2. Bid Terms and Conditions

The State Information Technology Agency SOC Ltd [hereinafter referred to as SITA] is a company with limited liability duly incorporated in accordance with the Companies Act of the Republic of South Africa with company registration number 1999/001899/30, and in terms of the State Information Technology Agency Act No. 88 of 1998 [Hereinafter referred to as "SITA Act"] as amended by SITA Amendment Act (Act 38 of 2002).

SITA is mandated in accordance with section 7(g) of the Act to render Information and Communications Technology (ICT) services to Organs of State/government and to act as the Information Communications Technology procurement agency for the Government.

2.1 General rules and instructions

2.1.1 News and press releases

- (a) Bidders or their agents shall not make any news releases concerning this RFB or the awarding of the same or any resulting agreement(s) without the consent of and then only in collaboration with SITA and its Client.

2.1.2 Precedence of documents

- (a) This RFB also incorporates Annexures/Schedules. Where there is a contradiction in terms between the clauses, phrases, words, stipulations or terms and herein referred to generally as stipulations in this RFB and the stipulations in any other document attached hereto or the proposal submitted in response thereto, the relevant stipulations in this RFB shall take precedence.
- (b) Where this RFB is silent on any matter, the relevant stipulations addressing such matter shall take precedence to the extent that they do not contradict any applicable law, policy or standard. Bidders shall refrain from incorporating any additional stipulations or making amendments to the RFB document in their proposals submitted in response to this RFB document. Where any additions or amendments are proposed they should be clearly marked on a separate letter and SITA will exercise its discretion whether to accept the proposal or not.
- (c) Any amendment or change of any nature made to this document shall only be of force and effect if it is in writing, signed by the delegated SITA signatory and added to this document as an addendum
- (d) Should the bidder change any wording or phrase in this document without compliance to 2.1.2 (b) and (c) above, the RFB shall be evaluated as though no change has been made and the original wording or phrases shall be used.
- (e) By submitting a proposal in response to this RFB, the Bidder hereby accepts all the terms and conditions contained in this document.
- (f) This RFB is subject to the General Conditions of Contract referred to in this RFB document which are only negotiable at SITA's discretion.

2.1.3 Preferential Procurement reform

The SITA supports the objects of the B-BBEE Act as ingredients of its business.

2.1.4 National Industrial Participation Programme

- (a) The National Industrial Participation policy, which was endorsed by Cabinet on 30 April 1997, is applicable to contracts that have an imported content. The NIPP is obligatory and therefore must be complied with. Bidders are required to sign and submit the Standard Bidding Document (SBD) 5 in this regard.

2.1.5 Language

- (a) Bids shall be prepared in English.

2.1.6 Gender

- (a) Any word implying any gender shall be interpreted to imply all other genders.

2.1.7 Headings

- (a) Headings are incorporated into this RFB document for ease of reference only and shall not be used for the purposes of interpreting any aspect of this RFB document.

2.1.8 Bid Clarification

- (a) SITA SCM may request written clarification regarding any aspect of this RFB and Bids in response to the RFB. The Bidders must supply the requested information in writing within the specified time frames after the request has been made, otherwise the proposal shall be disqualified. The supplied information shall not change the material aspects of the submission, i.e. bid price, the firmness of the price and technical/functionality, et cetera.

2.1.9 Cancellation of Bid

- (a) SITA reserves the right to cancel this RFB, reject any proposal and to not award the contract to the lowest Bidder or to award parts of the proposal to different bidders.

2.1.10 Bid Validity period

- (a) SITA has a discretion to extend the validity period should the evaluation of this RFB not be completed within the stipulated validity period. Any bidder that refuses to extend its validity period without any justifiable reasons will be disqualified
- (b) Upon receipt of the request to extend the validity period of the RFB, the bidder must respond within the required time frames and in writing on whether or not it agrees to hold his original RFB response valid under the same terms and conditions for a further period.

2.1.11 Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act 13 of 1993

- (a) The Bidder warrants that all its employees (including the employees of any sub-contractor that may be appointed) are covered in terms of the Compensation for Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act 13 of 1993 and that the cover shall remain in force for the duration of the adjudication of this RFB and/ or subsequent agreement. SITA reserves the right to request the Bidder to submit documentary proof of the Bidder's registration and "good standing" with the Compensation Fund, or similar proof acceptable to SITA.

2.1.12 Processing of the Bidder's Personal Information

- (a) All personal information of the Bidder, its employees, representatives, associates, and sub-contractors ("Bidder Personal Information") required under this RFB is collected and processed for the purpose of assessing the strength and competitiveness of the proposal. The evaluation and award of the contract shall be conducted in accordance with applicable legislation, policies and standards. The Bidder is advised that Bidder Personal Information may be passed on to third-parties to whom SITA is compelled by law to provide such information. For example, where appropriate, SITA is compelled to submit information to National Treasury's Database of Restricted Suppliers.
- (b) All Personal Information collected will be processed in accordance with POPIA and the SITA Data Privacy Policy.
- (c) The following persons will have access to the Personal Information that has been collected:
 - (i) SITA personnel participating in procurement/award procedures; and
 - (ii) Members of the public: within seven working days from the time the bid is awarded, the following information will have to be made available on National Treasury's e-Tender portal:
 - (1) contract description and bid number
 - (2) names of the successful bidder(s) and preference points claimed
 - (3) the contract price(s) (if possible)
 - (4) contract period
 - (5) names of directors; and
 - (6) date of completion/award.
- (d) SITA will ensure that the rights of the Bidder and of its employees or representatives (i.e. the right of access and the right to rectify) are effectively guaranteed in accordance with the procedures as specified in the SITA PAIA manual.
- (e) In signing this document, the Bidder consents to the use of its Personal Information for the purposes as specified in par. 2.1.12 above.

2.1.13 Formal contract

- (a) This RFB, all the appended documentation and the proposal in response thereto read together, form the basis for a formal contract to be negotiated and finalised between SITA and/or its clients and the enterprise(s) to whom SITA awards the RFB in whole or in part.
- (b) Any offer and/or acceptance entered into verbally between SITA and any Bidder will neither constitute a contract nor be binding on the parties.
- (c) This RFB is subject to Government Procurement: General Contract Conditions, Special Contract Conditions and any other conditions to be finalised during the contracting stage. These conditions are only negotiable at the SITA's discretion.
- (d) The laws of the RSA shall govern this RFB and the bidders hereby accept that the courts of the Republic of South Africa shall have jurisdiction over any dispute arising from this RFB document or the award of a contract in relation to it.
- (e) The bid will be awarded to the Prime Contractor and/or Bidder who shall be responsible for the management of the awarded contract. No separate contract shall be entered into between SITA and any subcontractors
- (f) The Bidders' response to this RFB or parts of the response, shall be included as a whole or by reference in the final contract to the extent that it is acceptable to SITA

2.1.14 Failure to agree before contract conclusion

- (a) Should the parties at any time before and/or after the communication of the award but prior to the conclusion of the contract fail to agree on any significant product price or service price adjustments, change in technical specification and/or change in services, et cetera, SITA shall be entitled within 14 (fourteen) days of such failure to agree, to recall the letter of award after giving the Bidder not less than 14 (fourteen) days written notice of such cancellation, in which event all fees on which the parties failed to agree increases or decreases shall, for the duration of such notice period, remain fixed on those fee/price applicable prior to the cancellation.
- (b) Such cancellation shall mean that SITA reserves the right to award the same proposal to next best bidders as it deems fit.

2.1.15 Withdrawal of proposal after award

- (a) Should a Bidder withdraw its proposal after accepting the award, SITA reserves the right to recover any additional expenses incurred by SITA for having to accept any less favourable proposal or the additional expenditure incurred by SITA in the preparation of a new RFB

2.1.16 Oral presentations

- (a) Bidders who submit Bids in response to this RFB may be required to give an oral presentation, which may include, but is not limited to, an equipment/service demonstration of their proposal to SITA. This provides an opportunity for the Bidder to clarify or elaborate on the proposal. This is a fact finding and explanation session only which will not include negotiations. SITA shall schedule the time and location of these presentations. Oral presentations will be held at SITA's discretion.

2.1.17 Objection to brand specific requirements

- (a) Any bidder who has reasons to believe that the RFB specification is based on a specific brand must inform SITA within five (5) days from the date of the publication of this RFB document. Failure to notify SITA within the stipulated timeframes may result in SITA not considering the concern.

- (c) If the preference points for specific goals have been claimed or obtained on a fraudulent basis or any of the conditions of contract have not been fulfilled, the purchaser may, in addition to any other remedy it may have –
- (i) disqualify the person from the bidding process;
 - (ii) recover costs, losses or damages it has incurred or suffered as a result of that person's conduct;
 - (iii) cancel the contract and claim any damages which it has suffered as a result of having to make less favourable arrangements due to such cancellation;
 - (iv) recommend that the bidder or contractor, its shareholders and directors, or only the shareholders and directors who acted on a fraudulent basis, be restricted by the National Treasury from obtaining business from any organ of state for a period not exceeding 10 years, after the audi alteram partem (hear the other side) rule has been applied; and
 - (v) forward the matter for criminal prosecution, if deemed necessary

5. Government Procurement: General Conditions of Contract (GCC)

5.1 Purpose

- (a) The purpose of this document is to:
 - (i) Draw special attention to certain general conditions (clauses) applicable to government bids, contracts and orders; and
 - (ii) To ensure that clients are familiar with regard to the rights and obligations of all parties involved in doing business with government.
- (b) In this document words in the singular also mean in the plural and vice versa and words in the masculine also mean in the feminine and neuter.
- (c) The GCC will form part of all bid documents and may not be amended
- (d) Conditions of contract relevant to this bid, will be compiled separately (if applicable) and will supplement the GCC. Whenever there is a conflict, the provisions in the contract shall prevail

5.2 Application

- (a) These general conditions are applicable to all bids, contracts and orders including bids for functional and professional services, sales, hiring, letting and the granting or acquiring of rights, but excluding immovable property, unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents.

- (b) Where applicable, contractual provisions will be drafted to cover specific supplies, services or works.

5.3 General

- (a) Unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents, the purchaser shall not be liable for any expense incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid. Where applicable a non-refundable fee for documents may be charged.

5.4 Standards

- (a) The goods supplied shall conform to the standards mentioned in the bidding documents and specifications.

5.5 Use of contract documents, information and inspection

- (a) The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, disclose the contract, or any provision thereof, or any specification, plan, drawing, pattern, sample, or information furnished by or on behalf of the purchaser in connection therewith, to any person other than a person employed by the supplier in the performance of the contract. Disclosure to any such employed person shall be made in confidence and shall extend only so far as may be necessary for purposes of such performance.
- (b) The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, make use of any document or information mentioned in GCC clause 5.5(a) except for purposes of performing the contract.
- (c) Any document, other than the contract itself mentioned in GCC clause 5.5(a) shall remain the property of the purchaser and shall be returned (all copies) to the purchaser on completion of the supplier's performance under the contract if so required by the purchaser.
- (d) The supplier shall permit the purchaser to inspect the supplier's records relating to the performance of the supplier and to have them audited by auditors appointed by the purchaser, if so required by the purchaser.

5.6 Patent rights

- (a) The supplier shall indemnify the purchaser against all third-party claims of infringement of patent, trademark, or industrial design rights arising from use of the goods or any part thereof by the purchaser.

5.7 Performance security

- (a) Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notification of contract award, the successful bidder shall furnish to the purchaser the performance security of the amount specified in the contract.
- (b) The proceeds of the performance security shall be payable to the purchaser as compensation for any loss resulting from the supplier's failure to complete his obligations under the contract.
- (c) The performance security shall be denominated in the currency of the contract, or in a freely convertible currency acceptable to the purchaser and shall be in one of the following forms:
 - (i) a bank guarantee or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a reputable bank located in the purchaser's country or abroad, acceptable to the purchaser, in the form provided in the bidding documents or another form acceptable to the purchaser; or
 - (ii) a cashier's or certified cheque
- (d) The performance security will be discharged by the purchaser and returned to the supplier not later than thirty (30) days following the date of completion of the supplier's performance obligations under the contract, including any warranty obligations, unless otherwise specified in the contract.

5.8 Inspections, tests and analyses

- (a) All pre-bidding testing will be for the account of the bidder.
- (b) If it is a bid condition that supplies to be produced or services to be rendered should at any stage during production or execution or on completion be subject to inspection, the premises of the bidder or contractor shall be open, at all reasonable hours, for inspection by a representative of the Department or an organisation acting on behalf of the Department.
- (c) If there are no inspection requirements indicated in the bidding documents and no mention is made in the contract, but during the contract period it is decided that inspections shall be carried out, the purchaser shall itself make the necessary arrangements, including payment arrangements with the testing authority concerned.
- (d) If the inspections, tests and analyses referred to in GCC clauses 5.8(b) and 5.8(c) show the supplies to be in accordance with the contract requirements, the cost of the inspections, tests and analyses shall be defrayed by the purchaser.
- (e) Where the supplies or services referred to in GCC clauses 5.8(b) and 5.8(c) do not comply with the contract requirements, irrespective of whether such supplies or services are accepted or not, the cost in connection with these inspections, tests or analyses shall be defrayed by the supplier.
- (f) Supplies and services which are referred to in GCC clauses 5.8(b) and 5.8(c) and which do not comply with the contract requirements may be rejected.
- (g) Any contract supplies may on or after delivery be inspected, tested or analysed and may be rejected if found not to comply with the requirements of the contract. Such rejected supplies shall be held at the cost and risk of the supplier who shall, when called upon, remove them immediately at his own cost and forthwith substitute them with supplies which do comply with the requirements of the contract. Failing such removal, the rejected supplies shall be returned at the suppliers cost and risk. Should the supplier fail to provide the substitute supplies forthwith, the purchaser may, without giving the supplier further opportunity to substitute the rejected supplies, purchase such supplies as may be necessary at the expense of the supplier.
- (h) The provisions of GCC clauses 5.8(d) to 5.8(g) shall not prejudice the right of the purchaser to cancel the contract on account of a breach of the conditions thereof, or to act in terms of clause 5.23 of the GCC.

5.9 Packing

- (a) The supplier shall provide such packing of the goods as is required to prevent their damage or deterioration during transit to their final destination, as indicated in the contract. The packing shall be sufficient to withstand, without limitation, rough handling during transit and exposure to extreme temperatures, salt and precipitation during transit, and open storage. Packing, case size and weights shall take into consideration, where appropriate, the remoteness of the goods' final destination and the absence of heavy handling facilities at all points in transit.
- (b) The packing, marking, and documentation within and outside the packages shall comply strictly with such special requirements as shall be expressly provided for in the contract, including additional requirements, if any, specified in the contract, and in any subsequent instructions ordered by the purchaser.

5.10 Delivery and documents

- (a) Delivery of the goods shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the terms specified in the contract. The details of shipping and/or other documents to be furnished by the supplier are specified in the contract.
- (b) Documents to be submitted by the supplier are specified in the contract.

5.11 Insurance

- (a) The goods supplied under the contract shall be fully insured in a freely convertible currency against loss or damage incidental to manufacture or acquisition, transportation, storage and delivery in the manner specified in the contract.

5.12 Transportation

- (a) Should a price other than an all-inclusive delivered price be required, this shall be specified in the contract.

5.13 Incidental services

- (a) The supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following services, including additional services, if any, specified in the contract:
 - (i) performance or supervision of on-site assembly and/or commissioning of the supplied goods;
 - (ii) furnishing of tools required for assembly and/or maintenance of the supplied goods; furnishing of a detailed operations and maintenance manual for each appropriate unit of the supplied goods;
 - (iii) performance or supervision or maintenance and/or repair of the supplied goods, for a period of time agreed by the parties, provided that this service shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under this contract; and
 - (iv) training of the purchaser's personnel, at the supplier's plant and/or on-site, in assembly, start-up, operation, maintenance, and/or repair of the supplied goods.
- (b) Prices charged by the supplier for incidental services, if not included in the contract price for the goods, shall be agreed upon in advance by the parties and shall not exceed the prevailing rates charged to other parties by the supplier for similar services.

5.14 Spare parts

- (a) As specified in the contract, the supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following materials, notifications, and information pertaining to spare parts manufactured or distributed by the supplier:
 - (i) such spare parts as the purchaser may elect to purchase from the supplier, provided that this election shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under the contract; and
 - (ii) in the event of termination of production of the spare parts:
 - (1) Advance notification to the purchaser of the pending termination, in sufficient time to permit the purchaser to procure needed requirements; and
 - (2) following such termination, furnishing at no cost to the purchaser, the blueprints, drawings, and specifications of the spare parts, if requested.

5.15 Warranty

- (a) The supplier warrants that the goods supplied under the contract are new, unused, of the most recent or current models, and that they incorporate all recent improvements in design and materials unless provided otherwise in the contract. The supplier further warrants that all goods supplied under this contract shall have no defect, arising from design, materials, or workmanship (except when the design and/or material is required by the purchaser's specifications) or from any act or omission of the supplier, that may develop under normal use of the supplied goods in the conditions prevailing in the country of final destination.
- (b) This warranty shall remain valid for twelve (12) months after the goods, or any portion thereof as the case may be, have been delivered to and accepted at the final destination indicated in the contract, or for eighteen (18) months after the date of shipment from the port or place of loading in the source country, whichever period concludes earlier, unless specified otherwise in the contract.
- (c) The purchaser shall promptly notify the supplier in writing of any claims arising under this warranty.
- (d) Upon receipt of such notice, the supplier shall, within the period specified in the contract and with all reasonable speed, repair or replace the defective goods or parts thereof, without costs to the purchaser.
- (e) If the supplier, having been notified, fails to remedy the defect(s) within the period specified in the contract, the purchaser may proceed to take such remedial action as may be necessary, at the supplier's risk and expense and without prejudice to any other rights which the purchaser may have against the supplier under the contract.

5.16 Payment

- (a) The method and conditions of payment to be made to the supplier under this contract shall be specified in the contract.
- (b) The supplier shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice accompanied by a copy of the delivery note and upon fulfilment of other obligations stipulated in the contract.
- (c) Payments shall be made promptly by the purchaser in accordance with the terms and conditions of contract.
- (d) Payment will be made in South African Rand (ZAR) unless otherwise stipulated in the contract.

5.17 Prices

- (a) Prices charged by the supplier for goods delivered and services performed under the contract shall not vary from the prices quoted by the supplier in his bid, with the exception of any price adjustments authorised in the contract or in the purchaser's Request for Quotation validity extension, as the case may be.

5.18 Contract amendments

- (a) No variation in or modification of the terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by the parties concerned.

5.19 Assignment

- (a) The supplier shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations to perform under the contract, except with the purchaser's prior written consent.

5.20 Subcontracts

- (a) The supplier shall notify the purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under this contract if not already specified in the bid. Such notification, in the original bid or later, shall not relieve the supplier from any liability or obligation under the contract.

5.21 Delays in the supplier's performance

- (a) Delivery of the goods and performance of services shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the time schedule prescribed by the purchaser in the contract.
- (b) If at any time during performance of the contract, the supplier or its subcontractor(s) should encounter conditions impeding timely delivery of the goods and performance of services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the supplier's notice, the purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may at his discretion extend the supplier's time for performance, with or without the imposition of penalties, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of contract.
- (c) No provision in a contract shall be deemed to prohibit the obtaining of supplies or services from a national department, provincial department, or a local authority.
- (d) The right is reserved to procure outside of the contract small quantities or to have minor essential services executed if an emergency arises, the supplier's point of supply is not situated at or near the place where the supplies are required, or the supplier's services are not readily available.
- (e) Except as provided under GCC clause 5.25, a delay by the supplier in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the supplier liable to the imposition of penalties, pursuant to GCC clause 5.22, unless an extension of time is agreed upon pursuant to GCC clause 5.21(b) without the application of penalties.
- (f) Upon any delay beyond the delivery period in the case of a supplies contract, the purchaser shall, without cancelling the contract, be entitled to purchase supplies of a similar quality and up to the same quantity in substitution of the goods not supplied in conformity with the contract and to return any goods delivered later at the supplier's expense and risk, or to cancel the contract and buy such goods as may be required to complete the contract and without prejudice to his other rights, be entitled to claim damages from the supplier.

5.22 Penalties

- (a) Subject to GCC clause 5.25, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or to perform the services within the period(s) specified in the contract, the purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as a penalty, a sum calculated on the delivered price of the delayed goods or unperformed services using the current prime interest rate calculated for each day of the delay until actual delivery or performance. The purchaser may also consider termination of the contract pursuant to GCC clause 5.23.

5.23 Termination for default

- (a) The purchaser, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, may terminate this contract in whole or in part:
 - (i) if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods within the period(s) specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser pursuant to GCC clause 5.21(b)
 - (ii) if the Supplier fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract; or

- (iii) if the supplier, in the judgment of the purchaser, has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the contract.
- (b) In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods, works or services similar to those undelivered, and the supplier shall be liable to the purchaser for any excess costs for such similar goods, works or services. However, the supplier shall continue performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.
- (c) Where the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may decide to impose a restriction penalty on the supplier by prohibiting such supplier from doing business with the public sector for a period not exceeding 10 years.
- (d) If a purchaser intends imposing a restriction on a supplier or any person associated with the supplier, the supplier will be allowed a time period of not more than fourteen (14) days to provide reasons why the envisaged restriction should not be imposed. Should the supplier fail to respond within the stipulated fourteen (14) days the purchaser may regard the intended penalty as not objected against and may impose it on the supplier.
- (e) Any restriction imposed on any person by the Accounting Officer / Authority will, at the discretion of the Accounting Officer / Authority, also be applicable to any other enterprise or any partner, manager, director or other person who wholly or partly exercises or exercised or may exercise control over the enterprise of the first-mentioned person, and with which enterprise or person the first-mentioned person, is or was in the opinion of the Accounting Officer / Authority actively associated.
- (f) If a restriction is imposed, the purchaser must, within five (5) working days of such imposition, furnish the National Treasury, with the following information:
 - (i) the name and address of the supplier and / or person restricted by the purchaser;
 - (ii) the date of commencement of the restriction
 - (iii) the period of restriction; and
 - (iv) the reasons for the restriction.
- (g) These details will be loaded in the National Treasury's central database of suppliers or persons prohibited from doing business with the public sector.
- (h) If a court of law convicts a person of an offence as contemplated in sections 12 or 13 of the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, No. 12 of 2004, the court may also rule that such person's name be endorsed on the Register for Tender Defaulters. When a person's name has been endorsed on the Register, the person will be prohibited from doing business with the public sector for a period not less than five years and not more than 10 years. The National Treasury is empowered to determine the period of restriction and each case will be dealt with on its own merits. According to section 32 of the Act the Register must be open to the public. The Register can be perused on the National Treasury website.

5.24 Anti-dumping and countervailing duties and rights

- (a) When, after the date of bid, provisional payments are required, or anti-dumping or countervailing duties are imposed, or the amount of a provisional payment or anti-dumping or countervailing right is increased in respect of any dumped or subsidized import, the State is not liable for any amount so required or imposed, or for the amount of any such increase. When, after the said date, such a provisional payment is no longer required or any such anti-dumping or countervailing right is abolished, or where the amount of such provisional payment or any such right is reduced, any such favourable difference shall on demand be paid forthwith by the contractor to the State or the State may deduct such amounts from moneys (if any) which may otherwise be due to the contractor in regard to supplies or services which he delivered or rendered, or is to deliver or render in terms of the contract or any other contract or any other amount which may be due to him.

5.25 Force majeure

- (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC clauses 5.22 and 5.23, the supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that his delay in performance or other failure to perform his obligations under the contract is the result of an event of force majeure.
- (b) If a force majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as is reasonably practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the force majeure event.

5.26 Termination for insolvency

- (a) The purchaser may at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier if the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the supplier, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

5.27 Settlement of disputes

- (a) If any dispute or difference of any kind whatsoever arises between the purchaser and the supplier in connection with or arising out of the contract, the parties shall make every effort to resolve amicably such dispute or difference by mutual consultation.
- (b) If, after thirty (30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of his intention to commence with mediation. No mediation in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given to the other party.
- (c) Should it not be possible to settle a dispute by means of mediation, it may be settled in a South African court of law.
- (d) Mediation proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure specified in the contract.
- (e) Notwithstanding any reference to mediation and/or court proceedings herein:
 - (i) the parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the contract unless they otherwise agree; and
 - (ii) the purchaser shall pay the supplier any monies due to the supplier.

5.28 Limitation of liability

- (a) Except in cases of criminal negligence or wilful misconduct, and in the case of infringement pursuant to GCC clause 5.6:
 - (i) the supplier shall not be liable to the purchaser, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the supplier to pay penalties and/or damages to the purchaser; and
 - (ii) the aggregate liability of the supplier to the purchaser, whether under the contract, in tort or otherwise, shall not exceed the total contract price, provided that this limitation shall not apply to the cost of repairing or replacing defective equipment.

5.29 Governing language

- (a) The contract shall be written in English. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract that is exchanged by the parties shall also be written in English.

5.30 Applicable law

- (a) The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with South African laws, unless otherwise specified in the contract.

5.31 Notices

- (a) The written acceptance of a bid will be forwarded to the supplier through a formal written letter of award.
- (b) The time mentioned in the contract documents for performing any act after such aforesaid notice has been given, shall be communicated on the letter.

5.32 Taxes and duties

- (a) A foreign supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, stamp duties, license fees, and other such levies imposed outside the purchaser's country.
- (b) A local supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, etc., incurred until delivery of the contracted goods to the purchaser.
- (c) No contract shall be concluded with any bidder whose tax matters are not in order. Prior to the award of a bid the Department must be in possession of a tax clearance certificate, submitted by the bidder. This certificate must be an original issued by the SARS.

5.33 National Industrial Participation (NIPP) Programme

- (a) The NIPP Programme administered by the DTIC shall be applicable to all contracts that are subject to the NIPP obligation.

5.34 Prohibition of restrictive practices

- (a) In terms of section 4(1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, is prohibited if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if a bidder (s) is / are or a contractor(s) was / were involved in collusive bidding (or bid rigging).
- (b) If a bidder(s) or contractor(s), based on reasonable grounds or evidence obtained by the purchaser, has / have engaged in the restrictive practice referred to above, the purchaser may refer the matter to the Competition Commission for investigation and possible imposition of administrative penalties as contemplated in the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998.
- (c) If a bidder(s) or contractor(s), has / have been found guilty by the Competition Commission of the restrictive practice referred to above, the purchaser may, in addition and without prejudice to any other remedy provided for, invalidate the bid(s) for such item(s) offered, and / or terminate the contract in whole or part, and / or restrict the bidder(s) or contractor(s) from conducting business with the public sector for a period not exceeding ten (10) years and / or claim damages from the bidder(s) or contractor(s) concerned.

6. National Industrial Participation Programme (SBD 5)

6.1 Introduction

- (a) The National Industrial Participation (NIPP) Programme, which is applicable to all government procurement contracts that have an imported content, became effective on the 1 September 1996. The NIPP policy and guidelines were fully endorsed by Cabinet on 30 April 1997. In terms of the Cabinet decision, all State and parastatal purchases / lease contracts (for goods, works and services) entered into after this date, are subject to the NIPP requirements. NIPP is obligatory and therefore must be complied with. The Industrial Participation Secretariat (IPS) of the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (DTIC) is charged with the responsibility of administering the programme.

6.2 Pillars of the programme

- (a) The NIPP obligation is benchmarked on the imported content of the contract. Any contract having an imported content equal to or exceeding US$ 10 million or other currency equivalent to US$ 10 million shall have an NIPP obligation. This threshold of US$ 10 million can be reached as follows:
 - (i) Any single contract with imported content exceeding US$10 million; or
 - (ii) Multiple contracts for the same goods, works or services each with imported content exceeding US$3 million awarded to one seller over a 2-year period which in total exceeds US$10 million; or
 - (iii) A contract with a renewable option clause, where should the option be exercised the total value of the imported content shall exceed US$10 million; or
 - (iv) Multiple suppliers of the same goods, works or services under the same contract, where the value of the imported content of each allocation is equal to or exceeds US$ 3 million worth of goods, works or services to the same government institution, which in total over a two (2) year period exceeds US$10 million.
- (b) The NIPP obligation applicable to suppliers in respect of sub-paragraph 6.2(a) shall amount to 30 % of the imported content whilst suppliers in respect of paragraph 6.2(a) (iv) shall incur 30% of the total NIPP obligation on a pro-rata basis.
- (c) To satisfy the NIPP obligation, the DTIC would negotiate and conclude agreements such as investments, joint ventures, sub-contracting, licensee production, export promotion, sourcing arrangements and research and development (R&D) with partners or suppliers.
- (d) A period of seven years has been identified as the time frame within which to discharge the obligation.

6.3 Requirements of the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition

- (a) In order to ensure effective implementation of the programme, successful bidders (contractors) are required to, immediately after the award of a contract that is in excess of R10 million (ten million rand), submit details of such a contract to the DTIC for reporting purposes.
- (b) The purpose for reporting details of contracts in excess of the amount of R10 million (ten million rand) is to cater for multiple contracts for the same goods, works or services; renewable contracts and multiple suppliers for the same goods, works or services under the same contract as provided for in paragraphs 6.2 (a) above.

6.4 Bid submission and contract reporting requirements of bidders and successful bidders (contractors)

- (a) Bidders are required to sign and submit this Standard Bidding Document (SBD 5) together with the Bid on the closing date and time.
- (b) In order to accommodate multiple contracts for the same goods, works or services; renewable contracts and multiple suppliers for the same goods, works or services under the same contract as indicated in sub-paragraph 6.2(a) (ii) to (iv).
- (c) To enable the DTIC in determining the NIPP obligation, successful bidders (contractors) are required, immediately after being officially notified about any successful bid with a value in excess of R10 million (ten million rand), to contact and furnish the DTIC with the following information:
 - (i) bid or contract number
 - (ii) description of the goods, works or services
 - (iii) date on which the contract was accepted
 - (iv) name, address and contact details of the government institution
 - (v) value of the contract
 - (vi) imported content of the contract, if possible
- (d) The information required in paragraph 4.4 (c) above must be sent to the DTIC, Private Bag X 84, Pretoria, 0001 within five (5) working days after award of the contract, at e-mail/s Ynematswerani@thedtic.gov.za and Amohlahlo@thedtic.gov.za.

6.5 Process to satisfy the NIPP obligation

- (a) Once the successful bidder (contractor) has contacted and furnished the DTIC with the information required, the following steps shall be followed:
 - (i) the contractor and the DTIC shall determine the NIPP obligation;
 - (ii) the contractor and the DTIC shall sign the NIPP obligation agreement;
 - (iii) the contractor shall submit a performance guarantee to the DTIC
 - (iv) the contractor shall submit a business concept for consideration and approval by the DTIC
 - (v) upon approval of the business concept by the DTIC, the contractor shall submit detailed business plans outlining the business concepts
 - (vi) the contractor shall implement the business plans; and
 - (vii) the contractor shall submit bi-annual progress reports on approved plans to the DTIC.
- (b) The NIPP obligation agreement is between the DTIC and the successful bidder (contractor) and, therefore, does not involve the purchasing institution.
