Clarification to the questions sent by Suppliers:

Statement 1 : .Unfortunately, our suppliers have informed us that the majority of these items are obsolete and may not be compatible with your current system. Based on our experience, upgrading the system may be necessary to accommodate the newer versions of the required parts.

Eskom response to statement 1: In terms of the Obsolete spares Eskom has it own internal processes to address obsolescence of spares or system ,this will be addressed when the contract is awarded by Eskom, this is elaborated on Section 3.5 on the scope of work.

Statement 2: Additionally, we contacted EIZO regarding the supply of the 23” monitor (EIZO FDF2305W). Unfortunately, EIZO has exited the South African market and is no longer supplying this monitor locally.

Eskom response to statement 2 : This is noted, but please provide the supporting letters as much as you can since you will be scored based on the number of supporting letter you have provided.
