

Addendum 1 for RAF/2021/00017: Erratum Issued 08 February 2022

BIDDERS ARE INFORMED OF THE CHANGE IN THE MANDATORY REQUIREMENT. THE NCCA AFFILIATION IS NO LONGER A REQUIREMENT

The RAF has totally removed the mandatory requirement for the NCCA requirement

THE CLOSING DATE HAS ALSO BEEN EXTENDED TO 18 FEBRUARY 2022 @11:00 AM

|                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| RFP NUMBER:                                          | RAF/2021/00017                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| DESCRIPTION:                                         | The Road Accident Fund (RAF) requires the provision of cleaning services at the Road Accident Fund (RAF) Head Office, Johannesburg, Menlyn and Durban Regional Office for a period of five (5) years. |
| PUBLISH DATE:                                        | 14 December 2021                                                                                                                                                                               |
| VALIDITY PERIOD:                                     | 120 Days from the closing date                                                                                                                                                                 |
| CLOSING DATE:                                        | 18 February 2022                                                                                                                                                                               |
| CLOSING TIME:                                        | 11:00 AMTHE CLOSING TIME WILL BE AS PER THE CLOCK AT THE RAF RECEPTION                                                                                                              |
| COMPULSORY BRIEFING SESSIONS                         | N/A                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| BID RESPONSES MUST BE HAND DELIVERED / COURIERED TO: | Road Accident Fund (RAF)Head OfficeEco Glades II Office Park,420 Witch-Hazel AvenueCENTURION(at the reception)                                                                    |
| ATTENTION:                                           | SHADI MATLOU                                                                                                                                                                                   |