THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL PARTICIPATION PROGRAMME

INTRODUCTION

The National Industrial Participation (NIP) Programme, which is applicable to all government procurement contracts that have an imported content, became effective on the 1 September 1996. The NIP policy and guidelines were fully endorsed by Cabinet on 30 April 1997. In terms of the Cabinet decision, all state and parastatal purchases / lease contracts (for goods, works and services) entered into after this date, are subject to the NIP requirements. NIP is obligatory and therefore must be complied with. The Industrial Participation Secretariat (IPS) of the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) is charged with the responsibility of administering the programme.

1 PILLARS OF THE PROGRAMME

- 1.1 The NIP obligation is benchmarked on the imported content of the contract. Any contract having an imported content equal to or exceeding US$ 10 million or other currency equivalent to US$ 10 million will have a NIP obligation. This threshold of US$ 10 million can be reached as follows:
 - (a) Any single contract with imported content exceeding US$10 million.
or
 - (b) Multiple contracts for the same goods, works or services each with imported content exceeding US$3 million awarded to one seller over a 2 year period which in total exceeds US$10 million.
or
 - (c) A contract with a renewable option clause, where should the option be exercised the total value of the imported content will exceed US$10 million.
or
 - (d) Multiple suppliers of the same goods, works or services under the same contract, where the value of the imported content of each allocation is equal to or exceeds US$ 3 million worth of goods, works or services to the same government institution, which in total over a two (2) year period exceeds US$10 million.
- 1.2 The NIP obligation applicable to suppliers in respect of sub-paragraphs 1.1 (a) to 1.1 (c) above will amount to 30 % of the imported content whilst suppliers in respect of paragraph 1.1 (d) shall incur 30% of the total NIP obligation on a pro-rata basis.
- 1.3 To satisfy the NIP obligation, the DTI would negotiate and conclude agreements such as investments, joint ventures, sub-contracting, licensee production, export promotion, sourcing arrangements and research and development (R&D) with partners or suppliers.

- 1.4 A period of seven years has been identified as the time frame within which to discharge the obligation.

2 REQUIREMENTS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND INDUSTRY

- 2.1 In order to ensure effective implementation of the programme, successful bidders (contractors) are required to, immediately after the award of a contract that is in excess of R10 million (ten million Rands), submit details of such a contract to the DTI for reporting purposes.

- 2.2 The purpose for reporting details of contracts in excess of the amount of R10 million (ten million Rands) is to cater for multiple contracts for the same goods, works or services; renewable contracts and multiple suppliers for the same goods, works or services under the same contract as provided for in paragraphs 1.1.(b) to 1.1. (d) above.

3 BID SUBMISSION AND CONTRACT REPORTING REQUIREMENTS OF BIDDERS AND SUCCESSFUL BIDDERS (CONTRACTORS)

- 3.1 Bidders are required to sign and submit this Standard Bidding Document (SBD 5) together with the bid on the closing date and time.

- 3.2 In order to accommodate multiple contracts for the same goods, works or services; renewable contracts and multiple suppliers for the same goods, works or services under the same contract as indicated in sub-paragraphs 1.1 (b) to 1.1 (d) above and to enable the DTI in determining the NIP obligation, successful bidders (contractors) are required, immediately after being officially notified about any successful bid with a value in excess of R10 million (ten million Rands), to contact and furnish the DTI with the following information:

- Bid / contract number.
- Description of the goods, works or services.
- Date on which the contract was accepted.
- Name, address and contact details of the government institution.
- Value of the contract.
- Imported content of the contract, if possible.

- 3.3 The information required in paragraph 3.2 above must be sent to the Department of Trade and Industry, Private Bag X 84, Pretoria, 0001 for the attention of Mr Elias Malapane within five (5) working days after award of the contract. Mr Malapane may be contacted on telephone (012) 394 1401, facsimile (012) 394 2401 or e-mail at Elias@thedti.gov.za for further details about the programme.

4 PROCESS TO SATISFY THE NIP OBLIGATION

- 4.1 Once the successful bidder (contractor) has made contact with and furnished the DTI with the information required, the following steps will be followed:
- a. the contractor and the DTI will determine the NIP obligation;
 - b. the contractor and the DTI will sign the NIP obligation agreement;

- c. the contractor will submit a performance guarantee to the DTI;
- d. the contractor will submit a business concept for consideration and approval by the DTI;
- e. upon approval of the business concept by the DTI, the contractor will submit detailed business plans outlining the business concepts;
- f. the contractor will implement the business plans; and
- g. the contractor will submit bi-annual progress reports on approved plans to the DTI.

4.2 The NIP obligation agreement is between the DTI and the successful bidder (contractor) and, therefore, does not involve the purchasing institution.

CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

- 1 This Standard Bidding Document (SBD) must form part of all bids¹ invited.
- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).² Collusive bidding is a pe se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.
- 3 Treasury Regulation 16A9 prescribes that accounting officers and accounting authorities must take all reasonable steps to prevent abuse of the supply chain management system and authorizes accounting officers and accounting authorities to:
 - a. disregard the bid of any bidder if that bidder, or any of its directors have abused the institution's supply chain management system and or committed fraud or any other improper conduct in relation to such system.
 - b. cancel a contract awarded to a supplier of goods and services if the supplier committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of that contract.
- 4 This SBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.
- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (SBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

² Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.

1. MANDATORY REQUIREMENTS

No person, who is not registered with the Chief Inspector of Explosives, may use, manufacture, import, export, transport, store, acquire or supply explosives or act as a broker with regard to explosives or act as a broker with regard to explosives. Service providers must therefore, with their quotation, submit proof that they are registered with the Chief Inspector of Explosives. Failure to submit the required proof will invalidate their quotation i.e. not taken into consideration.

2. SPECIFICATION FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF BLASTING SERVICE PROVIDERS TO SUPPLY FUEL AND TO SET UP AND DETONATE FUEL EXPLOSIONS

- 2.1 This service is required from the date of receipt of an acceptance letter/contract to 31 March 2022. The total cost of this contract may not exceed R1 million. The contract will automatically lapse when R1 million or 31 March 2022 is reached, whichever comes first.
- 2.2 The contract cannot be arranged for a specific number of fuel explosion operations. The Department reserves the right to appoint more than one service provider when the circumstances require it.
- 2.3 For all control operations there will be an authorised official of the Department who will be responsible for the management of all aspects of the particular control operation(s).
- 2.4 The distance that explosives may be transported is restricted by the Act on Explosive Materials (Act No. 26 of 1956), and therefore it is imperative that more than one explosive service provider be appointed to serve in the RSA. Experience of past control actions has shown that occasionally as many as four control actions may occur simultaneously, which means that at least four service providers may be employed.
- 2.5 All quotations, which comply fully with the conditions and specifications of this quotation, may be appointed by considering their labour cost per charge to set-up explosives. However, service providers with exorbitant quotation prices may not be accepted. Please note that though the quotations will be evaluated initially only on the labour cost, this does not mean that the service provider who scores the highest points (as evaluated on labour costs) will receive a request for the execution of a particular control operation.
- 2.6 To determine which service provider should execute an operation all cost pertaining to the action for example labours and transportation costs will be taken into account for that particular operation.
- 2.7 A contract or agreement will be entered into between the Department and successful service provider(s). Once both parties sign the agreement, the service provider(s) must have his/her services available within 24 hours and from then on, on 24-hour basis.
- 2.8 The successful service providers will be listed from the least expensive to the most expensive, based on their labour cost per charge. These service provider(s) could all be employed at one time (see Par 2.5 of the quotation specification).
- 2.9 The successful service provider(s) must render his/her services within 24 hours after being requested by the authorised official of the Department for a particular fuel explosion. In other words; if the service provider is contacted at 19H00 by an authorised official of the Department, the explosion must be executed at 19H00 the following day or any other time the following day, as determined by the authorized representative of the Department.

- 2.10 An authorised official of the Department will conduct an on-site evaluation of the area where Redbilled quelea roost, usually late afternoon and or early evening when the Redbilled Quelea return to their roosting/breeding site to rest for the night. When the representative of the Department decides during such an evaluation that a fuel explosion is to be executed in order to control those Redbilled Quelea, the authorised official of the Department will contact a particular service provider and request him/her to execute such a fuel explosion. The authorised official of the Department will also indicate the date and time of the operation as well as the type and quantities of explosives that will be required.
- 2.11 For a particular site, the authorised official of the Department will determine the least expensive service provider for that particular fuel explosion on that particular site. The authorised official of the Department will determine the least expensive service provider by calculating the total cost per service provider of all the listed service providers, based on the service provider's labour costs and transport costs to execute that particular fuel explosion.
- 2.12 Therefore, the authorised official of the Department will have to take into account the distance the service provider has to travel from his/her nearest base station (see Par. 16) to the nearest explosives depot and to the particular site and return to his/her nearest base station. The Departmental representative may request the service provider to quote the travelling/transport distance to a specific point, i.e. from his/her base station to the nearest explosives depot to the blasting site.
- 2.13 To ensure the timeously set up of a fuel explosion to control Redbilled Quelea, it is of the utmost importance that the particular service provider arrives on the designated site and is ready to commence with the set-up of such an explosion before 11 am on the day of the planned operation. This is to ensure that the particular explosion set-up is completed before the Quelea return to the particular roost, which usually is a half an hour before sunset.
- 2.14 If under any circumstances the service provider has any reason why he/she will not be able to reach the designated site before 11am (i.e. distance from site or explosives permits), then the service provider must inform the authorised official of the Department thereof as described in par. 2.11, when the authorised official of the Department requests him/her for such a fuel explosion to control Redbilled Quelea. In such circumstances, the Department reserves the right to appoint the second least expensive service provider on the list.
- 2.15 The same principle will apply when more than one fuel explosion control action has to be executed on a particular day.
- 2.16 The least expensive service provider for that particular fuel explosion will be contacted and requested to execute the particular fuel explosion. If, however that service provider;
- i) cannot accept the request for whatever reason,
 - ii) or the service provider will not be able to reach the control site before 11a.m. on the day of the planned action,
 - iii) not be able to complete the whole explosion set-up by half an hour before sunset,
 - iv) if for any reasons the requested service provider cannot carry out the fuel explosion according to the conditions of this quotation,
- then the service provider shall inform the authorised official of the Department who requested him/her within thirty minutes after the request. For example, if the authorised official of the Department contacted the service provider at 19h00 on Tuesday, the service provider will respond to that request by communicating the service provider's decision to the authorised official of the Department to either accept or not accept the request by the Department before 19h31 on that Tuesday.
- 2.17 If for any reason a designated service provider cannot carry out the control action according to the requirements of this quotation, then the Department has the right to hire an alternative blasting service provider. The Department reserves the right to claim any additional expenses from the service provider who could not carry out the control instruction.

- 2.18 If the service provider, after considering the size of the habitat; the grade of difficulty of the fuel explosion; and the distance to the site; accepts the order to execute such an explosion, and fails to do so timelessly, the service provider's contract may be cancelled immediately.
- 2.19 The service provider will be requested verbally by telecommunication, and usually after hours, to execute a fuel explosion the following day. This would mean that the service provider should have an after-hours contact number.
- 2.20 If it should happen that a service provider continuously does not accept requests for control operations, the Department reserves the right to cancel his/her contract and could claim additional costs from the service provider in order to provide the service as described.
- 2.21 If for any reason the service provider cannot be readily contacted at any time in order for the departmental representative to request him/her for such a fuel explosion, the authorised official of the Department will request the next service provider on the list, in accordance with Par. 2.11 of the specifications. This process will be followed until an available service provider has been obtained. The service provider who could not readily be contacted will have no recourse against the Department.
- 2.22 The successful service provider is responsible for ensuring that proper safety and security measures are carried out in accordance with the regulations laid down by the Inspector of Explosives (SA Police Service), this could include traffic control.
- 2.23 All the fuel explosion control actions have to be executed in accordance with the Act on Explosive Materials (Act No. 26 of 1956).
- 2.24 All necessary precautions must be undertaken by the successful service provider to prevent any damage such as fire or anything else to manmade structures, caused by such a fuel explosion. The service provider shall be held responsible for any damage caused by any fuel explosion to manmade structures.

It will be expected from the successful service provider to:

- 2.25 Arrange the necessary transport and blasting permits for the required explosives as determined by the Act on Explosive Material, 1956 (Act No. 26 of 1956).
- 2.26 Collect the necessary explosives at the nearest explosive magazine (depot) to the blasting site, and transport it to the blasting site.
- 2.27 If the particular type and quantities of the explosives as requested by the authorised official of the Department (as in par 2.16 of these conditions), is not readily available from the explosives depot, explosives similar to those requested should be acquired by the service provider. Proof by the supplier of the explosives that the explosives were not available must be submitted.
- 2.28 Set-up the explosives as explained in paragraph 2.40 of the specifications and as prescribed by the authorised official of the Department.
- 2.29 Notify all relevant and concerned parties of the intended explosion, for example local police stations and local and regional Inspectors of Explosive Materials (Act No. 26 of 1956).
- 2.30 Detonate the explosives at a time as determined by the authorised official of the Department.
- 2.31 Declare the control area safe after the explosion, and if necessary, destroy any un-detonated explosives.
- 2.33 After receiving the appropriate authorisation from the relevant Inspector of Explosives (SA Police Service), return any unused explosives to a registered authorised explosives magazine.

Alternatively, if circumstances require it, destroy any unused explosives in the appropriate manner, or to deal with it as prescribed by the Act on Explosive Materials, 1956 (Act No. 26 of 1956).

- 2.34 Purchase fuel required for the explosion and later submit the invoice of the fuel purchased to the Department for reimbursement.
- 2.35 The authorised official of the Department will be responsible for providing the containers, labourers and structures needed to execute the control action, at the blasting site. This does not include labour/assistants as described in Par. 2.38(ii)).
- 2.36 The successful service provider must acquire the necessary explosives for his own account. The actual cost thereof will be compensated by the Department on receipt of documentary proof (Tax invoice of the suppliers) of expenditure. Any discount offered by the explosive supplier will be for the benefit of the Department. (The explosives' costs will therefore not influence the quotation price per charge.)
- 2.37 The quantities of explosive materials transported may not exceed the quantities as specified on the transport permit issued by the Inspector of Explosive Materials and in accordance with the Act on Explosive Materials (ACT NO. 26 OF 1956).

Personnel and necessary equipment for explosions:

- 2.38 The successful service provider must supply the following, the cost of which will be for his own account:
- i One licensed, registered and fully equipped explosives carrier vehicle for every team.
 - ii Specialised labour/assistants to connect explosives (at least one).
(Experience has shown that it is advisable for the explosives service provider to employ at least one labourer for an explosion with charges numbering up to 100, two labourers for an explosion with charges numbering up to 200, three for an explosion with charges numbering up to 300, etc.).
- 2.39 Successful service provider shall be compensated for transport and travel distances from his/her base station to the nearest explosives depot to the blasting site, and back to his/her nearest base station, and this includes any other necessary transport distances as agreed upon beforehand with the authorised official of the Department i.e. distances travelled to return explosives.
- 2.40 In respect of the set-up of the control area as indicated by the authorised official of the Department, the successful service provider will be responsible for the following:
- i To bind a number of bombs (charges) as determined by the authorised official of the Department.
 - ii To lay out a detonation cord network for example, 10 metres from each other in open Eucalyptus plantations and 5 m in dense reeds, throughout the entire control area, and to connect the whole network to prevent any cut-offs. The authorised official of the Department will indicate what distance the spacing should be.
 - iii To tie the produced charges more or less 10 metres apart to the network of detonation cord. There will be as many charges as containers. The authorised official of the Department will indicate what distance the spacing should be.
 - iv To ensure that all containers with fuel are placed correctly onto all charges. This includes any methods required to ensure the correct placement of the explosives relative to the containers as determined by the Departmental representative, i.e. taping of explosives to fuel containers.
 - v To ensure that the control area is set up correctly, and to ensure that there are no loose (unconnected) explosives or fuel containers in the control area.

- 2.41 Successful service provider will be compensated for labour per bomb as prescribed in the preceded paragraph. A Charge also referred to as a bomb, means a number of boosters tied together by means of detonation cord with a length of cord extending from the charge as determined by the authorised official of the Department. For example, when a roosting area of 1 hectare has to be controlled, 1500 litres of fuel could be used, divided into one hundred 20l containers. Thus, 100 charges shall be used.
- 2.42 If a specific control action was set up but could not be executed on a specific day as agreed upon between the authorised official of the Department and the blasting service provider, due to circumstances beyond the service provider's control, and the detonation has to be delayed until the next evening, then the blasting service provider will be paid a maximum of R3500, 00 per day by the Department for the delay time. However, if the costs of the blasting service provider to return to his/her nearest base station is less than the above-mentioned amount, he/she will have to return to his/her nearest base station and will be remunerated for the travelling and transport distance by the Department. For example, it could happen that due to rain the action could be delayed for as many as three days or more for which the service provider will be remunerated 3xR3500 for delay time or 3x travelling distances depending on which is the least expensive. Under no circumstances will the Department pay simultaneous for delayed time, cancellation fees and stay-over time.
- 2.43 If a specific control action was not set up and could not be executed (cancelled) on a specific day as agreed upon between the authorised official of the Department and the blasting service provider, due to circumstances beyond the service provider's control, and the service provider did proceed to collect and transport explosives to the blasting site before the operation was cancelled by the authorised official of the Department, then the blasting service provider will be compensated at a maximum of R 2500,00 per day by the Department for cancellation fees. The cancellation fees include all costs incurred by the service provider excluding transport costs.
- 2.44 If a specific control action must be delayed, the service provider must contact the relevant Inspector of Explosive Materials. The inspector will decide, after all possibilities have been considered, how to deal with the explosives, as to limit any costs to the Department.
- 2.45 If more fuel explosion control actions are planned in the vicinity during the following few days, it could be expected of the service provider to stay over in order to reduce expenses on behalf of the Department. The authorised official of the Department will request the service provider to remain in the area at which the Department will compensate the service provider R3500 per 24-hour period for stay over time, if no fuel explosion operations were launched/executed during that said period. For example, if a fuel explosion was launched on the Monday and the service provider was requested to remain in the area until Wednesday in order to execute a fuel explosion on Wednesday, the service provider will be compensated R3500 for the Tuesday that he/she remained in the area. However, if as in this example the fuel explosion on Monday was delayed due to i.e. rain till Tuesday, the service provider will only be compensated for delay time (Monday till Tuesday), as described in Par. 2.42) of this quotation and not an additional R3500 for the Tuesday as described in this paragraph. Under no circumstances will the Department pay simultaneous for delayed time, cancellation fees and stay-over time.
- 2.46 When the control area has been set-up, and the explosives have to be guarded overnight, the service provider has to appoint security guards (as prescribed by the Inspector on explosive materials) for the period until the explosives can be detonated and therefore the fuel explosion executed. For that, the Department will compensate the service provider at a maximum of R1500 per 24-hour period. Where other companies' guards have been used, payment will occur on their invoices only, with a maximum limit of R1500.
- 2.47 In a situation where a blasting area has already been loaded, and the Departmental representative decides that the explosives must be removed from the blasting area, the service provider will be compensated for the day's work, that is 100% of the labour cost per bomb for the setting up the blasting area and 50% of the labour costs per bomb of those that had to be moved, for dismantling of the blasting area. Concerning the explosives, the same principle as in par. 2.44) of this quotation applies.

- 2.48 In a situation where a blasting area has already been loaded, and the authorised official of the Department decides that the area has not been set up correctly by the service provider, the service provider can be requested by the authorised official of the Department to dismantle and move one or more of the charges, in order to ensure the correct set up of the area. In such a situation, the service provider will not be compensated for labour as described in par. 2.44).
- 2.49 The successful service provider will at all times be responsible for his subsistence arrangements and costs, including any other costs incurred by him/her.
- 2.50 The successful service provider will be responsible for his/her transport, and for the security of his/her vehicle/s, equipment, and the Department is not liable for any claims arising from damage or loss of his/her property.

The explosive service provider must declare the following:

- 2.51 Labour cost per charge to set-up explosives. (Keeping in mind that cost of explosives is already carried by the Department as explained in paragraph 2.36 of this quotation). Charge means a number of boosters tied together by means of detonation cord with a length of cord extending from the charge as determined by the authorised official of the Department (Usually, one charge is used for 20/25 litre containers, irrespective of the number of explosive booster units. Five charges are used for 100 litre containers, irrespective of the number of explosive booster units. Ten charges are used for 200 litre containers, irrespective of the number of explosive booster units.)
- 2.52 Transport cost per kilometre (all distances travelled for a particular fuel explosion for example: base station to explosives depot/magazine to blasting site / control area and return).
- 2.53 All their base stations from where the transport costs will be calculated. Base stations can include, inter alia home/ office or operating points.
- 2.54 The Department reserves the right to cancel the contract any time in the event of the successful service provider not being able to meet all the conditions laid down in the contract or in the event of fuel explosions not being carried out satisfactory. The Department reserves the right to claim any costs incurred, from the particular service provider in the event of the contract being cancelled with that service provider.
- 2.55 The authorised representative of the Department acting on behalf of the Executive Officer's decisions will be final and binding, pertaining to decisions as mentioned in this document.
- 2.56 The authorised representative of the Department is acting in good faith on behalf of the Department and no recourse can be taken against him/her in any circumstances.
