The NRF evaluates each bidder's written response to the specifications issued in accordance to published evaluation criteria set as in Section D.

Stage 2B – Due Diligence Interviews or Proof of Delivery/Concept against Specifications

Where circumstances justifies it, the NRF conducts interviews with shortlisted bidders for them to present further information or provide further proof to the evaluation committee. In these cases, the National Research Foundation provides the areas of concern to the short listed bidders to address in their presentations with this document and, where necessary, may provide further areas of concern to the short listed bidders at this stage.

Stage 2C – Due Diligence Research

The National Research Foundation confirms the recommended bidder(s)'s reference letters with referees to confirm the recommendation(s).

Ranking of the bidders pricing:

The NRF ranks the qualifying bids on price with lowest priced Bid receiving the maximum points (either 80 or 90) and the remainder ranked in relation to the lowest priced bid. The NRF adds the bidders' claimed preference points as verified to the submitted preference claim form (SBD 6.1) to provide the final ranking for the award decision.

Stage 4 – Checking Tax Compliance

Stage 4A – Taxpayers Resident in South Africa

The NRF notifies the recommended bidder in writing where their tax compliance check reflects that they are non-compliant and provides the recommended bidder seven (7) working days to submit written proof from SARS of their tax compliance status or proof that they have made an arrangement with SARS to meet their outstanding tax obligations. SCOPE OF WORK

INTRODUCTION TO THE NRF

The National Research Foundation Act, Act 23 of 1998, establishes the National Research Foundation ("NRF") as the juristic person that makes this bid invitation and will contract with the awarded bidder. The Public Finance Management Act classifies the organisation as a Schedule 3A Public Entity.

CONTEXT OF THIS PROCUREMENT

1. Context and background:

The COVID-19 Africa Rapid Grant Fund (CARGF) is a multilateral research and science engagement response to the COVID-19 pandemic, focused on select countries in Sub-Saharan Africa. The Fund supports projects that address research questions and implement science engagement activities associated with COVID-19. It covers three key strands: 1) research, 2) science engagement: support to science and health journalists and communicators, and 3) science engagement: support to science advisers.

The Fund builds on the Science Granting Councils Initiative in Sub-Saharan Africa (SGCI), a multi-funder and multi-stakeholder initiative that supports strengthening of the capacities of science granting councils in 15 African countries to support research and evidence-based policies that will contribute to economic and social development. The Fund is supported by the National Research Foundation (NRF), Canada's International Development Research Centre (IDRC), the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (SIDA), South Africa's Department of Science and Innovation (DSI), the Fonds de Recherche du Québec (FRQ), the United Kingdom's Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO), United Kingdom Research and Innovation (UKRI) through the Newton Fund, and the SGCI participating councils. CARGF is administered by the NRF and attracted total funding of approximately USD5.75 million.

The Rapid Grant Fund seeks to:

1. Contribute to the African regional and continental response to the COVID-19 pandemic.
2. Support knowledge generation and translation to inform diagnostics, prevention and treatment of COVID-19 on the continent.
3. Strengthen African regional and continental science engagement efforts in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.
4. Leverage existing, strong multilateral collaborations in support of Africa's consolidated response to the COVID-19 pandemic and attract new collaborations from international partners.

The Fund is being operationalised primarily through a funding call geared towards researchers and science engagement practitioners from the following countries: Botswana, Burkina Faso, Côte d'Ivoire, Ethiopia, Ghana, Kenya, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, Rwanda, Senegal, Tanzania, Uganda, Zambia, Zimbabwe, and in the context of the African Research Universities Alliance (ARUA), Nigeria and South Africa. In addition, a grant recipients' workshop will be hosted following the closure of funded projects, to provide an opportunity for evaluation and learning amongst grant recipients and funding partners.

2. Objective of the consultancy :

The purpose of the consultancy is to conduct Technical Audits to determine progress with regards to the attainment of the objectives of the projects, financial management and record keeping, and other aspects. The TAs will be undertaken for selected institutions in consultation with the project principal investigators, SGCs and the NRF. The service provider will be required to undertake physical visits to the 37 PIs in 27 institutions across the African continent (see list of countries and institutions attached), interview and collate information on the outputs from the projects; indicate areas of success and challenges in relation to Fund management; identify and collate evidence of uptake of research findings, science communication efforts, and science advice recommendations according to the objectives of the fund.

Below are the specific objectives to be undertaken:

- I. Undertake physical visits to the projects in order to assess the performance of the projects in line with their own objectives as well as the Fund's objectives.
- II. Collect and profile outputs and outcomes of the selected funded projects.
- III. Identify and collate evidence of uptake of research findings, science communication efforts, and science advice recommendations according to the objectives of the fund.
- IV. Collate critical areas of success and challenges for the Fund management, and in specific projects.
- V. Assess the overall impact of the Fund as aligned with its objectives and in contributing to the fight against the COVID-19 pandemic.

3. Implementing the Covid-19 Africa Rapid Grant Fund

The process of conceptualising the Fund and engaging various partners was co-led by the NRF and IDRC during March-June 2020. Under the auspices of the SGCI and building on long term partnerships, funding partnerships with SIDA, DSI, FRQ, FCDO, UKRI, and the Newton Fund were confirmed, with approx. USD5.7million raised to support research and science engagement projects. It was agreed that the NRF would administer the Fund on behalf of all the partners. A key component of the Fund was working with SGCI participating councils as co-designers and co-implementers of the Fund. The Fund provided an opportunity to showcase and apply knowledge and capacities strengthened during SGCI-1 (2014-2020) in two key areas that are a focus of the SGCI: i) managing research; and ii) establishing partnerships among Councils and with other science system actors. SGCs were engaged and commitment confirmed that they would support the Fund in a number of roles: (a) dissemination of the call nationally; (b) screening of applications and potential follow-ups with applicants prior to the review process; (c) nomination of potential reviewers and evaluators to serve during the reviews and evaluation process; (d) where applicable, follow-up regarding due diligence exercise; (e) in some cases, co-funding of successful applications; and (f) monitoring of the implementation of projects and specifically acting as boundary agents to national priorities as applicable. Finally, a number of key governance documents were conceptualised and agreed upon by funding partners to ensure that the Fund would be optimised. Key amongst these were a governance guidelines document, due diligence framework, risk management plan, and a selection criteria document.

4. Africa Rapid Grant Fund State of Play

All 15 participating councils were engaged in the co-design of the funding call. In addition, commitment by all SGCs to partner in a number of different roles was secured: (a) dissemination of the call nationally; (b) screening of applications and potential follow-ups with applicants prior to the review process; (c) nomination of potential reviewers and evaluators to serve during the reviews and evaluation process; (d) where applicable, follow-up regarding due diligence exercise; (e) in some cases, co-funding of successful applications; and (f) monitoring of the implementation of projects and specifically acting as boundary agents to national priorities as applicable.

Currently, 73 projects have been funded with 41 being from the research strand, 27 from the Science journalism strand and 5 from the science advice strand. These projects represent 16 of the 17 eligible countries from 52 institutions.

5. Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning (MEL)

The CARGF requires a robust monitoring, evaluation and learning (MEL) system to support its learning and accountability needs. To this extent, the NRF developed an M&E framework for the monitoring of the projects as well as the fund. There are two fundamental stages to the supervision of the M&E plan: (a) In-country MEL, which will be led by the SGCs; and (b) overall MEL, which is led by the NRF. The overall MEL engagement is largely centred on the project technical audits (TAs).

Technical Audits are a formal monitoring activity of a project, intended to assess the extent to which project management standards and approved project plans are being adhered to. The final purpose of a project audit is to ensure that, through the regular monitoring process, review, and assessment, the project is successfully completed and has achieved what the project proposed and promised to achieve. In the context of the CARGF, TAs will be conducted to determine progress with regards to the attainment of the objectives of the projects, financial management and record keeping, and other aspects relating to the due diligence findings. In addition, the MEL component will be a crucial component of the dissemination activities of CARGF.
