1. BACKGROUND

The Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa entrenches certain basic rights for all citizens of South Africa including: "The right to have access to adequate housing". The Constitution also describes the objectives of local government, as:-

- 1.1 The provision of services to communities in a sustainable manner;
- 1.2 The promotion of social and economic development;
- 1.3 The promotion of safe and healthy environments; and
- 1.4 The encouragement of community and community organization involvement in matters of local government.

This section goes on to state that a municipality must strive, within its financial and administrative capacity, to achieve the above objectives.

With regard to the development duties of local government, a municipality must structure and manage its administration and budgeting and planning processes to give priority to the basic needs of the community, and to promote the social and economic development of the community; and Participate in national and provincial development programmes.

In terms of section 7(2)(g) of the Housing Act, 1997 (Act No 107 of 1997) "Every provincial government must prepare and maintain a multi-year plan in respect of the execution in the province of every national housing programme and every provincial housing programme".

Furthermore, in terms of Section 9 (1) of the Housing Act, 1997 the function of Municipalities include that: "every municipality must, as part of the municipality's process of integrated development planning, take all reasonable and necessary steps within the framework of national and provincial housing legislation and policy to -

(a) ensure that -

- (i) The inhabitants of its area of jurisdiction have access to adequate housing on a progressive basis;*
- (ii) Conditions not conducive to the health and safety of the inhabitants of its area of jurisdiction are prevented and removed;*

(iii) Services in respect of water, sanitation, electricity, roads, storm water drainage and transport are provided in a manner which is economical”, (Housing Act 107 of 1997).

The Human Settlements Sector Plan/ Housing Chapter is a five-year strategic plan that will guide transformation of the existing settlements and development of new sustainable human settlements in accordance with the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, national policy on human settlement and development agenda of the Municipality. The municipality will review the chapter annually considering changes in development trends, progress made in the implementation of the plan and emerging (new) human settlement needs within its area of jurisdiction.

In order to give effect to the legislation, the Mpumalanga Department of Human Settlements requires the services of a service provider(s) to assist the Bushbuckridge Local Municipality to develop, compile and/or review its IDP Housing Chapter in preparation for the Municipality's 2023/24 financial year. - j) To ensure the definition of housing demand is comprehensive and inform IDP objectives, strategies and project formulation and enable the specification of a municipal-wide picture of housing demand in the context of sustainable human settlements;
