3. BACKGROUND

The SABC is one of the key institutional pillars of South Africa's democracy, delivering essential public service content to millions of South Africans on multiple platforms and in different languages, daily. The SABC remains a primary source of news and information for the South African citizenry and remains one of South Africa's national treasures. In recent years, public service broadcaster has emerged from an environment which saw chronic failures in corporate governance which caused severe reputational damage to the SABC brand. Despite its turbulent recent history, the Corporation's leaders and its employees are committed to turning around the SABC to ensure fulfilment of its unique public service mandate and adherence to the values that underpin the country's Constitution. Going forward, one of the key priorities that the SABC aims to put considerable effort on is the restoration of its public image and trust among its audiences, industry counterparts, advertisers and the plethora of stakeholders with whom the broadcaster enjoys affinity. One of the ways in which the broadcaster can reclaim its reputation and display its dominance and credibility as an industry leader is to solicit the services of experts in the field of Corporate Image and Reputation Management.

4.0 REQUIREMENTS AND SCOPE OF SERVICES

The scope of work for the Reputation and Communications Management consultant includes, but is not limited to, the following:

4.1 Reputation Assessment:

- Conduct a comprehensive assessment of the SABC's current reputation through intense stakeholder engagement.
- Analyse media coverage, public sentiment, and stakeholder perceptions to identify areas for improvement.

4.2 Strategy Development:

- Develop a strategic communications plan to enhance the SABC's corporate reputation and address any identified reputational risks.
- Provide recommendations for proactive reputation management strategies and tactics.

4.3 Crisis Management:

- Develop a crisis communication plan and protocols to effectively respond to and manage potential crises or negative incidents.
- Provide media training for key executives and spokespersons to ensure preparedness in crisis situations.

4.4 Stakeholder Engagement:

- Identify key stakeholders and develop targeted communication strategies to engage and maintain positive relationships with them.
- Assist in organizing and facilitating stakeholder engagement initiatives, including events, meetings, and outreach activities.

4.5 Media Relations:

Provide strategic counsel on media relations strategies and tactics to effectively communicate the SABC's messages and objectives.

- Assist in cultivating relationships with key media outlets, journalists, and influencers to secure coverage and reviews of SABC and its broadcast content.
- Assist in pitching story ideas, press releases, and interview opportunities to relevant media contacts.

4.6 Social Media and Digital Promotion:

- Assist in developing social media strategies and content calendars to amplify the reach and engagement of SABC and its broadcast content across social platforms.
- Monitor social media channels for trends, conversations, and opportunities to enhance publicity efforts.

4.7 Monitoring and Measurement:

- To track traditional and social media coverage, sentiment, and key performance indicators related to reputation management.
- Provide regular reports and analysis to measure the effectiveness of communications efforts and identify areas for improvement.
