Terms of Reference (TOR) – Research Subscription

Introduction

The Film and Publications Board (FPB) is a schedule 3A Public Entity established in terms of the Films and Publications Act, 11 of 2019 as amended to regulate the creation, production, distribution and possession of films, computer games and certain publications by means of classification, age restrictions and consumer advice contributing to the protection of children from sexual abuse and exploitation in pornographic films, games, and publications. The FPB executes this mandate through advising adult consumers “...to make informed viewing, reading and gaming choices, both for themselves and for children in their care” (Section 2A). This provision is meant to protect children from premature exposure to and consumption of disturbing and harmful materials as well as adult experiences (Section 2B). Further, the Act sanctions punishment for the use of children in and exposure of children to pornography (Section 2C). This particular focus on children has been necessitated by the realisation that the public, and young children, are increasingly active in the online space, generating, storing and distributing their own content, which opens everyone up to online dangers.

Purpose of the Request

The purpose of the tender is to appoint a services provider for online journals, newsletters and articles database subscription and online legal research services for 3 users for a period of 12 months.

- Service provider should provide services designed to help scan for emerging changes or trends with supporting analysis on their potential implications, and streamline research through access to some industry leading publications and resources;
- International research can be very time consuming, especially when working across multiple jurisdictions and most free/online resources are outdated, not specific enough, or not available in the right language;
- Service provider should provide Legal Research which can also help streamline workflows, in-source work and save the organisation time and money;
- Provide global regulatory sources in a single dashboard with an automated scanning tool;
- Provide access to primary and secondary legislation and guidance from around the world;
- Provide global legal issues and their implications with practical analysis from prominent experts (legal experts);
- Provide access to topical analysis of key trends, opportunities, challenges and risks across a range of industries and work areas;
- Research services should include comprehensive analysis of how recent cases and regulator updates can affect businesses and clients built from the ground up for Research, Legal and Compliance teams;
- Listed below are some of the tools we seek to solicit from service provider:-
 - a) Analysis on key developments from around the world, written by experienced, specialist editors as well as regulatory tracking tools, saving time on monitoring relevant updates.
 - b) Getting The Deal Through allowing us to scan and compare international legislation provided by local law firms, saving hours on independent research with no compromise on the quality of information and allowing us to advise the organisation with confidence.
 - c) In-depth content that goes deeper into global legal issues, providing far more context to the frameworks and how they are implemented, with prominent local experts outlining any jurisdiction-specific risks.
