PART C2 PRICING DATA

C2.1 PRICING INSTRUCTIONS

C2.1: PRICING INSTRUCTIONS

1 The Tender Data, the Contract Data, the Scope of Work, the Site Information and the Drawings shall be read in conjunction with the Schedule of Quantities.

2 The Schedule comprises items covering the Contractor's profit and costs of general liabilities and of the construction of Temporary and Permanent Works.

Although the Tenderer is at liberty to insert a rate of his own choosing for each item in the Schedule, he should note the fact that the Contractor is entitled, under various circumstances, to payment for additional work carried out and that the Employer's Agent is obliged to base his assessment of the rates to be paid for such additional work on the rates the Contractor inserted in the Schedule.

The measurement and payment clauses of each Specification, read together with the relevant clauses of the Specification Data, all set out which ancillary or associated activities are included in the rates for the specified operations.

3 Descriptions in the Schedule of Quantities are abbreviated and may differ from those in the Standardized and Specification Data. No consideration will be given to any claim by the Contractor submitted on such a basis. The Schedule has been drawn up generally in accordance with the latest issue of Civil Engineering Quantities¹. Should any requirement of the measurement and payment clause of the appropriate Standardized or Specification Data be contrary to the terms of the Schedule or, when relevant, to the Civil Engineering Quantities, the requirement of the appropriate Standardized Specification or Specification Data as the case may be, shall prevail.

4 Unless stated to the contrary, items are measured and paid for net, in accordance with the Drawings, without any allowance having been made for waste.

5 The amounts and rates to be inserted in the Schedule of Quantities shall be the full inclusive amounts to the Employer for the work described under the several items. Such amounts shall cover all the costs and expenses that may be required in and for the construction of the work described, and shall cover the costs of all general risks, profits, taxes (but excluding value-added tax), liabilities and obligations set forth or implied in the documents on which the Tender is based.

6 An amount or rate shall be entered against each item in the Schedule of Quantities, whether or not quantities are stated. An item against which no amount or rate is entered will be considered to be covered by the other amounts or rates in the Schedule.

The Tenderer shall also fill in a rate against the items where the words "rate only" appears in the amount column. Although no work is foreseen under these items and no quantities are consequently given in the quantity column, the tender rates shall apply should work under these items actually be required.

Should the Tenderer group a number of items together and tender one sum for such group of items, the single tender sum shall apply to that group of items pro rata and not to each individual item, or should he indicate against any item that full compensation for such item has been included in another item, the rate for the item included in another item shall be deemed to be nil.

The tender rates, prices and sums shall, subject only to the provisions of the General Conditions of Contract, remain valid irrespective of any change in the quantities during the execution of the Contract.

7 The quantities of work as measured and accepted and certified for payment in accordance with the General Conditions of Contract, and not the quantities stated in the Schedule of Quantities, will be used to determine payments to the Contractor. The validity of the Contract shall in no way be affected by any differences between the quantities in the Schedule of Quantities and the quantities certified for payment.

The ordering of materials shall not be based on the quantities in the Schedule of Quantities. Materials ordered from the Schedule of Quantities without prior confirmation by the Employer's Agent shall be at the risk of the Contractor. No compensation shall be paid for materials ordered erroneously and all costs shall be borne by the Contractor.

¹ The standard system of measurement of civil engineering quantities published by the South African Institution of Civil Engineers.

The ordering of materials shall not be based on the quantities in the Schedule of Quantities. Materials ordered from the Schedule of Quantities without prior confirmation by the Employer's Agent shall be at the risk of the Contractor. Quantity: The number of units of work for each item

Rate : The payment per unit of work at which the Tenderer tenders to do the work Amount

: The quantity of an item multiplied by the tender rate of the (same) item Sum :

An amount tender for an item, the extent of which is described in the Schedule of Quantities, the Specifications or elsewhere, but of which the quantity of work is not measured in units

Notwithstanding subclause 5.3 the sand bed shall be screeded between screed rails set to precise levels. Care is to be taken to avoid uneven compaction of the screeded sand and workmen shall not be permitted to walk over the screeded area either during or after the screeding operation.

The sand shall be screeded to a surcharge level to allow for compaction. In order to establish the correct level an allowance of 1,4 x compacted thickness is generally of the right order but to ensure that the surcharge is correct the final road level shall be checked after the first few metres of blocks have been laid and vibrated into place.

If the level is incorrect the blocks must be lifted and the sand raked and re-screeded to achieve the correct level.

To help maintain uniformity the sand shall be obtained from a single source and allowed to drain before use and shall be covered over to minimise moisture changes.

PSMJ 5.4 Laying of Units

At the start of the laying operation extra care shall be taken to ensure that the first blocks are laid at the correct angle and hard up against a firm starting edge such as a kerb or channel.

The order of laying must ensure that the blocks can be placed easily and in such a way that it is not necessary to force a block between blocks already laid.

Each block shall be placed firmly against its neighbours, being held slightly above the laying course so as not to disturb the bedding sand until the block is in its correct position. (Care must be taken not to tilt the blocks on the leading edge by standing on them). Any cracked or damaged blocks shall be rejected and carted away from the work area.

To ensure continuity of pattern, careful setting out must be done and stringlines set up, particularly around obstructions.

PSMJ 5.5 Filling Gaps in Unit Pattern

Where the minimum dimension of a gap is less than 20mm the gap shall be filled using 1:4 cement : sand mortar instead of 15 MPa concrete.

Concrete or mortar filled gaps may be used along edge restraints or against obstructions, but are not acceptable in the carriageway itself. Where a gap in the carriageway is unavoidable due to unusual shapes or obstructions, the following procedure must be used. Cutting of blocks must commence a sufficient distance from the gap such that standard width joints can be achieved without using any blocks of less than 2/3 of a full block length or width.

PSMJ 7 TESTINGPSMJ 7.4.1 Wet Strength Test

Before acceptance of block paving, the following number of compressive tests shall be approved by the Employer's Agent.

For paved areas up to 100m²

6 No. Tests

For paved areas between 100 and 500m²

: 12 No. Tests

For paved areas greater than 500m²

12 No. Tests per 500m²

Where test results in accordance with SABS 1058, have been delivered to the Employer's Agent by the manufacturer for production batches, the number of samples from site may be reduced as determined by the Employer's Agent.

PSMK KERBING AND CHANNELLINGPSMK 3 MATERIALS*PSMK 3.1 Concrete

Add the following:

“The Contractor shall submit his design mix and the proposed slump for the concrete to be extruded at least three weeks before kerbing operations are scheduled to commence.

It shall also be incumbent on the Contractor to make up a trial mix well in advance of the scheduled commencement of kerbing operations, and to cast a minimum of 6 cubes for testing purposes.

Two cubes shall be crushed at 7 days, 14 days and 28 days.

No extruded concrete kerbing and channelling shall be placed until the Contractor has satisfied the Employer's Agent as to the suitability of the mix and the Employer's Agent has received at least the 7 and 14 day test results.

The cost of preparing test specimens and testing the trial mix shall be borne by the Contractor.”

PSMK 3.5 Expansion Joint Sealant

The filler board for expansion joints in kerbing shall consist of a 13mm thick bitumen impregnated soft board.

Expansion joints in all concrete kerbing and channelling shall be provided at 20m intervals and shall be constructed of filler board, as specified in clause PSMK 2, followed by a 10mm deep joint sealant (refer clause PSMK 3) which shall be finished flush with the kerb face.

Notwithstanding subclause 3.5 the sealant for expansion joints in kerbing shall consist of a gun grade joint sealing material such as "Plycol 327" or similar approved and shall be grey in colour.

PSMK 3.8 Curing Compound

Add the following at the end of the sentence:

“and be a resin based white pigmented type.”

PSMK 3.9 Bedding Material

Notwithstanding the contents of Clause 3.9, a 1:8 cement sand mix shall be used or if the layer is more than 30mm thick a strength concrete of Grade 20.”

Notwithstanding subclause 3.9, where specified, concrete shall be used as bedding material for precast concrete kerbing and channelling. The concrete grade and thickness of bedding material shall be as shown on the drawings.

PSMK 5 CONSTRUCTIONPSMK 5.1 Excavation and Bedding

Delete the first paragraph viz. “Trenches for grade.”

PSMK 5.2 Precast Concrete Kerbing and Channelling

Add in second line “10mm to” before “50mm”.

Delete in the last paragraph from “the kerbs shall” to “15 MPa and.”

PSMK 5.2.1 Precast Concrete Kerbing and Cast-in-situ Concrete Channelling

(New Clause)

After the precast kerbs have been laid the formwork for the channelling shall be set up. Expansion joints shall be allowed for at approximately 8 metres intervals, i.e. opposite the joint between the kerbs. The principles of Clause 5.4 shall apply to the construction of cast-in-situ channelling.

PSMK 5.4 Cast-In-Situ concrete kerbing and channelling

Cast-in-situ concrete kerbing and/or channelling shall be monolithic i.e. cast in one operation and plastering or the addition of a mortar paste topping will not be permitted.

PSMK 5.8 Machine Placed (Extruded) Kerbing and Channelling

Before commencing kerb laying on the site, the first 50m length of kerb and channel to be constructed shall be regarded as trial kerb and channel. The Contractor shall demonstrate in the trial length the methods he proposes to use for the construction of the kerb and channel, including joints, texturing, the achievement of a smooth surface and dense fully compacted concrete. It may be constructed either in the recognised position in a road or elsewhere on the site in which case it be demolished, broken out and removed at the Contractor's expense.

The trial kerb and channel shall be constructed with the plant and equipment to be used on the works and the equipment's motion forwards and the handwork carried out on the extruded section shall be so controlled and used as to produce a kerb and channel to the shape, lines and levels specified.

The time taken to lay the test strip shall be recorded, which in the event of acceptance, shall be used to calculate a rate of extrusion which shall not be exceeded without the permission of the Employer's Agent.

If the concrete in the trial strip fails to meet the test requirements, the Contractor may, at his own cost, cut further cores from the kerb and or channel up to a maximum of one core per 100m length. The strengths obtained on such cores, together with those tested on the instruction of the Employer's Agent, shall be used to test compliance with the strength requirements.

The Contractor may, unless advised of any deficiencies in the trial kerb and channel, proceed with kerbing as soon as acceptable core test results are obtained.

In the event of deficiencies in the trial kerb and channel, the Contractor shall, at his own expense, demolish the rejected sections and remove to the designated tip site and repeat the 50m long trial strip. This process shall be continued until the Contractor has produced kerb and channel in accordance with this specification. He may then proceed with kerb and channel construction proper. Any unacceptable trial length shall be broken out and removed to spoil, at the Contractor's expense before any subsequent trial length is permitted to commence.

Core test holes shall be filled with 30 MPa concrete mixed with a suitable adhesive compound.

No other means of testing the concrete will be considered and any kerb or channel not complying with all the requirements of the specification shall be broken out, removed to spoil and replaced at the Contractor's own expense.

The Contractor shall ensure that no change of circumstances or conditions is made to jeopardise the quality of the kerb and channel under construction. If, in the opinion of the Employer's Agent, this does occur, he may order the construction of a further trial length of 50m of kerb and channel in accordance with the requirements of this specification. Work on the kerb and channel proper shall not proceed until a trial strip has been constructed in accordance with the requirements of this specification. No claims for delays will be considered by the Employer's Agent on account of further trial lengths of kerbing being ordered.

PSMK 5.8.3 Subbase Preparation

Delete in the first line from: "500mm beyond" to "as relevant" and replace by "150mm beyond the back face of the kerb."

Note this dimension applies to the compaction width required for the road layer.

Immediately prior to placing concrete for machine placed (extruded) kerbing and channelling, the subbase or base, as applicable, shall be swept clean of all loose or foreign matter and shall be dampened.

PSMK 5.10 Protection

Where concrete kerbing and channelling is installed prior to road layerworks a curing time of at least 7 days (refer subclause 5.8.5) must be allowed and backfilling behind the kerb shall have been completed to the density specified for verge compaction before layerworks are commenced.

Cement washing over discoloured sections of kerbing and channelling will not be acceptable.

PSMK 5.13 Junction with existing Kerb And Channel

(New Clause)

The Employer's Agent shall state in each case the length of existing kerb and channel to be removed. The exposed road layer surface shall be made good before proceeding.

Each uninterrupted length of kerbing shall be placed in one continuous operation in order to avoid joints. Where it is necessary to join make-up sections the kerbing shall be cut vertically and a light tack coat of 60% cationic emulsion shall be applied before butting the new kerbing.

Immediately after the kerbing has hardened, backfill shall be placed and compacted to the density specified for completed verges.

PSMK 7 TESTING

PSMK 7.2.1 Cast-in-situ and Extruded, Kerbing and Channelling

The Contractor shall take a set of 3 cubes of nominal size 150mm for every day's pour, every 20m³ of concrete poured or every 500m of kerbing and channelling cast-in-situ or extruded, whichever gives the greater number of cubes.

These shall be tested by an approved independent laboratory at the contractors cost.

Results of cube tests shall be handed to the Employer's Agent not later than 3 days after crushing.

This shall apply even if the concrete is supplied by a 'ready-mix' supplier.

Should the Employer's Agent reject any portion of kerbing or channelling for suspected lack of strength the Contractor may elect to provide core tests undertaken in accordance with SABS Method 865. Such core tests will be taken as conclusive evidence of in-situ concrete strength.

PSMK 8 MEASUREMENT AND PAYMENT

PSMK 8.1 Basic Principles

SI 3 Geotechnical Investigation

The geological information from the geological map has suggested that the site is situated within the Mpumalanga Province which is geologically situated in the Archean Granite Greenstone Terrane (Lowe, D. R, 1994).

According to Council for Geoscience, 2016, Geological map of South Africa, 1:1M. The site is underlain by the Nelspruit Granite Suite which comprises of white to pale brown, medium to coarse grained porphyritic biotite granite granodiorite which is then overlain by the residual soils and alluvium. The geological map of the site is shown in Volume 1, Figure 4.

Based on the fieldwork, the area of investigation has been sub-divided into one geotechnical zone. The zone is based on the classification system given by the NHBRC and SAICE Code of Practice (1995). The geological map for the area is presented in Figure 2 below.

Method of Investigation

A total of six test pits designated TP1 to TP6 were excavated to an average depth of 2.0m below existing ground level (EGL). The positions of the test pits were captured by means of a hand held GPS (with accuracy of 5 to 8m) with the recovered materials profiled by an engineering geologist in accordance with Jennings et al., (1973).

5.3 Dynamic Cone Penetrometer Tests

An 8kg DCP was used to evaluate the subsoil consistency and the in-situ California Bearing Ratio (CBR) in DCP1 – DCP6. The DCP tests were carried out at the approximate test pit positions. It should be noted that the results of the DCP tests are affected by the moisture content of the soil profile, as well as any pebbles or cobbles that may be BGL to promote refusal. No refusal was encountered on site.

3.1 Borrow Pit Investigation

The potential Borrow Pit in Tekwane South have been identified. The borrow pit is situated approximately 1.53 km from the proposed site. The location of the borrow pit is as follows:
