TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A SERVICE PROVIDER(S) TO DEVELOP VILLAGE DEVELOPMENT PLANS FOR NORTH WEST PROVINCE WITHIN A PERIOD OF SIX (6) MONTHS IN THE NORTH WEST PROVINCE

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. The Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development (DALRRD) under the Branch Spatial Planning and Land Use Management (SPLUM) needs to appoint a service provider or a consortium of suitably qualified service providers to develop Village Development Plans in the North West Province.
- 1.2. The DALRRD seeks to appoint a suitably qualified and experienced service provider(s), primarily Town/Urban/City and Regional Planners complimented by a team of other complimentary experts for a period of six (6) months to render professional services in the preparation of 42 Village Development Plans (VDP) in the North West Province.
- 1.3. The VDP provides a detailed interpretation of a rural space prioritised for intervention according to the respective Municipal Integrated Development Plan and Spatial Development Framework. The VDP is a spatially explicit area within a municipal area that is made subject to particular administrative arrangements to protect and promote rural and regional landscape values and supporting activities within the rural precinct.

2. BACKGROUND

2.1. Village Development Plans also known as Precinct Plans, do not always conform to the formal administrative boundaries as outlined in current planning legislation and policies. In planning, a precinct typically refers to a smaller geographic area with distinct features that necessitate focused planning and interventions within the larger administrative boundaries of a municipality. The size of a precinct can vary depending on its specific characteristics.

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A SERVICE PROVIDER(S) TO DEVELOP VILLAGE DEVELOPMENT PLANS FOR NORTH WEST PROVINCE WITHIN A PERIOD OF SIX (6) MONTHS IN THE NORTH WEST PROVINCE

- 2.2. A precinct can be developed to provide a new desired development pattern to an area, alter existing land use disparities, protect and promote existing predominant or preferred future dominant land uses and associated ancillary or compatible land uses. Example of core attributes a Village Development Plan should protect and promote includes:
 - a) A sense of place,
 - b) Functional built environment to promote:
 - i. Accessibility-paths and linkages,
 - ii. Equity-even distribution of resources,
 - iii. Integration- place making,
 - iv. Functionality-compatibility of land use activities,
 - v. Sustainability-social, economic, institutional enhancement and environmental protection.
 - c) Economic activities and opportunities,
 - d) Agriculture,
 - e) Intensive animal production,
 - f) Sport and recreation,
 - g) Forestry,
 - h) Water supply catchments and other water supply sources,
 - i) Rural or eco-tourism,
 - j) Mining and extractive resources,
- 2.3. A precinct plan is a strategic planning tool that outlines a vision for the future development of a specific area. It provides a framework for managing and guiding land-use changes to achieve environmental, social, and economic objectives. By implementing a precinct plan, any discrepancies in land usage can be effectively addressed, while ensuring the preservation or advancement of critical or preferred future land uses and their corresponding appropriate land uses.
- 2.4. A precinct plan as required by this project should take into account all of the issues affecting traditional areas, including its buildings and spaces, land uses, activities and transport. An essential aspect of this process is feedback from the community on how the area should evolve. An important phase of the precinct planning process requires consultation with the community, residents, businesses and the development industry to determine the best outcome for the precinct area.

- 2.5. Each precinct plan requires detailed and ongoing consultation with its local community. From the background research, analysis and consultation, the precinct plan should determine what is working well in an area and how this can be enhanced, and how the area can grow and change in the future. It provides clear strategies and detailed actions for how this can be achieved through the implementation of the precinct plan over time.
- 2.6. The precinct plan will inform interventions by both the public and private sectors in order to facilitate economic growth and development through social, spatial and economic development or regeneration. The aim is to initiate, stabilize, consolidate and promote economic development in the precinct and to enhance business efficiencies and opportunities as a response to various government initiatives by proposing appropriate land-use interventions or densities within this nodal area.
- 2.7. The proposals in the precinct plan should inform the overall development of the precinct in terms of medium to long-term strategic interventions required to promote the development of spatially and economically integrated precincts that are attractive, efficient, convenient, safe and effectively managed. The interventions will also promote restructuring, sustainable communities, economic development, poverty alleviation and environmental sustainability.
- 2.8. The primary aim of a precinct plan is the arrangement of land use and infrastructure associated with the needs of specific communities within administrative regions. It integrates transportation, environment, education, economic development, social, residential development and other developmental requirements. Development needs, opportunities and priorities are identified. It is a process that is community- based and driven.

- 2.9. The required precinct plan must: -
- 2.9.1. Give effect to the development principles contained in the Spatial Planning and Land Use Management Act, 2013
 - a) Spatial Justice.
 - b) Spatial Sustainability.
 - c) Efficiency.
 - d) Spatial Resilience; and
 - e) Good Administration
- 2.9.2. Be consistent with the various and respective Municipal Spatial Development Framework and sets out objectives that reflect the desired spatial form of the rural communities.
- 2.9.3. Contain strategies, policies and plans which must-
 - Indicate desired patterns of land use within the precinct; Address the spatial reconstruction of the location and nature of development within the identified precinct; and
 - b) Provide strategic guidance in respect of the nature of development within the precinct.
- 2.9.4. Set out basic guidelines for a land use management system in the precinct.
- 2.9.5. Identify programmes, projects and restructuring elements for the development of land within the precinct;
- 2.9.6. Provide a visual representation of the desired spatial form of the precinct which:
 - must indicate where public and private land development and infrastructure investment should take place,
 - b) must indicate desired or undesired utilization of space in the particular area,
 - c) may delineate the land use parcels and precincts,
 - d) must identify areas where strategic intervention is required, and

- e) must provide urban design interventions and guidelines to enhance the aesthetic appeal.
- 2.10. Rural communities continue to face challenges such as poverty, inequality, inadequate access to basic social infrastructure, underdevelopment, limited economic opportunities, fragmented spatial patterns, and environmental degradation. Historically, agriculture and subsistence farming served as the primary sources of food and income/exchange benefits in rural areas. Despite progress, rural regions still experience high levels of poverty, inadequate spatial planning, limited economic opportunities, and insufficient access to essential services.

3. PROBLEM STATEMENT

- 3.1. The introduction of the Spatial Planning and Land Use Management Act (SPLUMA), 2013 has realized the process of wall-to-wall planning. In terms of Chapters 4 and 5 of SPLUMA, the preparation of planning tools, frameworks and legislation needs to:
 - "Include previously disadvantaged areas, areas under traditional leadership, rural areas, informal settlements, slums and land holdings of state-owned enterprises and government agencies and address their inclusion and integration into the spatial, economic, social and environmental objectives of the relevant sphere".
 - "Include provisions that permit the incremental introduction of land use management and regulation in areas under traditional leadership, rural areas, informal settlement, slums and areas not previously subject to a land use scheme".
- 3.2. In light of this the Department, through the Directorate SPLUM, is prioritizing SPLUMA implementation in areas under traditional leadership through Precinct Planning (also known as Local Area Planning) initiatives, and commonly referred to as the Village Development Plan (VDP) in the North West Province.

3.3. The various villages do not currently have detail plans guiding spatial planning and land use management in the area and only depends on the rural development plans toguide any development and land use activities.

Table 1: Village Development Plans Areas

- 4.2. The proposed boundaries for each VDP have been determined and will be confirmed together with the service provider at the inception of the project.
- 4.3. These areas have little to no engineering and social infrastructure as such a Village development plan can ensure the identification and prioritization of such infrastructure for the growth and development of the area.

5. LEGISLATIVE AND POLICY FRAMEWORK

5.1. The Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act, 2019

5.1.1. The traditional leadership of each Traditional authority is recognized in terms of the Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act, 3 of 2019 (TKLA) and all processes and procedures should be followed in alignment with TKLA. All functions and duties pertaining to the traditional leadership will be subject to Section 15 of the TKLA.

5.2. The Spatial Planning and Land Use Management Act, 2013

- 5.2.1. The Spatial Planning and Land Use Management Act no. 16 of 2013 (SPLUMA) is a legislation that gives a framework for all spatial planning and land use management in South Africa. It seeks to promote consistency and uniformity in procedures and decision-making pertaining to issues spatial planning and land usemanagement. Other objectives include addressing historical spatial imbalances and the integration of the principles of sustainable development into land use and planning regulatory tools and legislative instruments.
- 5.2.2. In terms of Chapter 3, Section 9 the National Government must provide support and assistance to municipalities in the performance of its land use management functions and also monitor the quality and effectiveness of municipal spatial development frameworks and other spatial planning and land use management tools and instruments of municipalities.

5.3. The National Spatial Development Framework (NSDF: Vision 2050)

5.3.1. The National Spatial Development Framework (NSDF), the first of its kind, seeks to make a bold and decisive contribution to bringing about the peaceful, prosperous, and truly transformed and just South Africa, as articulated in the Freedom Charter, the Reconstruction and Development Programme and the National Development Plan.

- 5.3.2. The NSDF seeks to redress and resolve the multiple and persisting social and economic problems created by the way in which the country's national space was unequally 'carved up', fragmented and developed at the (i) national, and (ii) sub-national (provincial, regional, municipal and settlement) scales for the singular use and enjoyment.
- 5.4. The National Spatial Development Framework (NSDF) aims to ensure effective and collaborative investment in infrastructure and development at both state and non-state levels. This includes targeted spending on social, economic, and spatial development in both national and sub-national areas. By doing so, South Africa can move towards a shared, inclusive, and sustainable future that meets our needs and aspirations.
- 5.5. The NSDF has proposed several radical and necessary concepts that are bound to have a significant impact on space. Although all these concept impact on Rural Development, some are particularly relevant to rural development:
 - a) Productive Rural Regions: The cornerstones of our national resource foundation and the engines of national rural transitions are productive rural regions.
 - b) National Spatial Social Service Provisioning Model: Effective, affordable, and equitable social service delivery is ensured through a national spatial social service provisioning model.
 - c) National Ecological Infrastructure System: Creating a Shared, Resilient, and Sustainable Natural Resource Foundation through a National Ecological Infrastructure System

5.6. The NSDF proposes a Regional-Rural Development Model as a third National Spatial Development Lever (see figure 2 below) that takes a systemic view of rural areas and suggests the implementation of a "soft delineation" strategy for "polycentric functional rural regions" that have been identified.

- 5.7. This model proposes that the Rural Regions should be characterised by:
 - a) To establish a strong presence of the region in the national space economy, it is essential to have at least one well-connected regional anchor that is both located within the region and connected to the national transport network.
 - b) Characteristics and qualities in the social, cultural, historical, economic, and cultural spheres that would eventually permit the formation of a "functional rural region,"
 - c) The possibility for thriving and active intra-regional rural trade between the region's towns and villages, and
 - d) The use of "rural edges" to improve "regional systems" against incompatible and potentially detrimental land use practices as a way to preserve the integrity of rural regions and conserve vital ecosystems. The lack of implementation potentially threatens the local indigenous way of life, culture and have the ability to undermine the region's rural character, remove or destroy essential elements of regional systems, and disturb the rural aspect of the area.

e) Envisages the use of 'rural edges' to bolster the 'regional systems' from intrusion of non-compatible and potentially destructive land uses that could (1) disrupt or violate the rural integrity of the region, (2) remove or destroy crucial regional systems-components, such as the ecosystems on which the region relies, and (3) threaten local lifestyles and cultures in the region.

5.8. Rural Development Sector Plans

- 5.8.1. A write up paragraph on the Rural development plans and their perspective the subject villages.
- 5.8.2. The development of the VDPs will be aligned with and in accordance with the Rural Development Sector Plans.
- 5.8.3. The Rural Development Sector Plans identified various opportunities of the rural spaces of North West in order to ensure that they achieve their development potential. The VDPs will be developed within rural spaces and will seek alignment to the Rural Development Plan of the Province and that of the respective municipalities Spatial Development Framework.

6. OBJECTIVES

- 6.1. The key objective of the project is to appoint a service provider to develop 42 Village Development Plans for the North West Province for a period of six (6) months that should:-
- 6.1.1. Include proposals to guide future development and investment in the area by recommending projects partnerships in order to ensure implementation of projects that are in alignment with the various Municipal Spatial Planning and Land Use Management tools and instruments:

- a) clearly define a development vision and objectives for the defined precinct,
- b) describe and analyse the status quo and baseline data and trends,
- c) describe future role and function of the development area,
- d) provide spatial direction and customized land use management,
- e) land use controls to protect and promote regional landscape values and industries and economic activities within a precinct,
- f) levels of development assessment for land use changes within a precinct,
- g) modified controls to promote opportunities to diversify, innovate and value-add to activities within a precinct,
- h) options to prevent incompatible land uses within a precinct,
- i) identifying key areas where a precinct can sustain rural economic activities,
- j) preventing inappropriate fragmentation of land,
- k) development proposals to protect or promote compatible development within a precinct,
- I) investigate the potential of adopting the Agri-village concept,
- m) investigate tourism potential,
- n) respond to: social aspects, unemployment, skills development, water shortages, climate change, environmental impacts and mitigation, rural management and programme implementation.
- 6.1.2. The village plans should detail the type, location, size and configuration of the proposed precinct. Depending on these factors, some of the matters discussed in section 2 of these Terms of Reference may have more or less relevance to the proposed village Development Plan. The plan should indicate the relevance of each matter and detail how relevant matters have been addressed.

Terms of Reference of Village Development Plans for North West Province

- 6.1.3. Enhancing infrastructure and investment opportunities for activities. The village plans should identify opportunities to coordinate and integrate rural and urban planning, especially planning for local and regional infrastructure. This information can be used to assist in prioritizing infrastructure options such as transport networks and water supply systems. The village development plan should improve the exchange of benefits of regional and local infrastructure between urban areasand rural precincts.
- 6.1.4. Enabling rural industries to diversify, adjust, innovate and value-add. The village plans should include strategies and actions that support the diversification of compatible activities, encourage innovative land-use planning and management, assist in implementing adjustment strategies, or add value to activities within a precinct.
- 6.1.5. Identifying alternative economic uses of land. The village plans should aid in identifying alternative economic uses of rural land by establishing a vision and identifying economic, social and environmental opportunities and constraints to improve the profitability and sustainability of natural resource use in the precinct.
- 6.1.6. Protecting and promoting productive activities within a precinct and associated regional landscape values within a precinct. The precinct plan should aid in identifying strategies and actions that protect and promote productive activities, including the range of landscape values supported by the particular rural paint. In addition, the plan should help identify opportunities and constraints to promote the ecologically sustainable development of the natural resources within the precinct.
- 6.1.7. Sustaining benefits to the community derived from the natural environment. The precinct plan should protect the environmental and natural resource values of the rural area by protecting or promoting activities that employ best practice management, maintain or enhance ecosystem services, and/or implement regional natural resource management plans.
- 6.1.8. Scheme alignment. This section should identify how the proposed planning scheme alignments achieve the planning intent for the village development plan(s) by describing how the proposed assessment tables, planning and subdivision controls, and any landuse restrictions satisfy the matters listed above.

- 6.1.9. Management and Implementation strategies. This section should identify how other planning and management initiatives contribute to achieving the planning intent of the rural precinct(s) and the matters listed above.
- 6.1.10. Customary practices. All customary processes that are applicable to the traditional authority should be included as part of the land use and spatial planning processes where applicable.
- 6.1.11. Utilisation of technology. Technology such as drones (aerial photography) and web applications should be utilised in conjunction with other information gathering processes to inform the development of the Village Development Plan.
- 6.1.12. Formal recording of rights. The development of the precinct plan should include the processes to guide the traditional authority on the formal recordal of land use rights that can be included in the municipal land use management processes. There should be an audit of the current land uses in the settlement and a process of aligning the uses to the land use scheme.
- 6.1.13. Land degradation and land invasion. There should be processes outlined to ensure that the allocation of land and the permissible land use activities in the settlement do not contravene the municipal land use management and spatial planning systems.
