to withdraw consent, please contact the JDA Information Officer/SCM
- A copy of the full JDA policy is available.
- Individuals are encouraged to ensure that where personal information has changed in any respect to notify JDA so that our records may be updated. JDA will largely rely on the individual to ensure that personal information is correct and accurate.
- The individual has the right to access their personal information that JDA may have in its possession and are entitled to request the identity of which third parties have received and/or processed personal information for the purpose. Please note however, that any request in this regard may be declined if:
 - the information comes under legal privilege in the course of litigation,
 - the disclosure of personal information in the form that it is processed may result in the disclosure of confidential or proprietary information,
 - giving access may cause a third party to refuse to provide similar information to JDA,
 - the information was collected in furtherance of an investigation or legal dispute, instituted or being contemplated,
 - the information as it is disclosed may result in the disclosure of another person's information,
 - the information contains an opinion about another person and that person has not consented, and/or
 - the disclosure is prohibited by law.

7. Queries relating to breach of personal information:

- Please submit queries relating to the breach of personal information to the JDA's information officer and SCM in writing as soon as the breach is discovered.
