SCOPE OF WORK: ACCOUNTING TREATMENT – PAYMENT MADE FOR THE ACCESS TO MINE MATERIALS FOR DAM

1. Background on transaction

Although an exemption was provided to uMngeni-uThukela Water for the right to mine the required materials for the dam construction from Quarry F, a mining licence was issued by the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy to a private company to mine in that area. The mining licence is valid until 11 September 2025 and may then be renewed for a further 3 periods each not exceeding a year.

Therefore, as means to obtain the required material which was established already to be the right quality, UUW entered into a Right of use agreement with private company. It must also be noted that should UUW not make this payment, UUW could be refused access to the mine and there may be community protests as the company has already entered into agreements with the community.

Therefore in determining the accounting treatment, the transaction was tested against IFRS16. The concern is that there is a contract in place and in terms of South African law (<https://lawguide.co.za/south-african-contract-law/#:~:text=For%20a%20contract%20to%20be,have%20the%20capacity%20to%20contract.>) it is stipulated that for a contract to be enforceable, the agreement must also be lawful. However, in terms of section 11 of the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act, the licence may not be ceded without the approval of the Minister of Minerals Resources and Energy.

2. Legislation

Refer to section 11 of the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act (MPRDA) - Transferability and encumbrance of prospecting rights and mining rights

In South Africa, mining rights are generally not transferrable without the approval of the Minister of Mineral Resources and Energy. The Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act (MPRDA) of 2002 governs the acquisition and transfer of mining rights in the country. According to the MPRDA, the Minister's consent is required for the transfer of mining rights, and such transfers are subject to certain conditions.

The Minister may grant consent if certain criteria are met, including the fulfilment of environmental and financial requirements, compliance with social and labor plans, and payment of outstanding fees or royalties.

In the transaction with Minzomanzi, there is no evidence of this approval by the Minister of Minerals Resources and Energy for Minzomanzi to enter into a right of use agreement with uMngeni-uThukela Water.

3. Accounting Treatment

After discussion with the project management office, it transpired that we have paid for materials in advance. However, the material is still to be mined and exists in its raw form in the mine.

The Service provider is required to recommend the most appropriate accounting treatment given the information stated in the preceding paragraph as well as the associated agreements and documents. The documents and agreements will be provided to the successful bidder for a complete set of facts available on this transaction.

4. Timeframe

The recommended accounting solution is required within one week of acceptance of the contract with UUW
