

OHS requirements to be submitted as a tender returnable

1, Annexure B

Make sure that all applicable rules and requirements are referenced in the form. The completed form is included in the enquiry procurement package, and the form must sign and submitted by the tenderer.

2, Baseline SHE Risk Assessment:

Refer to the SHE hazard/aspect and risks that are identified and assessed before the inception of a new project and commencement of operations. Baseline risk assessment shall include both routine and non-routine tasks.

3, Competency:

Training, knowledge, and experience and where applicable, qualification relevant to that work, e.g. First aider, SHE Professionals, Incident investigator Safety, health, and environmental plan: Means a site, activity or project documented plan in accordance with clients SHE requirements., it must be a scope or project base

4, Valid letter of good standing

Registration with the compensation Commissioner or a licensed mutual company or an equivalent of it. If the company has only one employee, the supplier shall submit an insurance letter that covers accidental death and disability to the value of R500 000.00

5, SHE Policy:

A statement of intention by the employer which provides a framework for setting SHE objectives to improve SHE performance and emphasizes management commitment to employees' wellbeing and duty of care to the environment.

6, Costing for Safety, Health, and Environment.

SHE costing must reflect the amount of funds that will be allocated to SHE when the project commences, and it should be based on the scope of work and the associated risk

7, Health and Safety Plan

Site activities or project documented plan in accordance with the client's health and safety requirements. The plan must be scope or project based. It must reflect an organized system which the suppliers will comply with and enforce to manage the health and safety risks during the life cycle of the project. This can be also in the form of an OHS Manual.