PART 3

THE REQUIRED SERVICES AND SCOPE OF WORK

1. Background

MBDA is driving an initiative to boost the destination marketing initiatives for Nelson Mandela Bay as a tourist destination, particular focus is placed on tourism products within the MBDA mandate areas. The scope of the tender also includes the securing of funding and sponsorships for identified projects in tourism. The intended purpose is to boost the tourism industry, improve visitors' experience and create work opportunities.

Nelson Mandela Bay is currently experiencing a downward momentum in its tourism numbers. The MBDA being a meaningful partner/ key stakeholder in the development of the Bay, believes that a focus on tourism product development, boosting events and festivals, developing a powerful tourism brand and boosting the destination marketing of the Metro will make a major difference in creating a sustainable and positive momentum for the tourism industry in Nelson Mandela Bay. The ethos is to employ a transformative agenda based on a strategy that promotes an inclusive destination marketing agenda. Pro-poor benefits and sustainability should be built into the results.

Focus should be placed on the existing tourism products within the MBDA mandate areas as listed below.

1. St. Peter's Heritage Site
2. The Donkin
3. "Route 67"
4. The Campanile
5. North End Precinct (North End Lake)
6. Fort Frederick (Zipline)
7. "New Brighton Heritage Route"
8. Kariega Precinct including the Railway Sheds
9. Vuyisile Mini Square

Additionally, to the above:

The potential service provider must identify possible land parcels or open spaces that could be developed for future tourism product. The intention should be to create a linkage to the existing products to enhance and expand the tourism footprint within the Bay.

2. Scope of Work

The Service Provider should render all services mentioned below in conjunction with the MBDA:

The Service Provider should have extensive experience in destination marketing and branding, tourism product development, the launching and running of tourism events/festivals. The access to capacity and a track record of developing funding/sponsorship proposals and securing agreements will be a priority element of a successful bid.

1. Destination marketing and branding - Packaging, promoting and exhibiting MBDA's tourism products
2. Tourism product development – Conceptualising, designing and creating tourism products. This includes leveraging existing tourism products and creating complementary linkages.
3. Tourist experiences - Launching and running of tourism events/festivals
4. Sourcing of alternative funding – to enhance visitor experience, develop new tourism products and support operations.

3. Experience

1. The Service Provider must demonstrate experience in tourism marketing and branding.
2. Experience of destination product development.
3. A proven knowledge and ability to develop tourism experiences and coach products to deliver compelling visitor experiences.
4. The conceptualising and delivery of events/festivals that have the primary focus of attracting visitors as well as securing extensive media coverage.
5. A deep understanding of pro-poor tourism and the practical delivery of such projects.
6. Proven experience in the creation of funding/sponsorship proposals and the successful presentation thereof.
7. The access to capacity and a track record of developing funding/sponsorship proposals and securing agreements will be a priority element of a successful bid.
8. Practical experience of doing presentations to overseas tour operators and media.
9. Ownership of well-established databases of tourism organisations, tourism businesses and media.
10. Proven presentation skills and practical experience presenting to both local and international tour operators and media, and tourism industry events.
11. The Service Provider must have a good historical and contextual knowledge of tourism in Nelson Mandela Bay.

TERMS OF DELIVERABLES

The Mandela Bay Development Agency (MBDA) is in the process of reviewing its marketing efforts related to existing tourism products and planning for new tourism products currently in development/under-developed sites. These include heritage sites, leisure & recreational sites and cultural & creative activities. To this end, the agency is looking for a service provider to reinvigorate and renew tourism marketing efforts focused on sites currently within the MBDA's purview.

The service provider is expected to submit the following:

1. A conceptual document or proposal that clearly illustrates how the service provider plans to package, promote and exhibit, the MBDA tourism products as outlined in the scope of work.
2. The conceptual document or proposal also needs to outline how the service provider plans to conceptualise new tourism products and activities within the MBDA mandate areas.
3. The conceptual document or proposal also needs to illustrate how the service provider plans to source funding for both existing and conceptualised tourism products.

1. REPORTING AND COMMUNICATION

The appointed service providers must maintain complete and accurate records of all activities performed on behalf of the Mandela Bay Development Agency (MBDA in respect of services agreement).

- a. The service provider must always copy the MBDA Project Manager on all communication to potential funders;
- b. Share the compilation and submission of project funding applications and window periods and
- c. Submit timeous reports with reference to investment and fundraising application submissions.

2. MODUS OPERANDI

The Service Provider will agree on the reporting timelines against the deliverables of the Service Provider's Service Level Agreement with the Special Projects Manager or Chief Financial Officer.

SERVICE PROVIDER TASKS (OPERATIONS)	FREQUENCY
Weekly or Fortnightly Meetings (Check-in Meetings Schedule)	TBD
Service Provider's Monthly Progress Reports	TBD
Service Provider's Quarterly Progress Reports	TBD

3. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CONTRACTING

The service provider will be an Independent Contractor to the Mandela Bay Development Agency (MBDA) and will be appointed based on rates submitted and commission if funding is secured by the service provider. The service providers will enter into an SLA with the MBDA after an appointment letter has been issued.

The MBDA also wishes to inform the interested person(s) or entities that , in the case of sourcing alternative funding , lobbying for funding , preparing and submission of funding applications , the service provider will be liable to carry all costs involved in such process. Payments from the MBDA will only be processed once the service provider and the MBDA has signed off on funding agreements between the funder and the MBDA.

3.1 INVOICING

Service providers must note the following:

- a) The invoice for services rendered (excluding the funding application processes) must be structured as per the agreed percentage fee and rate per hour based on rates submitted.
- b) Invoices will ONLY be payable once the funds have been transferred to the MBDA
- c) Invoicing upon signing of funding agreements between the MBDA and the funder , must be as per the agreed commission.

4. SUCCESSFUL FUNDING APPLICATIONS

For all successful funding applications made, the funds must be deposited directly into the Mandela Bay Development Agency (MBDA) bank account by the funder or donor. The service provider will be paid the commission by the MBDA once the funding amount is reflected in the MBDA's bank account.

5. OTHER FUNDING RELATING SERVICES

The MBDA reserves the right to request proposals or quotations for other similar services not covered under the scope of works above.

6. DURATION

The appointed service provider will be appointed for a (twelve) 12 -month period, with the option to renew for (two) 2 further (twelve) 12 -month periods, at the sole discretion of the MBDA.

7. NON-RESTRICTION OF TRADE

The Service Provider in the capacity as external service provider will be allowed to offer services to other Agencies or Companies as long as this is not in a direct conflict of interest. In terms of the confidentiality of the Mandela Bay Development Agency (MBDA) and disclosure, this will be documented in the Service Provider's Service Level Agreement.
