

REQUEST FOR QUOTES (RFQ)

Description of Goods/ Service required	Project Management Training
SPECIFICATIONS/ DISCRIPTION
ITEM/ SERVICE		QUANTITY
6 Months Project Management Training		1
Perspective, Planning & Implementation
General Management Perspective
Business Management
Mode of delivery: Contact supported by Virtual Learning Environment
GENERAL/ COMMENTS:
The participant should be able to understand and evaluate the management tasks and organisational processes most suitable for operating successfully in the Industry 4.0 (Fourth Industrial Revolution) economy; Apply general management and business management knowledge and skills required to productively lead and manage value chain activities and achieve optimal organisational performance; Grasp the important role played by functional departments in providing supportive resources to cross-functional supply chain and project portfolios of the Industry 4.0 organisational value chain; Apply project management knowledge and skills to plan, implement and control project operations and deliverables that are on budget, on time, and of high quality; Perform project accounting and contract management activities as part of an overall approach towards successful project management; and Exercise to supply relationship management with the aim of effectively procuring goods and services required to perform supply chain and project work. The training should be fully aligned with the USA Project Management Institute's (PMI) PMBOK (Project Management Body of Knowledge) and should ideally route towards gaining international certification as a CAPM (Certified Associate in Project Management) after completion. Further, it is also fully aligned with the International Project Management Association's 4-level certification.		