Dear Sir/Madam

RE: SOLE PROVIDER

Compliance Institute Southern Africa incorporated as a Non Profit Company (NPC) in terms of the Companies Act 71 of 2008 is a not-for-profit organization. The Institute sustains its operations by the income it generates through training, membership, and assessment services it offers to organizations in the public and private sector.

Individuals can be members of the Institute by paying an annual subscription fee. Members receive a number of benefits for the 12-month period of their subscription, including:

- A copy of the Generally Accepted Compliance Practice Framework
- A membership certificate
- Access to attend our annual conferences, regular forums, breakfast meetings and training courses are held which not only provide the ability to accumulate CPD points but also provide excellent networking opportunities
- Subscription to the Business Brief and the Contemporary Gazette (Proactive Compliance) newsletters

The Compliance Institute Southern Africa is currently the only organisation of its kind in South Africa and is a recognised, independent professional body for the compliance profession.

For further information, contact Mayuri Baijoo on mayuri@compliancesa.com
