

Ser No	Criteria a	Yes b	No c
	Consumer protection Act. Failure to comply will invalidate the bid
6	Financial Intelligence Centre Act 38 of 2001. Bidders must confirm in writing that they will abide by FICA Act. Failure to provide such proof will invalidate the bid.
7	Second Hand Goods Act No 6 of 2009. Bidders must provide proof of registration with South African Police Services (SAPS) that they will comply with the Second hand Goods Act, No. 6 of 2009. Failure to comply will invalidate the bid.
8	Localisation. Bidders are requested to submit proof that they are residence of Eastern Cape Province by means of municipality bill or any other relevant proof of residence. Failure to provide such proof will invalidate the bid.

FUNCTIONALITY CRITERIA

EVALUATION GUIDELINES FOR FUNCTIONALITY

2. Phase 2: This phase will be evaluated by means of compliance to specification / scope of work. Bidders not excluded or invalidated based on Phase 1 will be considered for Phase 2. The bids will be adjudicated with a maximum total of Thirty (30) points. All bidders who score less than 80% (24 points) will be excluded from the next phase of the evaluation (Phase 3 & 4).

Phase 2 Functionality Criteria:	Score:
a.Experience	20
b.Qualification	10

1	Experience: Bidders shall be evaluated out of total score of Ten points (10) for their experience in rendering the required service:		/20
	a. The bidding company will be awarded Twenty (20) points for providing proof of experience for auction service. Such experience should be substantiated by means of awards (e.g. Government Order/ Letter of Acceptance/Contract/ Purchasing Order) from the institution where such services had been rendered Five (05) Awards should be submitted.	/20
	b. The bidding company will be awarded Eighteen (18) points for providing proof of experience in the rendering of service on parameter or flat lights.	/18

Prepared by: TSS Approved by: CCPSC	AMENDMENT : 000 Original	DATE :03/03/2026	Page 10 of 48
--	-----------------------------	------------------	---------------