Specification

Type:	Forensic Investigation
Detailed Specification Requirement
The FPB seeks to appoint an Forensic Investigator with extensive experience in conducting comprehensive forensic investigations related to non-compliance with internal recruitment and appointment policies and procedures. The service is to be provided in a strictly confidential basis and all information provided to must be treated in the strictest confidence.

The scope of work will entail:

- a) Conducting an investigation of non-compliance and/or suspected non-compliance with the FPB's recruitment and appointment policies and procedures, from initiation to finalisation. This would include the interviewing of witnesses and suspects as well as the examination of supporting evidence and documentation;
- b) Performing such investigations in such a way that the image of the FPB is not detrimentally affected;
- c) Assessing and interpreting evidence gathered following such investigation, maintaining the integrity of the investigation;
- d) Evaluating the results of the investigation and determining the cause of any non-compliance;
- e) Analyse the circumstances and make recommendations; and
- f) Preparing a comprehensive forensic report.
