BACKGROUND

TCTA constructed several residential units in Kgubetswana Township, Clarens, for its employees and contractors during the Lesotho Highlands Water Project-Phase 1 (LHWP-1). Following the completion of the phase, the organisation donated some of these houses in Fouriesburg to the Mashae-Fourie Transitional Local Council.

However, the houses in Kgubetswana remained in the possession of TCTA. TCTA is now ready to handover tile deeds to the individuals who are currently occupying the homes.

TCTA will be hosting a Ministerial housing handover ceremony. The handover ceremony is tentatively scheduled to take place between 01 March 2024 and 15 March 2024. This timeframe makes consideration for anticipated challenges, such as the December government office shutdown, extended procurement, and legal processes. Although TCTA proposes a window between 01 March 2024 and 15 March 2024, the final date is contingent upon the Minister's availability.

The proposed event format includes a Ministerial briefing at the Protea Hotel with key senior officials followed by a brief tour of the houses. The main proceedings, as proposed by the Communication and Stakeholders Department, will be held at the Kgubetswana Stadium in Clarens, which offers ample space and has controlled community access.

Further logistical arrangements are proposed as follows:

- One marquee will be erected.
- Banquet-style seating.
- Estimated VIP guests for the lunch: 90 (including TCTA representatives)
- Estimated representative from housing beneficiaries: 160 (4 guests per family)

It is suggested that the Minister, in collaboration with TCTA, present the representative of each family with a framed plaque or certificate to honour the occasion.
